■ Pitino Three Away From 600 — U of L Coach Rick Pitino is three victories away from 600 in his career. His 597-220 record in his 25th season of collegiate coaching ranks him 11th among active coaches in winning percentage (.731). He is third behind only Jerry Tarkanian (647) and Jim Boeheim (600) for the most victories by a coach in his first 25 seasons.

■ Exceeding Expectations — Tied for third in arguably the toughest conference in the nation, the Cardinals were picked eighth in the league and did not receive a single vote in the AP preseason poll. Despite having 10 players who missed games with injuries last year, the Cardinals earned their ninth straight season with 20 wins. Louisville opened the season with no regular starters from the previous season and returning Cardinals started just 14 collective BIG EAST games in 2009-10, the lowest total in the league. Louisville defeated seven Top 25 teams and rose to as high as 11th in both the AP and ESPN/USA Today poll.

■ Returning Starters -- Louisville returns 11 lettermen and three starters -- forward Kyle Kuric and guards Peyton Siva and Chris Smith -- from it's successful 2010-11 team. In addition, forward Jared Swopshire, who started for the Cardinals as a sophomore but missed last season with a groin injury, is expected to be back. In addition, four additional players started 43 games a year ago. It's quite a change from last season when U of L opened the season without a returning regular starter in its lineup.

■ High Production Returns -- While the Cardinals will miss departed starters Preston Knowles (14.6 ppg, 3.9 rpg, 1,023 career points) and F/C Terrence Jennings (9.6 ppg, 5.2 rpg, 65 blocked shots), a large percentage of their total production will return. Louisville returns 66 percent of its scoring from the 2010-11 squad (1722 of 2623 points), 73 percent of its rebounding (924 of 1272), 78 percent of its assists (476 of 608) and 71 percent of the total minutes played (5092 of 7125).

■ Cards Among Nation's Top Teams in Early Rankings -- Louisville is among the top 12 teams in the nation for 2011-12 in early preseason rankings by five national web sites. U of L is fifth nationally in a FOXSports.com preseason ranking (Jeff Goodman), 7th by CBSSports.com (Gary Parrish), 9th by ESPN.com (Andy Katz), 11th by SI.com (Luke Winn) and 12th by SportingNews.com (Mike DeCourcy). Louisville is one of seven BIG EAST teams which have received mention in the early rankings (also Syracuse, Connecticut, Pittsburgh, Marquette, Cincinnati and Villanova). The Cardinals will face four non-conference foes among the early top 25 teams (Kentucky, Vanderbilt, Memphis and Butler). The complete early rankings are listed below.

-- An NCAA-record 11 BIG EAST Conference teams were selected to participate in the 2011 NCAA Tournament (Louisville, Cincinnati, Connecticut, Georgetown, Marquette, Notre Dame, Pittsburgh, St. John's, Syracuse, Villanova, West Virginia). The eleven selections from one league shatters the old record of eight accomplished on three previous occasions by the BIG EAST (2006, 2008, 2010). In addition to its automatic bid, ten teams were selected among the 37 at-large selections. ■ Pitino Adds To Victory Total -- U of L Coach Rick Pitino ranks among the top ten best coaching starts all-time in 25 seasons. He is third behind Jerry Tarkanian (647 wins at Long Beach State and UNLV, 1969-92) and Jim Boeheim (600 wins at Syracuse, 1977-2001). Pitino's 597 victories in 25 years as a head coach is an incredible feat given Pitino took over losing programs at each of his four collegiate coaching stops.

■ Pitino A Hall of Fame Nominee — The Cardinals beat seven Top 25 teams during the 2010-11 season and rose as high as No. 11 in both polls. Tied for third in arguably the toughest conference in the nation, the Cardinals were picked eighth in the league and did not receive a single vote in the AP preseason poll. Despite having 10 players who missed games with injuries and opening the season without a regular returning starter, U of L earned its ninth straight season with 20 wins. U of L Coach Rick Pitino was one of 26 individuals nominated for induction in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame for the 2011 class, but was not among the finalists.

