Historical Notes

- 1890 Sherman Scores First KU Touchdown
  - Kansas played its first official football game, losing to Baker University in Baldwin, Kan., 22-9. Right halfback A.F. Sherman scored KU’s first touchdown on a punt return. An account of the game in the Weekly University Courier described Sherman’s TD: “Hudson punted the ball down the field. Sherman managed to get the ball and made a phenomenal run for the first Kansas score ever made in football.”

- 1899 Kansas has First Perfect Season
  - In his only season as head coach at Kansas, Fielding H. Yost led the Jayhawks to a 10-0 record, which represents one of just two perfect seasons in the 116 years of football competition. KU outscored its opponents 280-37 and averaged 28 points per game. Yost, who later gained fame as head coach at Michigan, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1951.

- 1908 First Conference Championship
  - The Jayhawks finished with a 9-0 record, outscoring their opponents 131-20, and claimed the school’s first conference championship by finishing with a 4-0 record in the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Conference.

- 1912 KU Defeats MU in First Homecoming
  - Playing its first Homecoming game before a crowd of 9,000 fans at McCook Field, KU downed rival Missouri, 12-3. Jayhawk coach Arthur Mosse used a new offensive alignment, known as the “Minnesota Shift” to confuse the Tigers that afternoon.

- 1920 Phog Allen Builds a Football Stadium
  - Legendary KU basketball coach Phog Allen, in his only season as head football coach, rallied his team from a 20-0 halftime deficit to a 20-20 tie against Nebraska. Leading the team was senior quarterback Dutch Lonborg and halfback John Bunn, two individuals who were later inducted into the College Basketball Hall of Fame. The following Monday, students and faculty gathered to celebrate the comeback and more than $200,000 was pledged over a three-day period to build a concrete stadium to replace McCook Field, home for KU football since 1892.

- 1921 Jayhawks Open Play in Memorial Stadium
  - In the first game in Memorial Stadium, the Jayhawks defeated Kansas State, 21-7, in front of 5,160 fans. When the stadium opened, the east and west side stands were completed with a capacity of 22,000. The final game of the 1921 season saw KU down Missouri, 15-9, before 15,480 fans.

The Jayhawks of 1899 outscored their opponents 280-37, averaging 28 points per game, and posted six shutouts during the season. Fielding H. Yost (second row, third from right) served as head coach of the team.

1931  KU Plays Haskell in First Home Night Game

On a Friday night, Oct. 2, Kansas hosted the Haskell Indians in the first-ever home night game in Jayhawk football history. The concept for a night game came from KU athletics director Phog Allen, who was able to transport portable lights that were borrowed from Haskell Stadium (also in Lawrence) and put them in place at Memorial Stadium. In front of 11,000 fans, Haskell surprised KU with a 6-0 victory.

1947  Evans and Schnellbacher: First Two All-Americans

Led by KU’s first two All-America selections - halfback Ray Evans and end Otto Schnellbacher - the Jayhawks finished the season with an 8-1-2 record, tied for first in the conference and capped the season by playing Georgia Tech in the 1948 Orange Bowl. It marked KU’s first appearance in a postseason bowl game. Among the victories that season for head coach George Sauer was an 86-6 win against South Dakota State, which represents the most points a KU team has ever scored in a single game. KU finished the year ranked 12th in the final Associated Press poll.

1960  Jayhawks Upset a No. 1-Ranked Team

The Jayhawks faced one of the most challenging schedules in school history, facing three teams (Syracuse, Iowa and Missouri) ranked No. 1 in the nation. KU lost early in the season to Syracuse (14-7) and Iowa (21-7), but the elite backfield combination of John Hadl, Curtis McClinton, Doyle Schick and Bert Coan helped lead the Jayhawks to a 23-7 upset win versus then No. 1-ranked Missouri. The win was later forfeited when it was determined that Coan had received a free plane ride to the College Football All-Star Game in Chicago from a KU alum.

1963  Sayers Scampers for NCAA Record

Hall of Fame halfback Gale Sayers put his name in the college football record book by breaking loose on a 99-yard run against Nebraska in Lincoln, the longest run from scrimmage at that time in NCAA history. Only four other backs (including KU’s Eric Vann) have accomplished a run of that length in the history of college football.

1967  A Coaching Staff of Excellence

After finishing with a 5-5 record in his first season as head coach in 1967, Pepper Rodgers assembled one of the greatest coaching staffs in KU history to begin the 1968 season. The staff included several assistants who would later achieve fame as head coaches, including John Cooper (Tulsa, Arizona State and Ohio State), Dick Tomey (Arizona), Terry Donahue (UCLA), the late Dave McLain (Wisconsin) and Don Fambrough (Kansas). The staff also included Doug Weaver (former athletics director at Georgia Tech and Michigan State) and Larry Travis (former athletics director at Kansas State and Western Carolina).

1968  Rodgers Takes KU to Orange Bowl

Under the guidance of coach Pepper Rodgers, KU came within five points of an undefeated season and a victory in the Orange Bowl. The Jayhawks tied for first in the Big Eight and finished 9-2 with losses to Oklahoma (27-23) and Penn State (15-14) in the Orange Bowl. Among the standouts were quarterback Bobby Douglass and fullback John Riggins.

1973 A Cardiac Season

The Jayhawks experienced a cardiac season with six games decided by two points or less -- the most games decided by that margin in NCAA history. KU finished the year with a 7-4-1 record, winning three of those close encounters, and played North Carolina State in the Liberty Bowl.

1975 Cromwell Guides KU to Upset of OU

Kansas defeated No. 2 Oklahoma in Norman, 23-3, to end the Sooners' 28-game winning streak and 37-game unbeaten string. Earlier in the season, quarterback Nolan Cromwell set a new NCAA record for rushing yards by quarterbacks with 294 yards on 28 carries in a 20-0 win against Oregon State.

1991 Tuxedo Tony Rushes for 396 Yards

Running back "Tuxedo" Tony Sands set an NCAA single-game record by rushing for 396 yards on 58 carries in a 53-29 win against Missouri in Lawrence. Sands was later named Offensive Player of the Year in the Big Eight Conference.

1992 First Bowl Win in 31 Years

Head coach Glen Mason guided KU to its first bowl win in 31 years as the Jayhawks defeated Brigham Young, 23-10, in the 1992 Aloha Bowl. Led by defensive linemen Dana Stubblefield and Gilbert Brown, along with quarterback Chip Hilleary, KU finished the season with an 8-4 record and placed third in the Big Eight Conference.

