BIG TEN GOLFER OF THE WEEK

Dana Je, Ohio State
 JR, Orlando, Fla./Montverde Academy

Je finished tied for fifth at the Peg Barnard Collegiate this past week, marking the highest she has finished this season. Her first round score of 71 tied for her season's lowest round, which also was the best round by a Buckeye at the tournament. She posted a second-round 75 to record a two-round total of 146.

Amber Weinerth, Penn State
 SR, Auburn, New York/Auburn

Weinerth sparked a final-round Nittany Lion rally at James Madison's Bonnie Hoover Invitational this past week, finishing fourth and helping Penn State to the tournament title. The PSU senior fired a two-round total of 150 (76-74) and finished the lowest of any Big Ten golfer last week. Penn State captured first place with a two-stroke victory over Georgetown.