■ Pitino Used Sped-Up Style — U of L Coach Rick Pitino sought to speed up the Cardinals' playing style to an accelerated pace. The Cardinals practiced with a 24 second clock and considered it a turnover if they did not cross halfcourt within three seconds. He plans to maintain a highly up-tempo pace in 2011-12.

■ Kuric Slams Top Dunk — Kyle Kuric's monster slam in the closing seconds of the first half at Notre Dame was recognized as the 2011 Papa John's Dunk of the Year. After narrowing the list to eight finalists on the season, Kuric's dunk received 45 percent of the votes in an online fan poll to earn the national title.

■ Successful Athletic Year for Cards — Louisville has enjoyed significant success this year with many of its athletic teams. Several of the Cardinals' sports teams were ranked nationally during the 2010-11 season, including the second-ranked men's soccer team, which advanced to the title game of the NCAA Championship before falling 1-0 to Akron. Additionally, U of L's men's cross country (29th), men's tennis (20th), women's field hockey (12th), women's basketball (18th), men's swimming (18th), women's swimming (19th) and women's track (23rd) teams were ranked among the nation's top 25 teams. The Cards' women's basketball team advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16, it's volleyball team reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament and the men's basketball team was also an NCAA participant. U of L won six BIG EAST Championships during the 2010-11 season: men's soccer, men's tennis, volleyball, men's and women's swimming and women's indoor track. Louisville ranks 29th nationally in the Learfield Sports Director's Cup through June 2.

■ Don't Count the Cards Out -- Louisville battled back from at least a seven-point deficit to win on nine occasions during the 2010-11 season. Its latest comeback was recovering from a 14-point halftime deficit to defeat Notre Dame 83-77 in overtime in the semifinals of the BIG EAST Conference Championship in New York on March 11. The Cardinals used a key 13-0 run over 8:20 in the second half against West Virginia to erase a 12-point deficit to win 55-54 on Jan. 26. One of the most improbable recoveries was when the Cardinals beat Marquette 71-70 on Jan. 15 after U of L had trailed by 18 with 5:44 to play. Below is a list of Cardinal comebacks that resulted in victories.

■ Cards vs. Top 25 Foes -- The Cardinals have fared well in recent years against Top 25 competition. Louisville has a 22-14 record against Top 25 teams over the last four years, including a 19-12 record during the regular season (7-5 vs. ranked teams this year). Louisville has won four of its last five against ranked foes. The Cardinals have also won 12 of its last 21 games when facing Top 10 teams, spanning the last four years. Louisville last beat a top ten ranked team when the Cardinals won over No. 4 Notre Dame on March 11, 2011.

■ Top Five Success -- Louisville was the only team in the nation in 2010-11 to have beaten three AP Top Five teams prior to the NCAA Tournament: No. 5 UConn (1/29/11), No. 4 Pitt (2/27/11) and No. 4 Notre Dame (3/11/11). Louisville has won the last five games it has played against Top Five ranked teams, adding in victories in 2009-10 against Syracuse when it was ranked No. 2 (2/14/10) and No. 1 (3/6/10).

■ Remarkable 18-Point Rally -- Louisville staged an extraordinary comeback in the KFC Yum! Center on Jan. 15, recovering from an 18-point deficit with 5:44 remaining to beat Marquette 71-70. The Cardinals were down 47-65 before outscoring the Golden Eagles 24-5 down the stretch, starting with a 13-0 run. Louisville grabbed every rebound (nine) over the last six minutes -- except a deadball rebound from a Marquette missed free throw -- and made 8-of-10 shots. During the rallying effort, Preston Knowles scored 12 points, hit 4-of-4 three-pointers and had a steal and two assists, including passing to Kyle Kuric for the winning basket with four seconds remaining. Terrence Jennings grabbed four rebounds and made all four of his free throws. Chris Smith produced two points, three rebounds and two assists; while reserve guard Elisha Justice delivered two assists while on the court for the entire comeback.