1995 Surprise Team of College Football

Picked to finish fifth in the Big Eight preseason polls, the Jayhawks were one of the surprise teams of college football with a 10-2 season and a win over UCLA in the Aloha Bowl. Along the way, KU defeated two ranked teams (Colorado and Oklahoma) on the road. The season ended with a twist of drama as head coach Glen Mason announced just prior to the bowl game that he was leaving after the UCLA encounter to become head coach at Georgia. Mason later changed his mind and stayed as head coach, informing his team on the morning of the Aloha Bowl. KU cruised to a 51-30 victory.

1997 Kansas Nabs 500th Victory

Terry Allen was on the sidelines for his second conference victory as head coach at KU and the school's 500th win in school history as the Jayhawks downed Oklahoma, 20-17.

2005 Mangino Leads Jayhawks to Second Bowl Game in 3 Years

Mark Mangino became the first head coach in KU history to lead his team to two bowl games in a three-year span as the team faced Houston in the Fort Worth Bowl. KU clobbered the Cougars, 42-13, and quarterback Jason Swanson was named the game's Most Outstanding Player.

RAY EVANS • QB/RB/DB
1947 ALL-AMERICAN
Ray Evans, KU’s first All-America selection (along with Otto Schnellbacher), qualifies as one of the greatest athletes in Kansas history. Evans is the only player in NCAA history to lead the nation in both passing (1,117 yards) and interceptions (10) in the same season (1942). His single-season interception mark, in fact, still remains a KU record. In addition to being an All-American in football, Evans was also a two-time selection as a Helms Foundation basketball All-American for head coach Phog Allen. He is the only athlete in KU history to have both his football jersey number (42) and basketball jersey (15) retired. Evans was a key performer in helping the Jayhawks to an 8-1-2 record, a first-place tie in the Big Six Conference and a spot in the 1948 Orange Bowl his senior season. Evans once owned the NCAA record of consecutive passing attempts (60) without an interception. He played professionally for one season with Pittsburgh.

GIL REICH • QB/HB/DB
1952 ALL-AMERICAN
Although he played just one season at Kansas after transferring from the United States Military Academy, Gil Reich quickly established himself as one of the most determined performers in Jayhawk history. He was a standout as a cornerback, excelling in run support and as a punt returner. Reich earned all-conference and All-America honors for his performance as a defensive back. In addition, Reich split time as the starting quarterback with Jerry Robertson. He accounted for 428 yards in total offense and was credited with five touchdown passes. He averaged 17.2 yards on punt returns and also served as the Jayhawks’ punter and kicked extra points. Reich was also a two-sport standout, playing a significant role on the Jayhawks’ 1952-53 basketball team. As a starting guard, Reich helped direct the Jayhawks to the 1953 National Championship game -- a 69-68 loss to Indiana.

OTTO SCHNEBBACHER • WR
1947 ALL-AMERICAN
Known as the “Double Threat from Sublette,” Otto Schnellbacher excelled during his days as an athlete at Kansas in both football and basketball. Schnellbacher served as a team co-captain of the 1947 Jayhawk team that won a share of the conference title and earned a spot in the Orange Bowl. He is one of just three KU athletes to serve as a captain in both football and basketball. A two-time All-Big Six selection, Schnellbacher was credited with 58 career pass receptions for 1,069 yards and both marks stood as school records for 22 years. He averaged 18.4 yards per reception. Schnellbacher was a regular in 1942 and had his career put on hold during World War II. A four-time all-conference selection in basketball, Schnellbacher played both football and basketball professionally. He played football four seasons with the New York Yankees of the All-America Football Conference and the New York Giants of the NFL. He intercepted 34 passes and was named All-Pro defensive back three times before retiring after the 1951 season.

OLIVER SPENCER • OT
1952 ALL-AMERICAN
A dominating blocker and outstanding athlete, Spencer and teammate George Mrkonic were recognized as two of college football’s premier linemen during the early 1950s. Spencer excelled at right offensive tackle, helping the Jayhawks to a combined 15-5 mark during his two seasons as a regular on the offensive front. As a sophomore, Spencer was a backup at KU behind future pro football hall of famer Mike McCormack. Following his senior season, Spencer was selected to play in both the East-West Shrine Game and Senior Bowl. He played in the National Football League for the Detroit Lions and Green Bay Packers from 1953-61, and served as an offensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders for 19 seasons (1962-79).

GEORGE MRKONIC • OT/DT/P
1951 ALL-AMERICAN
George Mrkonic teamed with Oliver Spencer to anchor one of the great lines in Kansas football history during the early 1950s. Mrkonic, a two-time (1950-51) all-conference selection, played left guard on offense and defensive tackle. Mrkonic also handled punting duties during his KU career and led the Jayhawks in punting statistics in 1951. During his three years in the lineup, Kansas compiled a combined 21-9 record, including an 8-2 mark in 1951 and 7-3 record in 1952. Mrkonic was selected to play in the East-West Shrine Game in 1952 and had a brief stint in professional football as a member of the Philadelphia Eagles. He also played one season in the Canadian Football League.

JOHN HADL • QB/HB/P/DB
1960-61 ALL-AMERICAN
John Hadl easily represents one of the greatest all-around performers in Kansas history. The Jayhawks’ first two-time All-America selection, Hadl excelled in the Jayhawk offense as a quarterback and part-time halfback. He was also a highly effective defensive back, return specialist and one of the nation’s top punters during his three-year career. His jersey No. 21 is one of just three retired in Kansas football history. A three-time all-conference selection, Hadl ended his career with 1,281 yards passing and 1,016 yards rushing. He still holds the school record for longest interception return (98 yards vs. TCU in 1959) and longest punt (94 yards vs. Oklahoma in 1959, third longest in NCAA history). Hadl, who led the nation in punting in 1959 with a 45.6 average, was a standout on some of KU’s great teams. The Jayhawks were a combined 14-5-2 his junior and senior seasons with Hadl at the controls and ranked nationally in the top 20 each season. He concluded his senior season by leading KU to a 33-7 win over Rice in the Bluebonnet Bowl. Hadl was named most valuable player in the East-West Shrine game and the College All-Star Game. Hadl enjoyed a 16-year career in the NFL, passing for 33,513 yards. He was recognized as the NFL Man of the Year in 1971 and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1994. Following a successful career in coaching, Hadl moved into administration and currently serves as associate athletics director at his alma mater.
GALE SAYERS • RB
1963-64 ALL-AMERICAN
Gale Sayers, the "Kansas Comet," established himself throughout his collegiate and professional career as one of the great running backs in the history of football. A two-time All-America selection for the Jayhawks, Sayers concluded his KU career with 2,675 yards rushing and 3,917 all-purpose yards. Sayers led KU in rushing, touchdowns and kickoff returns all three years he was in the lineup. He also led the team in receiving and punt returns as a junior and senior. Sayers became the first player in NCAA Division IA history to record a 99-yard run when he broke loose against Nebraska in Lincoln during the 1963 season. He also had a 96-yard kickoff return in a 15-14 upset of Oklahoma his senior season. Sayers was a first-round draft pick of the Chicago Bears (and Kansas City Chiefs) and had an abbreviated seven-year NFL career that was cut short by a knee injury. He led the league in rushing in 1966 and 1969. He retired in 1972 with a career total of 4,956 rushing yards. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1977 at age 34, the youngest person ever selected. He served as an assistant athletics director at his alma mater from 1972-76.

