Welcome Wolfpack Football Fans:

We want to extend a warm Wolfpack welcome to all of our fans attending our games this season. You are our special guests at Carter-Finley Stadium and we want your game-day experience to be memorable and a very positive one. There is nothing quite like the color and excitement of college football with 50,000 fans cheering for their Wolfpack.

Please take a moment to read the information and policies in this brochure. They are intended for your safety and enjoyment.

Coach Chuck Amato has led NC State to national prominence and ticket demand and interest in Wolfpack football continues at an all-time high. We have just completed the $38 million Vaughn Towers Media and Hospitality Center. It is the finest such facility in the nation and we are moving ahead on plans for construction of seating in the north end zone.

We have so many positives going for our entire athletics program. That's why it's more important than ever that everyone in our Wolfpack family contribute to a spirit of sportsmanship, courtesy, and true Wolfpack hospitality when attending games. Let's enthusiastically support our coaches and players and win with class. That's the way we want to represent our great university.

We are moving toward total excellence because of your loyal support. Go Pack!

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Lee G. Fowler". The signature is fluid and cursive.

Lee G. Fowler,
Director of Athletics

NC State Launches
Sportsmanship Initiative
“WOLFPACK IN THE HOUSE”
Kicks off this Season.

Promoting first-class conduct from all those associated with NC State has always been the goal of the athletics department. Coaches, players, fans, staff, spirit groups, and students are all ambassadors for the University at sporting events.

We all share the responsibility of promoting good sportsmanship at games and ensuring that the next generations of Wolfpackers learn the proper way to support their team.

This new campaign gives us a mechanism to guide all external constituencies of the university, and will create a positive and enthusiastic "game day" atmosphere. We want everyone to understand their role in creating home field advantage, but more importantly, realizing the responsibility we all share in representing NC State.

- Let your actions represent the best of NC State
  - NC State is one of the top research institutions in the country, and our alumni & fans reflect that caliber of program.
- Respect our visitors and game officials
  - Regardless of the outcome of the game, we can still show pride for our university through our interactions with guests.
- Cheer loudly, but with appropriate language
  - Profanity or vulgarity can be as detrimental to game atmosphere as cheering support to your team is beneficial to it, make the right choice.

CSTV.COM • The place that keeps college sportsfans connected to their favorite teams.

- Respect fellow Wolfpackers - especially young fans

- The future of NC State is sitting in the stands today, our children will represent the university for years to come, lets get them started out on the right foot.

- Be positive in your support of our team, coaches, and players

- There is no good reason to degrade the teams on the field, instead celebrate the game that is taking place in front of you.

The main goal of the WITH program is to uphold sportsmanship at all our events and educate everyone on the benefits of a positive and united message for our student-athletes. Look for in-game promotions and information this upcoming season.

How the Wolfpack Club Helps NC State

The NC State Student Aid Association is a non-profit organization founded in 1936, as the fundraising arm for NC State Athletics. The NC State Student Aid Association exists to provide financial support for student-athlete scholarships as well as athletic facility improvements.

The charitable donations of alumni, friends and fans are vital to the long-term growth and success of NC State athletics. The NC State athletics department does not receive state funds for operation. Therefore, money raised by the NC State Student Aid Association is necessary to build and sustain a competitive athletics program in the Atlantic Coast Conference and NCAA. For the third straight year, Waste Industries reminds all Wolfpack Fans to do their part to support the "Chuck It" Recycling Program!

The program, a joint effort between Waste Industries and the NC State University Office of Waste Reduction and Recycling, encourages fans to take their cans and bottles to designated "Chuck It Recycling Zones." They're located throughout the parking lots, outside the gates, and for the first time, throughout the concourse of Carter-Finley Stadium. In addition, "Chuckwagons" will patrol the parking lots of the Stadium and RBC Center prior to all games collecting bottles and cans.

So Wolfpack Fans, enjoy your tailgating in 2005. And when you're done, don't forget to ...
