Felisha
Legette-Jack
Head Coach

Syracuse, 1989
First year at Indiana
Fifth year overall

Career record: 54-63 (.461)

Felisha Legette-Jack, who has served on two USA Basketball gold medal-winning coaching staffs and owns 15 years of Division I college coaching experience, including assistant stops at Michigan State, Syracuse and Boston College and most recently the last four years as the head coach at Hofstra University, was named the eighth head women's basketball coach at Indiana University on April 19. Legette-Jack arrives in Bloomington after directing Hofstra to a 19-12 overall record and 12-6 Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) mark in 2005-06, culminating in a Women's National Invitation Tournament appearance.

Legette-Jack guided Hofstra to one of its best seasons in school history in 2005-06. The Pride's 19 victories are the second-best in school history, and the 12 league triumphs tied a school record. In addition to the team success, Hofstra ranked among the CAA's top three in scoring offense (second, 69.5 ppg), field goal percentage defense (.379), rebounding offense (second, 43.0), rebounding margin (third, +3.9), assists per game (second, 16.0), steals (second, 11.03), offensive rebounds (second, 16.73), defensive rebounding (second, 26.27) and three-point field goals per game (third, 5.37).

Legette-Jack played an instrumental role in helping USA Basketball to the 2005 FIBA U19 World Championship in Tunisia last summer. Legette-Jack served as an assistant to Duke's Gail Goestenkors on a U.S. Team that averaged 105.9 points per game and posted an impressive 46.3 points per game margin of victory. The U.S. team was just the third to finish the U19 World Championships undefeated, and it was the first team to post an 8-0 ledger.

In her first three years at Hofstra, Legette-Jack guided the Pride to the CAA Tournament Quarterfinals each year, and she earned 2003-04 CAA Coach of the Year after Hofstra went 14-14 overall and 11-7 in the league. Hofstra's 27 victories from 2003-05 were the most in consecutive years since Hofstra won 39 games from 1982-84.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ...

"I am so happy for Felisha. This is a great match - Felisha and Indiana University. She is high energy and extremely motivated and positive. She has a tremendous work ethic and is one of the best people I have ever been associated with. She knows the game of basketball and is a great teacher. I can't say enough good things about her."

Gail Goestenkors, Duke Head Coach

"It is wonderful to welcome Felisha back into the Big Ten. She is a dynamic coach with terrific passion and pride who will be a tremendous addition to the conference and to IU. We are very proud of her and wish her and her family the very best as they settle in Bloomington."

Joanne P. McCallie, Michigan State Head Coach
