Acting as a student host is an important service to the University of Connecticut and the Division of Athletics. Appropriate conduct is required of you by University and NCAA standards.

1. You must be enrolled as a full-time student to act as a host. If you are a first year student, you must have been a qualifier out of high school.
2. You may receive $30.00 per day to entertain a prospect. You may be provided an additional $15.00 per day for each additional prospect you host during that time.
3. You may not give cash to the visiting prospect or anyone else accompanying the prospect.
4. You may not use the entertainment funds to purchase or otherwise provide the prospect with gifts of value (e.g., souvenirs, clothing, mementos).
5. You may not use vehicles provided or arranged by a UConn employee or booster.
6. You may not transport the prospect or anyone accompanying the prospect more than 30 miles from the campus.
7. You may not allow recruiting conversations to occur, on- or off-campus, between the prospect and the booster. If an unplanned meeting occurs, only an exchange of greetings is permissible.
8. You may receive a complimentary meal(s) while accompanying the prospect. Any other student-athletes in attendance at the meal(s) must pay their own expenses.
9. You may allow the prospect to participate in voluntary activities involving your sport, provided the activity was in no way arranged by or observed by the coaching staff. These activities must occur in facilities that are open to the general student population (e.g., a prospect would not be permitted to utilize the varsity weight room).