■ Defense Spurs Another Top Five Win -- A strong defensive effort aided the Cardinals' second victory over a top five team last season as the Cardinals beat No. 4 Pittsburgh 62-59 in overtime on Feb. 27. Louisville held the Panthers without a field goal for a span of 11:11 in the first half, allowing the Cards to turn an 8-7 deficit into a 24-12 lead. Pittsburgh went 0-for-9 from the floor with seven turnovers during the stretch. Pitt scored a season-low 22 first half points. U of L has held four of its last five opponents to 60 or fewer points, limited them to a collective 34.9 percent accuracy from the field (97-of-278) and gained a +7.2 turnover margin.

■ Cards Recover From Large Halftime Deficit -- The Cardinals rallied for its 83-77 overtime victory over Notre Dame in the BIG EAST Championship semifinals after being down by 14 at halftime. That feat ties for the largest halftime deficit overcome by a Louisville team in the last 29 years. It was the second largest halftime deficit overcome for a BIG EAST tournament game behind the 15 points trailed by Syracuse in a 58-57 semifinal win over Georgetown. Earlier in the season, the Cardinals recovered from an 18-point deficit with 5:44 remaining to beat Marquette 71-70 on Jan. 15.

■ Another Double-Digit Comeback vs. WVU -- Louisville overcame a 12-point second-half deficit and an 11-point halftime trailer (37-26) to defeat West Virginia 55-54 in Louisville on Jan. 26 on Peyton Siva's driving scoop shot off the glass with 4.5 seconds remaining. Louisville had not overcome a bigger halftime deficit since the Cards rallied from 13 down at the break to defeat the Mountaineers in overtime in a memorable 2005 Elite Eight game. The last time U of L erased a bigger halftime spread to win in regulation: March 20, 1994, when Minnesota led 34-22 at the break before U of L won 60-55 in the NCAA Tournament second round.

A crucial 13-0 second-half run covering 8:20 allowed Louisville to turn an 11-point deficit (42-31) into a two-point cushion. WVU missed 10 shots during the run, with the Cards collecting the rebound after each of the first eight misfires. Louisville held the Mountaineers without a field goal for a stretch of 13:40 from the beginning of the 13-0 run until the game clock read 1:30. WVU missed 13 straight shots during that span.

WVU shot 18.2 percent (4-for-22) from the field in the second half, scoring 17 points. The 17 points were the fewest in a half for a U of L conference opponent since USF scored 15 in the first half of an 85-40 Cardinal win on Jan. 10, 2004. Louisville held a league foe to fewer than 20 second-half points for the first time since Jan. 22, 1983, when Southern Miss managed just 17 points in the latter half of a 63-48 U of L victory.

■ Another Dramatic Comeback — Louisville recovered from a 16-point first-half deficit against No. 4 Notre Dame to claim an 83-77 overtime victory in the BIG EAST semifinals. After allowing the Irish to shoot 56.7 percent from the field in the first half, the Cards' defense held Notre Dame to 27.3 accuracy in the second half (6-of-22). After Notre Dame had held a 40-32 rebounding edge in South Bend last season, U of L gathered a season-best 23 offensive rebounds to aid the Cards' 49-35 advantage on the boards. Preston Knowles scored half of his team-high 20 points after picking up his fourth foul with 13:03 remaining in regulation, including a jumper with 1:02 left in regulation that gave the Cardinals a 72-70 lead. Peyton Siva produced 15 points, seven assists and five rebounds with just one turnover before fouling out with 3:53 remaining. Terrence Jennings contributed 16 points, five rebounds and three blocked shots despite playing the final 9 1/2 minutes of regulation and overtime with four fouls.

U of L Basketball Tradition

■ Louisville made its 37th NCAA Tournament appearance. The Cardinals have reached the NCAA Tournament 28 of the last 35 years (five straight, eight of the last nine, 10 of the last 13 years, 16 of last 20). The Cards have reached the Sweet 16 on 17 occasions (two of the last three years). Louisville is tied for sixth in tournament victories (60) and is fifth in NCAA Tournament appearances (37). U of L has a 60-39 overall NCAA Tournament record, reaching the Final Four eight times.