BOBBY DOUGLASS • QB
1968 ALL-AMERICAN
Twice (1967-68) selected All-Big Eight Conference, Douglass was named to both United Press International (UPI) and Kodak All-America teams in 1968. Douglass, in his senior season, directed the Pepper Rodgers-coached Jayhawks to a 9-2 record, a share of the Big Eight Conference title and a spot in the 1969 Orange Bowl. Douglass passed for 1,316 yards and 12 touchdowns his final year as a Jayhawk. He passed for TDs in six consecutive games in 1968 which represents a school record. He ranks eighth all-time in career passing yardage with 2,817 yards. His 3,832 yards in total offense qualifies as the ninth-best mark in KU history and he was responsible for 39 touchdowns during his career, a mark that ranks fifth on KU’s all-time listing. Douglass was selected to play in the Senior Bowl, American Bowl and the College All-Star game in Chicago following his senior season. He earned Most Valuable Player honors in the American Bowl. Douglass played professionally in the NFL for 13 years with Chicago, San Diego, New Orleans and Green Bay.

JOHN ZOOK • DE
1968 ALL-AMERICAN
A three-year letterman and two-time All-Big Eight Conference selection, John Zook anchored one of the top defensive units in Kansas football history. Zook earned All-America honors in 1968 as the defensive standout on a Kansas team that finished with a 9-2 record, shared the conference championship and faced Penn State in the Orange Bowl. The Jayhawks were ranked sixth nationally in the final Associated Press poll -- Zook’s senior season. He finished his career with 202 total tackles, which ranks as the fourth-best mark among defensive linemen in school history. “He never played but full speed from snap one to snap 100. He was the most full-speed player on every snap that you could imagine,” said Pepper Rodgers.

DAVID JAYNES • QB
1973 ALL-AMERICAN
David Jaynes brought a lethal arm to the Kansas offense in the early 1970s and broke virtually every season and career passing mark in the Jayhawk record book. A highly recruited high school quarterback at nearby Bonner Springs, Jaynes concluded his career ranked No. 1 all-time in passing yardage (a mark later broken by Frank Seurer) with 5,132 yards. His 35 career passing touchdowns still stands as a school record. Jaynes, who earned All-America honors in 1973, had his greatest game as a senior in 1973 with a school-record performance against Tennessee in Knoxville. Jaynes connected on 35 of 58 attempts for 394 yards. “I’ve never seen him have a better day in his life,” said head coach Don Fambrough. Jaynes directed the Jayhawks to a 7-4-1 record his senior year, including a trip to the Liberty Bowl. Jaynes, who led KU in passing for three consecutive seasons, finished fourth in the voting for the Heisman Trophy in 1973.

BRUCE KALLMEYER • PK
1983 ALL-AMERICAN
Bruce Kallmeyer is regarded as one of the most potent offensive weapons in Kansas history thanks to his talents as a placekicker. Kallmeyer concluded his four-year Jayhawk career with single-season marks of field goals made (24), attempted (29) and ranks first all-time in career field goal percentage (77.9). Kallmeyer also established new standards in the Kansas record book for most field goals in a game (5) which he recorded twice in his career, against Nebraska in 1981 and Wichita State in 1983. Kallmeyer also had four field goals in the Jayhawks’ upset win over Southern California in 1983. Kallmeyer, who had a career-long 57-yard field goal against Iowa State as a senior, ranks third all-time in scoring with 233 points. His 98 points in 1983 qualifies as the second-best single-season mark in KU history and his 21 points against Wichita State in the same season represents the most single-game points by a KU kicker in history.

RING OF HONOR
The names of those players honored in football at the University of Kansas are displayed at the top of the north bowl in Memorial Stadium as a tribute to their careers. In addition, the three players who have had their jersey number retired - Ray Evans (42), John Hadl (21) and Gale Sayers (48) - are also listed with their respective numbers.

COACHES

FIELDING H. YOST (1899)
Fielding H. Yost became most well-known for his “Point-a-Minute” teams at the University of Michigan in the early part of the 1900s but he began to develop his reputation at the University of Kansas. After spending two one-season terms at Ohio Wesleyan (1897) and Nebraska (1898), Yost coached the Jayhawks for only one season and left an impression not only on his players but also the opponents. In 1899, Yost’s Jayhawks posted a perfect 10-0 record, which in more than 100 years of Kansas football stands as one of only two perfect seasons. During that season Kansas outscored opponents 280-37, averaging 28 points per game. After Kansas, Yost went on to coach at Stanford (1900) and Michigan (1901-23, 1925-26). At Michigan, his Wolverines played 56 consecutive games without a loss, including 29 consecutive victories. In 1902, his Michigan team beat Stanford, 49-0, in the Rose Bowl. A 1951 inductee into the College Football Foundation Hall of Fame, he was elected to the Michigan Hall of Honor in 1979.

