BIG TEN RUNNER OF THE WEEK

Rebecca Walter, Michigan
JR, Beverly Hills, Mich./Groves

Walter led the Wolverines for the fourth-straight time this season, finishing fourth at the NCAA Pre-Nationals, bettering her 13th place finish in 2003. Walter led all Big Ten runners in the meet, helping Michigan to a second place finish. Walter has now led Michigan in its last four scoring meets in 2004 and has been the first U-M harrier across the line in nine-straight meets, dating back to October 10, 2002.

Walter captured the Big Ten Championship last year and was named Conference Runner of the Year.

BIG TEN RUNNER OF THE WEEK

Nate Brannen, Michigan
SR, Cambridge, Ontario/Preston

Andrew Carlson, Minnesota
SR, Fargo, N.D./Fargo South

Brannen paced the Wolverines for the second time this season, claiming runner-up honors in the NCAA Pre-National white race with a personal-best 8K time of 23:56.8 -- shaving 1.4 seconds from his previous mark. This is the second Conference laurel for Brannen this season.

Carlson won the individual title at the Jim Drews Invitational in a field that included No. 1 Wisconsin. Carlson's winning time of 24:12.0 was a personal best and the fifth best in school history over an 8K course. He also won the Drews title in 2002.