■ U of L has an all-time 1,632-854 record in 97 seasons of intercollegiate basketball. The Cardinals are 18th among all NCAA schools in victories.

■ Nineteen Louisville players have earned All-America status, the latest being Terrence Williams in 2009. The Cardinals have had 57 players drafted by the NBA, the latest of whom U of L's two lottery picks from 2009: Williams, the 11th overall pick by the New Jersey Nets; and Earl Clark, the 14th overall selection by the Phoenix Suns. Samardo Samuels signed a free agent agreement with the Cleveland Cavaliers after leaving in 2010.

■ U of L is tied for seventh nationally with eight Final Four appearances overall. No other school went to the Final Four four times during the 1980s and Louisville won two NCAA titles in that decade, winning the national championship in 1980 and 1986. Coach Rick Pitino has guided five teams to the NCAA Final Four. Louisville's 37 NCAA Tournament appearances is fifth best all-time and its 60 NCAA Tournament victories is tied for the sixth most.

■ Louisville has won its conference championship or finished second in its league in 24 of the last 35 years, including three of the last five years (second place in the BIG EAST in 2007, 2008, champion in 2009). The Cards were tied for third in the BIG EAST in 2011.

■ Louisville is the only school in the nation to have claimed the championship of three major national post-season tournaments including the 1948 NAIB Championship, the 1956 NIT title and the 1980 and 1986 NCAA Championships.

■ Louisville has two representatives in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. Cardinal All-American and former Washington Bullets All-Star Wes Unseld was inducted in 1988 while former head coach Denny Crum was inducted in 1994.

■ Louisville has ranked among the top 10 nationally in average home attendance each of the last 35 years, including the last 30 straight in the nation's top five (19,397 in '09-10, fifth in the nation in Freedom Hall). The Cardinals moved to their new home in 2010-11 -- the 22,000-seat KFC Yum! Center in downtown Louisville. In 21 home games, a U of L record 458,463 fans attended games, a 21,832 average that trailed only Kentucky and Syracuse this season.

■ Only four times in the last 46 years have the Cardinals failed to reach either the NCAA or NIT post-season tournaments. U of L reached the NCAA Tournament Elite Eight two of the last three years.

■ The Cardinals are one of the most televised teams in college basketball. U of L games were televised on national networks during the 2010-11 regular season on 18 occasions. Every possible U of L game over the past 28 years has been televised on either a live or delayed basis -- a total of over 830 games -- including nearly 300 national television appearances.

■ The Cardinals have been ranked on 512 occasions in the AP poll, sixth most all-time. Louisville has been ranked nine consecutive weeks in the poll in 2010-11

(longest streak under Pitino: 31 weeks, 2005-06). The Cards finished the 2008-09 season No. 1 in the AP poll -- the first No. 1 AP ranking ever for U of L -- and were fifth in final 2009 ESPN/USA Today ranking. Louisville rose to as high as No. 11 this year. The Cardinals did not receive a single vote in the preseason AP poll this year.

The Cardinals became the No. 1 team in the nation in the ESPN/USA Today poll on March 15, 2009. Louisville's only previous time at No. 1 in the coaches poll was when it opened the 1986-87 season as the top team in the UPI poll. Louisville has been ranked as the No. 2 team in the AP poll on 15 occasions all-time.

■ Four former Cardinals are active on NBA rosters during the 2010-11 season: Francisco Garcia (Sacramento Kings), Earl Clark (Orlando Magic), Terrence Williams (Houston Rockets) and Samardo Samuels (Cleveland Cavaliers). At least 19 former Cardinals are playing professionally now with other U.S. or foreign teams. Thirty-three U of L players have reached the NBA in the last 38 years.

■ U of L has retired the numbers of four of its former hoop greats: 8 Charlie Tyra, 31 Wes Unseld, 35 Darrell Griffith and 42 Pervis Ellison.

■ Louisville is tied with North Carolina for the national lead with 63 all-time 1,000 point scorers, a plateau reached by Preston Knowles in 2010-11.