DR. JOHN H. OUTLAND (1901)
Dr. John H. Outland left his mark both on the University of Kansas and college football. Outland attended Kansas for just two years (1893-94) before transferring to the University of Pennsylvania to continue his medical studies. At Penn, Outland was named to Walter Camp’s All-America Eleven one year as a defensive lineman, the other year as a fullback. Outland is one of only two players in history to be All-America at two positions (the other was Bronko Nagurski of Minnesota). In 1901, Outland served as head coach of the Kansas football team when the Jayhawks posted a 3-5-2 record. After going on to a successful career as a surgeon in the Kansas City area when his football days were over, Outland wanted to do something about the interior lineman’s lack of recognition. In 1946, the Football Writer’s Association of America presented the first Outland Trophy to Notre Dame’s George Connor. While Outland was a student at Pennsylvania, the Penn Relays were founded and it was then he conceived the idea of a similar event in Kansas. In 1920, he approached Kansas athletics director Dr. F.C. “Phog” Allen with his idea and in 1923 the first running of the Kansas Relays was held.

GEORGE SAUER (1946-47)
KU’s 24th football coach posted a 15-3-3 record in his two seasons as the Jayhawks’ mentor. The former All-America fullback at Nebraska led Kansas to two-straight Big Six Championships and to the 1948 Orange Bowl. In 1954, he was elected to the National Football Hall of Fame. During World War II he served 18 months on the aircraft carrier U.S.S. Enterprise and attained the rank of lieutenant colonel. His coaching career included stops at New Hampshire (1937-42), Navy (1948-49) and Baylor (1950-56). Sauer also served as Athletics Director at Baylor from 1950-60 before moving on to the professional ranks. In 1961 he became General Manager of the fledgling New York Titans (later the New York Jets). As director of player personnel from 1962-69 he built the franchise into a Super Bowl winner. In 1976 he was elected to the Kansas Hall of Fame.

JULES VERNE (J.V.) SIKES (1948-53)
Some have called J.V. Sikes’ teams the most exciting in Kansas history. Running a pass-oriented offense, Sikes recorded a 35-25 mark in his six years as the Jayhawks’ boss. In 1948, his first season as KU’s head coach, he led the Jayhawks to a 7-3 record, including a victory over Nebraska. After the 1953 season, Sikes became the head coach at East Texas State. Sikes remained head coach of ETSU until his death at the age of 59 in 1964. At ETSU he posted a 63-33-4 record in 10 seasons. In 1957 and 1958, he led ETSU to the Tangerine Bowl. In 1965, ETSU named its highest football award the J.V. Sikes Award. In 1978, he was elected as a charter member of the ETSU Hall of Fame. A graduate of Texas A&M, Sikes was a three-sport star for the Aggies and was inducted into the Texas A&M Hall of Fame in 1967. After college, Sikes played professional baseball and advanced as far as the Texas League.

JACK MITCHELL (1958-66)
A native of Arkansas City, Kan., Jack Mitchell is tied with Glen Mason as holding the longest term of any head football coach in Kansas history. In his nine-year (1958-66) stint as head coach he recorded 44 wins, 42 losses and five ties. Under Mitchell’s guidance, the Jayhawks won their first conference title since 1930 in 1960 (the title was later revoked when league officials ordered Kansas to forfeit wins over Colorado and Missouri). His 1961 team won Kansas’ first bowl game by routing Rice, 35-7, in the Bluebonnet Bowl. During his coaching career he coached five All-Americans and had 16 of his former players go on to play professionally. An All-American quarterback at Oklahoma, Mitchell’s trademark was his courage and ability to make quick personnel changes and tactical innovations. Before coming to Kansas, Mitchell spent two years (1953-54) as the head coach at the University of Wichita (now Wichita State University) and three years (1955-57) at the University of Arkansas. His teams won or tied for a conference championship in every league he coached.

DON FAMBROUGH (1971-74, 79-82)
Of the 10 bowl games the University of Kansas has participated in, Don Fambrough has played or coached in five of them. As a player at Kansas, Fambrough earned All-Big Six honors in 1946 and 1947. At the conclusion of the 1947 season he helped lead the team to the Orange Bowl. When the Lawrence Journal World polled Jayhawk fans to select an all-time team to help commemorate college football’s centennial year Fambrough was a first-team choice at guard. After graduating he continued his association with Kansas football by serving as a graduate assistant on the Jayhawk coaching staff under J.V. Sikes. When he became head coach of the Jayhawks in 1971 he had served 19 years as an assistant coach under Sikes, Jack Mitchell and Pepper Rodgers. In just his third season as head coach he led the team to the 1973 Liberty Bowl. After the 1974 season he became Assistant Director of the Williams Fund where he remained until accepting the reigns of the football program again in 1979. In 1981 he coached the Jayhawks to the Hall of Fame Bowl, the same year he was voted the Associated Press Big Eight Coach of the Year.
PLAYERS

CURTIS McCLINTON (1959-61)
FULLBACK

Curtis McClinton brought versatility to the University of Kansas from his native Wichita, Kan. As a Jayhawk, McClinton was named to The Sporting News All-America team and to the Pro Scouts’ All-America team in 1961. He was also a three-time All-Big Eight selection. All three years at Kansas he was the Big Eight champion in the hurdles for the track team. Although he played primarily as a blocking back, he still ranks 21st on KU’s all-time career rushing list with 1,377 yards. In 1959 he was the leading rusher on the team. Before going on to a professional career he played in the East-West Shrine game, the Hula Bowl and the All-Star game. A 14th-round draft pick of the Dallas Texans (later the Kansas City Chiefs), McClinton went on to earn Rookie of the Year honors. In 1963 he was selected as the Most Valuable Player of the American Football League All-Star game. In 1969, he was a member of the Super Bowl champion Kansas City Chiefs. He was selected to the all-time KU team by Jayhawk fans to commemorate the centennial of college football in 1999. During the 2004 season, McClinton was added to the Memorial Stadium Ring of Honor.

JOHN RIGGINS (1968-70)
FULLBACK

The second of three members of the Riggins family to play in the backfield for the Jayhawks in the late 60s and early 70s, John Riggins was one of the hardest runners in football history. Known as "The Diesel," he led the Jayhawks in rushing from 1968-70 and currently ranks fifth on KU’s all-time career rushing charts with 2,659 yards. Riggins ranks in a tie for second on KU’s all-time charts for rushing touchdowns in a season with 14 in 1970, fourth on the season rushing yardage list with 1,131 yards in 1970 and 15th on KU’s charts for total offense in a career with 2,659 yards. Although he was recognized with All-Big Eight honors twice at Kansas, Riggins went on to accomplish much more in the pros. A first-round selection (sixth pick overall) of the New York Jets in 1971, he joined the Washington Redskins in 1976 and helped lead them to the Super Bowl three times. In Super Bowl XVII he broke away for a 43-yard run that won the game for the Redskins and earned him Most Valuable Player honors. An inductee of the Ring of Honor at Washington’s RFK Stadium, Riggins was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1992, his first year of eligibility. He was inducted into the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame in 1999.

