Richie Grant - Camp Director

The University of Memphis head men's soccer coach and a native of Dublin, Ireland, Grant was an All-American on three occasions as a player at Green Mountain College, Vermont. After playing professional soccer for the Minnesota Thunder, Grant became the assistant coach at Bloomsburg University, Pennsylvania before becoming the coach at Lambuth University.

During his tenure at Lambuth, Grant was instrumental with the growth of the game in West Tennessee as a director of Jackson Soccer Club, and his influence spread throughout the state. In 1999 he was named the head coach at the University of Memphis, was named the Conference USA coach of the year in 2000, and again in 2004. In 2004 Grant's team took home the C-USA Championship and a birth in the NCAA tournament. In the past two years The University of Memphis has placed 3 players on MLS Rosters. Grant is heavily involved with the Tennessee State Olympic Development Program and holds the NSCAA Premier License.

"I believe the success of this camp is influenced by the quality of the coaches we have on staff. We have trained coaches with unmatched enthusiasm for the game, and their passion is reflected in the staff demonstrations." -Richie Grant

Dayton O'Brien
All-American