■ Aside from basketball lettermen, some notable U of L alumni include: the late Johnny Unitas (football), Mitch McConnell (U.S. Senator, Kentucky), Chris Dodd (U.S. Senator, Conn.), Bob Edwards (former National Public Radio host), Tom Jackson (ESPN commentator) and 18 players active in the NFL during the 2010 season.

■ U of L's co-ed cheerleading squad has won 16 national cheerleading titles, including winning the 2011 National Cheerleading Association Championships in Daytona Beach, Fla. The Cards' all-girl squad has won nine championships and U of L also won the small coed national title five times. The Ladybirds, U of L's dance team, has won nine national titles, including winning the last four NCA titles. U of L swept all four competitions at the 2009 and 2011 events.

■ U of L is among 15 programs in the nation that have won at least 70 percent of their games over the last 10 years. Louisville has a .721 winning percentage since U of L Coach Rick Pitino took over the reins of the Cardinal program, 13th best in the nation.

Head Coach Rick Pitino

Rick Pitino, one of the most brilliant minds in coaching, began a new era in University of Louisville men's basketball when he was named head coach of the Cardinals on March 21, 2001.

The only coach in NCAA history to take three different teams to the NCAA Final Four, Pitino's up-tempo style, pressure defense, strong work ethic and family atmosphere have quickly returned the Cardinals to national prominence.

In 25 seasons as a collegiate head coach at four different schools, Pitino has compiled a 597-220 record, a .731 winning percentage that ranks him 13th among active coaches. His current contract ties him with U of L through the 2016-2017 season.

Pitino's most recent Cardinals were a delight to U of L fans. Despite having 10 players who missed games with injuries and opening the season with no regular returning starters, the Cardinals tied for third in the nation's toughest conference and reached the title game of the BIG EAST Championship. Louisville beat seven Top 25 teams and rose into the national rankings themselves after not receiving a single vote in the preseason AP poll.

Last year, Cardinals reached 20 victories for the eighth straight year against a top-five rated schedule. Along the way, U of L tied for fifth in arguably the nation's toughest league, beat then top-ranked Syracuse in the regular season finale, and played in the Cards' 36th NCAA Tournament.

The Cardinals earned both the BIG EAST Conference regular season and tournament championships in 2008-09, won 31 games -- fifth most in school history -- and gained the top overall seed in the NCAA Tournament before reaching the NCAA Elite Eight for the second straight year. U of L earned its first ever Associated Press No. 1 ranking in the final poll.

Three years ago, his Cardinals overcame early injuries to its front line to win 27 games against a schedule rated as the fourth-toughest in the nation. An aggressive, multiple defensive attack helped U of L earn a second-place finish in the BIG EAST for the second consecutive year and advance to the Cards' second NCAA Elite Eight appearance in four years.

In 2007-08, Pitino's youthful squad also battled through injuries to win eight of its last ten games and rise among the nation's top 20 teams over the last four weeks. The Cards won 24 games, including a pair on the road over top 15 ranked teams, earned a second-place finish in the Big East Conference and were No. 16 in the final Associated Press ranking.

The Cardinals were No. 3 in the nation in the final 2004-05 ESPN/USA Today poll while posting a stellar 33-5 record, matching the most victories in U of L history. U of L won its first-ever Conference USA regular season title and also claimed the league tournament championship. Louisville reached its first NCAA Sweet 16 since 1997 before advancing to its first NCAA Final Four since 1986.

The successes of the 2005 Final Four squad were built upon the efforts of his early teams at U of L. The Cardinals won 16 straight during one stretch in 2003-04 and rose to as high as fourth in the national polls before a trio of key injuries disrupted the Cardinals' flight. Pitino gained his 400th career coaching victory with a 73-65 victory over then top-ranked Florida on Dec. 13, 2003, the first of two wins that season U of L achieved over No. 1 ranked foes.