NOLAN CROMWELL (1973-76)
SAFETY/QUARTERBACK

Nolan Cromwell, the Wichita Eagle’s high school football player of the decade for the 1970s, was inducted into KU’s Ring of Honor during the 2005 season. In his four years in Lawrence he proved his versatility. As a freshman in 1973 he was the starting safety in the Liberty Bowl. After being a two-year starter at safety he made the move to quarterback where he broke several KU, Big Eight and NCAA records for rushing by a quarterback. Despite playing in just 18 games on offense at Kansas, he is 13th on the all-time rushing charts and is the top rushing quarterback. The 1975 Big Eight Offensive Player of the Year ran for 1,124 yards that year, the third highest in NCAA history at the time. An honorable-mention All-American on the gridiron, Cromwell earned All-America honors on the track while setting KU records in the 600 and 400 yard runs, the intermediate hurdles and the decathlon. After leaving Kansas he was a second-round draft pick of the Los Angeles Rams where he played safety until 1988. Continuing his prowess on the football field he was named the NFC Defensive Player of the Year in 1980 and was selected to participate in the Pro Bowl. He is a member of the Seattle Seahawks coaching staff.

WILLIE PLESS (1982-85)
LINEBACKER

Pless was one of the hardest workers on the Jayhawk squad when he roamed the turf at Memorial Stadium in the 1980s. Following his junior and senior campaigns he earned the “110-Percent Award” as selected by his teammates. The three-time All-Big Eight selection is KU’s all-time leading tackler for a single season (206) and career (633). He ended his career at Kansas as the Big Eight’s all-time leading tackler. In 1985 he was honored with the establishment of an annual award in his name that is presented to the KU leader in tackles and assists each season. A 1985 preseason Playboy All-American, Pless was a second-team Associated Press All-American in 1984. Invited to play in the 1985 Blue-Gray All-Star Classic, he earned defensive MVP honors at that game. He worked hard in the classroom earning GTE Region VII Academic All-America honors in 1985. A member of the Big Eight’s all-decade team, he was also a member of the Big Eight All-American team in 1985. After his college career, he went on to have a successful career in the Canadian Football League. In 1994 Pless became the CFL’s career tackles leader. Pless was inducted into the KU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2000 and the CFL Hall of Fame in 2005.

TONY SANDS (1988-91)
RUNNING BACK

Although small in stature, the 5-6 running back created a large presence on the gridiron. The 1991 Big Eight Conference Offensive Player of the Year set or tied 17 Kansas rushing or scoring records during his career including most yards in a game (396), season (1,479) and career (3,788). In his final home game “Tuxedo Tony” rushed for an NCAA single-game record (since broken) 396 yards, and his 58 rushing attempts also established an NCAA record. At the conclusion of his career he ranked at the top of KU’s and eighth on the Big Eight’s all-time career rushing charts with 3,788 yards. During his four-year career at Kansas he had 17 games in which he rushed for 100 or more yards. A first-team All-Big Eight selection, he earned third-team Associated Press All-America honors his senior year. At the conclusion of his college career he was selected to play in the Hula Bowl and the East-West College All-Star game.

DANA STUBBLEFIELD (1990-92)
DEFENSIVE END

An integral member of one of the best defensive lines in Kansas history, Stubblefield earned first-team All-America honors from College & Pro Football Weekly and second-team honors from the Associated Press and Football News following his senior year. The Cleves, Ohio, native teamed up with Gilbert Brown, Chris Maumalanga and Kyle Moore to wreak havoc on opposing quarterbacks. During his three-year career he recorded 19 quarterback sacks including 10 in 1991. As a team captain in 1992, he helped lead the Jayhawks to the Aloha Bowl where he was named Most Valuable Player. He finished his career at Kansas ranking among the Jayhawks’ all-time leaders in total tackles (tied for sixth with 168), sacks (fourth with 17) and tackles for loss (tied for fifth with 30). Stubblefield was named first-team All-Big Eight following his junior and senior campaigns. A first-round draft pick of the San Francisco 49ers, Stubblefield earned Defensive Newcomer of the Year honors his rookie season. He finished his career ranked among the Jayhawks’ all-time leaders in total tackles for interior linemen (168) and is currently fourth in sacks. An All-Pro performer in the NFL, Stubblefield most recently played for the Oakland Raiders.

KU Bowl Games

1948 ORANGE BOWL
JAN. 1, 1948 -- MIAMI, FLA.
GEORGIA TECH 20, KANSAS 14

Trailing 7-6 at the time and facing a fourth-and-six situation from the KU 40, Hadl faked the punt and raced 41 yards before being dropped at the Rice 19. Two plays later fullback Ken Coleman crashed over from the one to give the Jayhawks a 12-7 halftime lead. That proved to be the impetus for Kansas as it thoroughly dominated the second half against the homestanding Owls.

The Jayhawks controlled the ball in the second half scoring on drives of 50, 36 and 68 yards while finishing the day with 76 offensive plays compared to only 47 for Rice.

Kansas was equally effective on the ground and in the air. Hadl finished with seven completions in 10 attempts for 129 yards and two touchdowns.

The Jayhawks scored first with 5:05 remaining in the initial quarter when Coleman went over from a yard out. It climaxied a 59-yard, nine-play drive. The extra point attempt by Bill Barnes was blocked.

Rice answered that score, however, with just 45 seconds left in the first quarter when quarterback Randy McNutt completed a five-yard scoring pass to flanker Johnny Burrell. The extra point was good to put the Owls on top for the one and only time. That set the stage for Hadl's heroics and the Kansas domination.

Two Kansas players -- Hadl and fullback Curtis McClinton -- signed professional contracts on the field immediately after the game. Hadl signed with the San Diego Chargers and McClinton with the Dallas Texans.

Controversy surrounded Hadl prior to the game when it was alleged that he had already signed a professional contract with the Chargers thus making him ineligible. To clear the air he signed an affidavit saying he had not signed.

Hadl finished his career with 2,382 yards total offense — 1,341 passing and 1,041 rushing. At the time that figure ranked second only to All-American Ray Evans who 14 years earlier had led Kansas to its first bowl appearance.

