THE TOP FIVE

1 Baylor (15-13, 8-9) returns home to the Ferrell Center after back-to-back wins against both of the Big 12's Kansas schools on the road. The Bears beat Kansas State last Saturday 3-1, then took down the Jayhawks on Wednesday, 3-1. The wins moved BU into sole possession of sixth place in the conference standings heading into the match with Missouri.

~~~~~

2 Senior Caitlyn Trice solidified her spot as one of the best liberos in Baylor history. With 15 digs against Kansas, Trice broke the all-time Baylor record for digs in a single season. Her current total of 559 leaves her just 28 digs shy of the all-time Big 12 single-season record of 587 set by Iowa State's Ashley Mass last season.

~~~~~

3 Baylor's back-row defense is ranked second in the NCAA in digs per set, averaging 18.74. BU also leads the Big 12 by a huge margin, posting nearly two digs per set more than any Big 12 team. With 69 digs against KU, Baylor topped the 2,000-dig mark for the first time in the rally-scoring era and only the sixth time ever. The team single-season record is 2,673, set in 1993.

~~~~~

4 Middle blockers Elizabeth Graham and Torri Campbell have helped carry Baylor both offensively and defensively in Big 12 play. In league matches, Graham leads the team in kills (198), hitting percentage (.320) and blocks (80). Meanwhile, Campbell is second in all three categories racking up 165 kills, hitting .280 and recording 58 blocks in BU's 17 conference matches.

~~~~~

5 Despite a 3-1 loss earlier this season at Missouri, Baylor has won five of the last eight meetings, including three of the last four at the Ferrell Center.

HEAD COACH

JIM BARNES

7th season at BU
15th season overall

With the completion of his 14th season as a Division I head coach, Jim Barnes has posted an impressive 279-202 (.580) record, winning 20 or more matches six times, and earning his first-ever berth into the NCAA Tournament this season. He is in his seventh season at the helm of the Baylor Lady Bears volleyball program, posting a 116-103 (.530) overall record.

The 2009 season was been a special one for Barnes and his squad, earning just the third NCAA tournament appearance in school history and parlaying that into the program's first-ever Sweet 16. Baylor set school records with 11 consecutive wins, and got off to the best start in school history, winning 17 of the first 18 matches. After posting only the second winning Big 12 record in program history at 11-9. Earlier this season Barnes' team knocked off then-No. 11 Iowa State this season, marking the highest ranked team Baylor has ever defeated, until taking down No. 9 UCLA in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

In 2008, Barnes' team went 18-13 overall, finishing sixth in the Big 12 with a 9-11 conference record. Baylor's 18 regular season wins tied the most since 1999, while the Bears' nine Big 12 victories also tied for the most since 1999. Barnes' squad began 2008 with a school record eight-straight wins to open a season, then broke another school record, winning their first three Big 12 matches. After suffering injury setbacks during the second half of the season, the Bears narrowly missed an at-large bid to the NCAA tournament.

Baylor's 2007 squad finished with an overall record of 14-17, finishing eighth overall in the Big 12. The Bears were on the cusp of a winning season, with a 14-11 record late in the year, but suffered six straight losses, including a program record four-straight losses in five-games.

The Bears continued their solid defensive play, ranking near the top of the Big 12 in digs and blocks, a point of focus for Barnes' squads. The Bears ranked 37th in the nation and fourth in the conference in blocks per game, and Baylor tallied 16.48 digs per game, its highest season total in six years.

The 2006 Bears went 18-15, producing a winning record for the first time in Barnes' tenure with the program. The Bears were ranked as high as 30th in the nation, and set a school record with a 12-1 nonconference record. Again, Baylor improved its record by three wins, a trend that Barnes set during his first two seasons in Waco. While Baylor's conference record was 6-14, the same as 2005, the Big 12 featured five teams ranked in the final CSTV/AVCA Top 25, and sent six teams to the NCAA Tournament.

During the 2005 season, the Bears improved upon their record from the previous year in their second season under Barnes. Baylor went 15-17 overall, a three-win improvement, and 6-14 in Big 12 Conference play, two more league wins than 2004. The Bears ranked 19th nationally and third in the Big 12 with 3.05 blocks per game. The Bears also ranked fifth in the league with 14.53 digs per game. Baylor's signature victory was a four-game win over NCAA Tournament participant Texas A&M in College Station, the Bears' first victory at G. Rollie White Coliseum since 1992.

The 2004 Bears ranked 17th nationally with 3.05 blocks per game and outblocked nearly every opponent they faced - 25 of 31 matches to be exact, including their home match against the nation's top blocking team, Nebraska.

In his first season at Baylor, Barnes led the Bears to a 12-19 record, 4-16 in Big 12 Conference play. The Bears won five straight matches to claim the Sam Houston State Tournament title and recorded an upset victory over No. 24 Kansas at home. Desiree Guilliard-Young continued to emerge as a dominant force and earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors and was also named the Sam Houston State Tournament's most valuable player.

Barnes earned his bachelor's degree in health and human performance from McNeese State in 1994 and completed his master's degree from the school in 1996. He is married to the former Tracy Pittman, and they have two daughters, Brooke Aidan and Jenna Grace.