In his second year at U of L in 2002-03, the Cardinals reached the No. 2 position in the Associated Press poll and spent time as the nation's top team in the Ratings Percentage Index and Sagarin Ratings. After a 1-1 start, the Cardinals reeled off an incredible 17 straight victories, one short of the school record and the second-highest ever in Conference USA history. U of L won its first-ever C-USA Tournament title.

Pitino did not wait for the Cardinals to make an upward move. In his first year at Louisville in 2001-02, he guided an undersized, often outmanned squad to a 19-13 record, upsetting the nation's fourth-ranked team along the way to earning a post-season tournament appearance in the NIT, nearly reversing the Cardinals fortunes the season prior to his arrival (12-19 in 2000-01).

Even under great adversity, Pitino's teams have persevered. After losing 60 percent of its scoring and four key upperclassmen from its 2005 Final Four team, Louisville battled through destructive injuries and inexperience during the 2005-06 season to post a 21-13 record in its first year in the BIG EAST Conference, concluding the year in the NIT national semifinals.

A 2006 inductee to the New York City Hall of Fame, Pitino has the seventh-highest winning percentage in NCAA Tournament games among active coaches, winning 71.7 percent of his games in the post-season event with a 38-15 record in 16 tournament appearances.

For three and a half years, Pitino served as president and head coach of the NBA's Boston Celtics. With the Celtics, he took over a team that had posted a franchise worst 15-67 record before his arrival. He quickly made an impact, improving the Celtics' victory total by 21 games in his first season. He resigned his position with the storied franchise on Jan. 8, 2001 after compiling a 102-146 record there.

He guided Kentucky to three NCAA Final Four appearances in his last five years, winning the 1996 NCAA Championship and reaching the national title game in 1997. In eight seasons with the Wildcats, he amassed a 219-50 record (.814) while winning two league crowns and an impressive 17-1 record in the Southeastern Conference Tournament. While at UK, Pitino coached three Wildcats who earned All-America honors and eight players who were drafted by the NBA, including six in the first round (three lottery picks).

Pitino, 58, got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at Hawai'i in 1974 and served as a full-time assistant there in 1975-76. He served two seasons as an assistant at Syracuse under Jim Boeheim from 1976-78.

Pitino was only 25 years old when he accepted his first head coaching job at Boston University in 1978. He produced a 91-51 record in five years there, departing as the most successful coach in BU history. In his final season there, he guided the Terriers to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 24 years. He was twice named New England Coach of the Year (1979, 1983).

Pitino left Boston U. to become an assistant coach for the New York Knicks from 1983-85, where he worked with head coach Hubie Brown. It was a team he would return to lead as its head coach in two seasons.

He was head coach at Providence College for two seasons (1985-87), producing a 42-23 record there. He guided the Friars to an NCAA Tournament appearance in 1986 and a trip to the NCAA Final Four in 1987, winning the regional championship in Freedom Hall.

Before his stint at Kentucky, Pitino served as head coach of the New York Knicks for two years. In his initial year there in 1987-88, the Knicks improved by 14 victories and made the NBA Playoffs for the first time in four seasons. The Knicks won 52 games in 1988-89 and swept the Philadelphia 76ers in the first round of the NBA Playoffs.

Aside from his hoops prowess, Pitino has achieved success off the court as well in such realms as broadcasting, publishing, motivational speaking and horse racing. He is an accomplished author, producing such books as the best seller "Success Is A Choice" and "Lead to Succeed."

He earned his degree in 1974 at Massachusetts, where he was a standout guard for the Minutemen's basketball team. His 329 career assists rank eighth all-time at UMass and his 168 assists as a senior is the sixth-best single season total ever there. Pitino was a freshman during NBA legend Julius Erving's senior year.

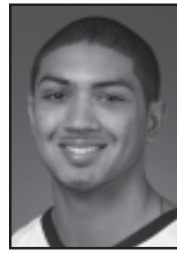

Born Sept. 18, 1952, Pitino is a native of New York City where he was a standout guard for Dominic High School in Oyster Bay, Long Island. There, he captained his team and established several school scoring marks.

Pitino and wife Joanne have five children: Michael, Christopher, Richard, Ryan and Jacqueline.