McClinton concluded his career with 1,414 yards rushing. At the time that figure was the fourth best in Kansas history behind Charlie Hoag, Homer Floyd and Evans.

1961 BLUEBONNET BOWL
DEC. 16, 1961 -- HOUSTON, TEXAS
KANSAS 33, RICE 7

Sparked by a 41-yard run by quarterback John Hadl out of deep punt formation late in the first half, Kansas swept by Rice amidst a steady rain, 33-7, to claim the third annual Bluebonnet Bowl.

Trailing 7-6 at the time and facing a fourth-and-six situation from the KU 40, Hadl faked the punt and raced 41 yards before being dropped at the Rice 19. Controversy surrounded Hadl prior to the game when it was alleged that he had already signed a professional contract with the Chargers thus making him ineligible. To clear the air he signed an affidavit saying he had not signed.

Hadl finished his career with 2,382 yards total offense — 1,341 passing and 1,041 rushing. At the time that figure ranked second only to All-American Ray Evans who 14 years earlier had led Kansas to its first bowl appearance.

McClinton concluded his career with 1,414 yards rushing. At the time that figure was the fourth best in Kansas history behind Charlie Hoag, Homer Floyd and Evans.

1969 ORANGE BOWL
JAN. 1, 1969 -- MIAMI, FLA.
PENN STATE 15, KANSAS 14

In the never-to-be-forgotten “Twelfth Man Game,” Penn State shaded Kansas, 15-14, with a second-chance two-point conversion in the waning seconds of the 35th annual Orange Bowl Classic.

The Jayhawks apparently had won the game when they broke up Chuck Burkhart’s conversion pass following Penn State’s frantic touchdown with just 15 seconds remaining.

However, it was ruled Kansas had 12 men on the field and the Nittany Lions received another chance — this time from only one and one-half yards instead of three. On that attempt Bob Campbell’s thrust at the left side of his line produced the winning margin.

Kansas, playing in its third bowl game, took a 14-7 lead early in the fourth quarter when Donnie Shanklin returned a punt 46 yards to the seven to set up a touchdown by John Riggins.

The Jayhawks nursed the lead for nearly 12 minutes and once missed a first down by inches at the Penn State five while driving for what would have been a wrap-up touchdown.

The game still appeared to be under control when Kansas kicked to the Nittany Lions at the 50 with 1:16 remaining. But on the next play Burkhart hit Campbell with a 47-yard pass that KU defender Billy Hunt lost in the lights. It took three plays to score from the three, but Burkhart finally got across on a bootleg play around left end to set the stage for the hectic windup.

Kansas scored in the opening quarter when Mike Reeves capped a nine-play, 45-yard drive by ramming around left end to set the stage for the hectic windup.

KU Bowl Games

1975 SUN BOWL
DEC. 26, 1975 -- EL PASO, TEXAS
PITTSBURGH 33, KANSAS 19

Playing in its fifth bowl game ever and second in three years, Kansas dropped a 33-19 decision to Pittsburgh in the 41st annual Sun Bowl.

Behind three 100-plus yard rushing performances by All-American halfback Tony Dorsett (142), fullback Elliott Walker (123) and quarterback Robert Haygood (101), the Panthers built a 19-0 halftime lead and then held on in the second half to claim the triumph.

Walker opened the game's scoring with a brilliant 60-yard run on a pitchout from Haygood. The score came with 2:11 remaining in the initial quarter and after two earlier scoring threats by Kansas had faltered.

The failure on those two occasions seemingly gave Pittsburgh the momentum it needed to easily capture the verdict.

The first came on the game's third play when KU quarterback Nolan Cromwell kept for 13 yards around end then pitched to halfback Bill Campfield who fumbled untouched to the end zone for what appeared to be an 83-yard scoring play. But the officials ruled it was an illegal forward pitch and the ball was brought back. The drive subsequently stalled.

The second came just inside the six-minute mark in the first quarter when, facing a fourth-and-one at the Pitt 17, Cromwell appeared to easily make a first down with a sneak up the middle. But when the ball was spotted it wasn't even close, turning it over to the Panthers. Four plays later Walker scored from 60 yards out and the floodgates appeared open.

The Jayhawks did score first in the second half giving some hope of a comeback. Halfback Laverne Smith, who finished the day with 118 yards rushing, dazzled the Panther defense with a 55-yard burst up the middle with 4:32 remaining in the third quarter. That made it 19-7 but with 12:49 remaining in the game Walker scored again for Pittsburgh, this time from two yards out, to erase all KU hopes of a comeback.

Smith later added a 17-yard touchdown run which was followed by a 38-yard scoring pass from quarterback Scott McMichael to halfback Skip Sharp to close out the Kansas scoring.

Nearly 4,000 KU faithful made the trip to El Paso to help comprise the record turnout of 30,272.

1981 HALL OF FAME BOWL
DEC. 31, 1981 -- BIRMINGHAM, ALA.
MISSISSIPPI STATE 10, KANSAS 0

It will be remembered by the Jayhawk fans as the 12-second game. That's the only way to describe Kansas' 10-0 loss to Mississippi State in the fifth annual Hall of Fame Bowl. Playing in its first postseason game in six years, Kansas players, coaches and fans watched as a nightmare unfolded before their eyes.

Witnessed by a crowd of 41,000 on a cool, damp afternoon at Birmingham's Legion Field, KU's Darren Green took the opening kickoff and returned it 15 yards before accidentally colliding with a teammate. The result was a fumble, recovered by the Bulldogs on the KU 22. On the ensuing play, MSU quarterback John Bond rolled right on an option play, turned upfield and went untouched into the end zone for the first and last TD of the game.

The verification was a snap, four plays later. MSU's John Bond fumbled deep in the KU end zone. The ball was ruled dead and the Jayhawks had to punt. MSU's Shane Hudson punted from deep in KU territory and the ball was downed at the KU 18. Kansas was on its heels and just getting started.

The second came on the game's third play when KU quarterback Nolan Cromwell kept for 13 yards around end then pitched to halfback Bill Campfield who fumbled untouched to the end zone for what appeared to be an 83-yard scoring play. But the officials ruled it was an illegal forward pitch and the ball was brought back. The drive subsequently stalled.

1992 ALOHA BOWL
DEC. 25, 1992 -- HONOLULU, HAWAII
KANSAS 23, BRIGHAM YOUNG 20

Playing in its first bowl game in 11 years, Kansas lost the coin toss to begin the game and, subsequently, surrendered a kickoff return touchdown to Brigham Young's Hema Heimuli on the first play of the game.

This auspicious start was much like the Jayhawks’ last bowl appearance, 11 years earlier, when a Kansas turnover on the kickoff enabled Mississippi State to score a touchdown 12 seconds into a 10-0 win in the 1981 Hall of Fame Bowl. The rest of the game, however, unfolded quite nicely for Jayhawk fans. Just two plays from scrimmage later, Kansas receiver Matt Gay caught a lateral from quarterback Chip Hilleary and then hit a wide-open Rodney Harris for a 74-yard touchdown pass. After just 1:01, each team had scored a touchdown.

The Jayhawks continued to score in the first quarter. With BYU pinned deep in its own territory, junior lineman Chris Maumalanga burst through the Cougars’ line to sack running back Jamal Willis in his own endzone for a safety and a 9-7 lead. Maumalanga was one of the many highlights for the Kansas defensive line, which sacked BYU quarterback Tom Young six times. Senior Dana Stubbfield led the Jayhawks with three sacks, three hurries and one tackle for loss. For his efforts, Stubbfield was named the game’s most valuable player.

But Willis later gained yards on a 29-yard touchdown romp with 10:16 left to play in the half. Following his score, BYU led, 14-9, and seemed to have halted the Jayhawks’ momentum.

On the ensuing kickoff, another Kansas senior — running back Maurice Douglas — broke free for a 54-yard return that put the Jayhawks on the BYU 43. Kicker Dan Eichloff hammered a 41-yard field goal that capped the first-half scoring at 14-12. Brigham Young owned the third quarter, racking up 187 yards total offense and holding the ball for 9:50. Kansas, on the other hand, managed just 33 yards total offense but did limit the Cougars to six points as BYU carried a 20-12 lead into the final quarter. To start the final quarter, Hilleary engineered a six-play, 75-yard drive that resulted in his one-yard run and was capped by his two-point conversion that tied the game at 20. That drive was sustained by Hilleary’s 48-yard completion to Harris, who finished with 142 yards on four catches.

On the following drive, the Jayhawk defense stopped the Cougars on three straight plays and BYU was forced to punt. Kansas regained the ball on its own 21 yard line with just over 10 minutes to play. Hilleary then embarked the Jayhawks on a drive that would last nearly seven minutes and result in Dan Eichloff’s 48-yard field goal that provided Kansas with the program’s first bowl win in 31 years and just the second in school history.

BYU then mounted a drive late in the game, advancing as far as the KU 34-yard line. But senior safety Charley Bowen secured the Jayhawks’ first bowl win in 31 years by picking off Young’s pass at the Kansas 29-yard line with 2:11 to play.

A Christmas crowd of 42,933 paid to see the Jayhawks’ win, and the game ranked among the top-watched bowl games on television in 1992-93.

1995 ALOHA BOWL
DEC. 25, 1995 -- HONOLULU, HAWAII
KANSAS 51, UCLA 30

Preparing for their second bowl game in four seasons and its eighth in school history, Kansas received a surprising announcement from head coach Glen Mason one week before the game and another equally as surprising just hours before kickoff. Mason, who had accepted the head coaching position at the University of Georgia the day before the team departed for Hawaii, told his squad that he had reconsidered the move and was staying at Kansas before the team left the hotel for Aloha Stadium. Inspired by Mason's decision, the Jayhawks set several bowl records in running over the favored UCLA Bruins to win their second-straight postseason game. Kansas struck first and often in taking a 17-0 lead into halftime. Senior quarterback Mark Williams capped an 11-play drive in which the Jayhawks drove 72 yards with a nine-yard pass to tight end Jim Hilleary and then hit a wide-open Rodney Harris for a 74-yard touchdown pass. After just 1:01, each team had scored a touchdown.

On their first drive of the second quarter it appeared the Jayhawk offense would stall when faced with a third-and-13 on UCLA's 49-yard line. While the UCLA defense was looking for a pass, junior running back Mark Williams broke free and was capped by his two-point conversion that tied the game at 20. That drive was sustained by Hilleary's 48-yard completion to Harris, who finished with 142 yards on four catches.

On the following drive, the Jayhawk defense stopped the Cougars on three straight plays and BYU was forced to punt. Kansas regained the ball on its own 21 yard line with just over 10 minutes to play. 2003 MAZA TANGERINE BOWL
DEC. 22, 2003 -- ORLANDO, FLA.
NORTH CAROLINA STATE 56, KANSAS 26

Kansas, playing in its first bowl game since 1995, fell to the North Carolina State Wolfpack, 56-26, in the Mazda Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Fla. The loss ended the Jayhawks’ season with a record of 6-7, while the Wolfpack finished with an 8-5 mark on the year. NC State opened the scoring with a three-play, 64-yard drive which took just 1:02, capped off by a 45-yard touchdown pass from Tangerine Bowl MVP Philip Rivers to Richard Washington.

The Jayhawks answered with 10:41 left in the first quarter, as senior quarterback Bill Whittemore found freshman wide receiver Charles Gordon in the endzone on a 23-yard pass play. That touchdown tied Gordon with former Jayhawk Willie Vaughn for the most single-season touchdown receptions by a KU freshman (5). Kansas responded with 4:01 remaining in the half, capping off a 10-play, 66-yard drive with a 28-yard field goal by Jerod Brooks to make the score 21-10, but NCSU closed out the first-half scoring with a three-yard touchdown pass from Rivers to McLendon to make the score 28-10 at the break.

The ‘Hawks opened the scoring in the second half, as they marched down the field on a nine-play, 79-yard drive, culminating in an 11-yard touchdown pass from Whittemore to sophomore running back Clark Green. NC State answered back with two straight scores, however, on a 40-yard pass from Rivers to Brian Clark and 10-yard run by Davis, to take a 42-17 lead.

Kansas got back on the board with 3:42 left in the third quarter, as Johnny Beck nailed a 39-yard field goal to narrow the gap to 42-20, then a nine-yard Whittemore rush for a score made the score 42-26 with 1:41 left in the game, as the Jayhawks fumbled on the two-point conversion attempt.

KU’s Whittemore finished the game connecting on 20-of-41 pass attempts for 243 yards and two touchdowns. He finished his career with 310 pass completions (sixth place all-time) on 568 attempts (seventh place) for 4,051 yards (sixth place). Whittemore also ended up in fourth place for total offense in his career, and set the KU career record for touchdowns responsible with 50.

Clark Green led the Jayhawks rushing attack with 14 carries for 87 yards, while Brandon Rideau led the Jayhawk receivers with two straight scores, however, on a 40-yard pass from Rivers to Brian Clark and 10-yard run by Davis, to take a 42-17 lead.

The Cougars capped a 42-yard, seven-play drive with a touchdown when junior Kevin Kolb scored on a one-yard keeper with 57 seconds remaining in the half. Bell’s extra point brought UH within four, and KU headed into the break leading 14-10.

The KU defense struck early in the second half when senior Theo Baines intercepted a Kolb pass and ran it 16 yards to KU’s 30-yard line. Two plays later, Cornish took another shovel pass from Swanson 30 yards for his second touchdown of the day and 11th of the season. Webb’s kick gave the Jayhawks a 21-0 lead 10:26 into the game.

Houston (6-6) scored its first points of the game in the second quarter (14:22) when freshman Ben Bell kicked a 32-yard field goal. Kansas answered on the ensuing possession with a five-play, 60-yard drive that resulted in a 13-yard shovel pass from senior Jason Swanson to junior Jon Cornish for a touchdown. Webb converted on the extra point to give KU a 14-3 lead.

The Cougars capped a 42-yard, seven-play drive with a touchdown when junior Kevin Kolb scored on a one-yard keeper with 57 seconds remaining in the half. Bell’s extra point brought UH within four, and KU headed into the break leading 14-10.

The KU defense struck early in the second half when senior Theo Baines intercepted a Kolb pass and ran it 16 yards to KU’s 30-yard line. Two plays later, Cornish took another shovel pass from Swanson 30 yards for his second touchdown of the day and 11th of the season. Webb’s kick gave the Jayhawks a 21-0 lead. After a 44-yard field goal by Houston’s T.J. Lawrence, Swanson connected with senior Mark Simmons on a 32-yard pass to top off an 80-yard, 3:32 scoring drive. The TD and extra point (Webb) gave KU a 28-13 lead with 4:57 left in the third stanza.

KU pulled away when senior Charlton Keith picked off a Kolb pass at the Jayhawks’ 14-yard line 2:37 into the fourth quarter and ran it in for a touchdown. The interception was Keith’s first and marked his second career touchdown. Just over a minute later, Baines nabbed his second interception of the day, giving KU the ball on the UH 46-yard line. Murphy scored his second touchdown of the day in the fourth quarter, a 48-yard pass from Swanson, to give the Jayhawks a 42-13 advantage. Swanson threw for four touchdowns and had 19 completions on 29 attempts for 307 yards in the final game of his career. Swanson joined Kolb as the 2005 Fort Worth Bowl MVPs.

2005 FORT WORTH BOWL
DEC. 23, 2005 -- FORT WORTH, TEXAS
KANSAS 41, HOUSTON 13

The University of Kansas closed out the 2005 season with a 42-13 victory over Houston in the Fort Worth Bowl at Amon G. Carter Stadium. The win gave the Jayhawks their first bowl victory since winning the 1995 Aloha Bowl and the most wins (seven) in a decade.

Junior Brian Murphy put Kansas (7-5) on the board early when he returned a Houston punt 85 yards for a touchdown. The punt return for a touchdown was the first of Murphy’s career and KU’s longest of the season. Sophomore Scott Webb kicked the extra point to give the Jayhawks a 7-0 lead 10:26 into the game.

Houston (6-6) scored its first points of the game in the second quarter (14:22) when freshman Ben Bell kicked a 32-yard field goal. Kansas answered on the ensuing possession with a five-play, 60-yard drive that resulted in a 13-yard shovel pass from senior Jason Swanson to junior Jon Cornish for a touchdown. Webb converted the extra point to give KU a 14-3 lead.

The Cougars capped a 42-yard, seven-play drive with a touchdown when junior Kevin Kolb scored on a one-yard keeper with 57 seconds remaining in the half. Bell’s extra point brought UH within four, and KU headed into the break leading 14-10.

This listing of all-time lettermen is as complete and accurate as historical records allow. Included are names — in some instances first and not actual name on roster — along with position and years lettered of the more than 2,000 letterwinners who have played at the University of Kansas. Corrections and additions are welcomed if they can be verified. Inquiries should be directed to the KU Media Relations Office. Lettermen in boldface type are active players.
Earning a letter in football has often been a family affair through the years at Kansas. Listed below are the family connections in Kansas football history.

The Booth Family Hall of Athletics is a 26,000-square-foot museum adjacent to the east side of Allen Fieldhouse. The facility opened in January 2006 and is open year-round, allowing Jayhawk fans everywhere to experience the history and tradition of Kansas Athletics. The Hall honors KU’s historic athletics programs, its coaches and student-athletes, past and present.

The Hall was made possible through more than $5 million in gifts and pledges from the children and grandchildren of the late Gilbert and Betty Booth, longtime Jayhawk fans and Lawrence residents. Booth family members who pledged their support to the Hall are David and Suzanne Booth of Los Angeles, and their children, Erin and Chandler; Mark and Lauren Bacich Booth of London, and their children, Miles, Coco and Cyrus; Mark and Jane Booth Berkley of Tescott, Kan., and their children and spouses, Stuart and Tina Berkley, Elizabeth Berkley and Melissa and Marco Ungaschik.

The Booth Family Hall of Athletics is divided into several different exhibit areas including...

Game and The Gear: Highlights the 18 current athletic teams at KU and focuses on the recent athletes and achievements.

The Story of Sport: Takes you on a walk through the history of Kansas Athletics, beginning in 1879 with the introduction of baseball, up to the most recent events. This section also features two Olympic cases and a case dedicated to Wilt Chamberlain.

KANSAS Experience Wall: Highlights traditions of Kansas athletics, including Crimson and Blue, the Marching Band, Cheerleading, Fan Traditions, Rivalries and Media.

Hall of Champions: Contains many of the conference and national championship trophies, as well as the Hall of Fame wall.

The Booth Family Hall of Athletics is a must-see for any Jayhawk fan or Kansas resident. There’s also a beautiful gift shop located in the Hall.

Head coaches are eligible by coaching a NCAA Championship team. Teams are eligible based on accomplishments for a particular season (i.e. Final Four, World Series or bowl teams).

Special admittance is the other criteria considered. Some individuals and teams may be considered for bringing national distinction and honor to KU.
