Academic All-Americans – Todd Mobley became the first Irish track and field/cross country student-athlete to earn first-team Academic All-America honors in two consecutive seasons with his second straight selection in 2004-05. Mobley, also the third Notre Dame track standout to earn any Academic All-America honors in consecutive years, landed on the ESPN The Magazine/CoSIDA Academic All-America First Team after earning two cross country All-America honors in 2002 and 2003 and posting a 3.84 GPA while working toward his MBA degree in the Mendoza College of Business. Mobley graduated from Notre Dame in May of 2003 with a degree in mathematics from the College of Science, logging a 3.67 undergraduate GPA.

All-America Streak – Irish runners have a proven record in national championship meets as evidenced by their current line of All-American honorees.

petitor earning All-America honors (the Irish have amassed 155 All-America honors since 1921). The women's track and field team has enjoyed an All-American performance each season since 1997 (eight-year streak) and 32 overall since 1994.

All-American (Two Sports) – Former Irish great Raghib "Rocket" Ismail is part of an exclusive group of four student-athletes who have combined All-America honors in football and another sport during in their Notre Dame careers. Ismail was a two-time consensus first-team All-American in football (1989, 1990) and also earned All-America honors on the track as a sprinter in 1991.

The other members of this elite club are: Edward "Moose" Krause (football 1932; basketball 1932-34), Dick Arrington (football 1965; wrestling 1966) and Bob Golic (football 1977-78; wrestling 1978-79).

Aragon – Former Irish track and cross country standout Dr. Chuck Aragon was presented with the Spirit of Notre Dame Award during the Notre Dame-Michigan game in the fall of 1992. The award, sponsored by Maxwell House and General Foods, recognized Notre Dame athletes, past and present, who distinguished themselves in competition, demonstrated the "Spirit of Notre Dame" and exhibited the ideals of the University. Aragon captained both the Notre Dame cross country and track teams during his career (1977-81) and was the first Irish sub-four-minute miler. An All-American and bronze medalist in the 1,500 meters at the Pan Am Games, he placed fourth in the 1984 Olympic Trials. Aragon, who completed his residency in anesthesiology, donated many hours to the Logan Center while at Notre Dame.

Back to the Bend – Although the Irish won their only cross country national championship in 1957, the bus ride home from East Lansing, Mich., was anything but a celebration. In 26-degree weather, the Irish upset heavily-favored Michigan State, but when coach Alex Wilson added up the team's score of 121 points, he felt the score was extremely high to contend for the title. As a result, he and his team packed up and took the bus back to South Bend. About halfway home the stunning news came over the bus radio, Notre Dame had defeated Michigan State by six points.

Coaching Tree – Although one of Notre Dame's oldest varsity programs (dating back to 1890), the Irish track and field team didn't bring on its first coach until 1916, when Knute Rockne took the job. He held that position until 1927, starting a trend of stability among Irish track coaches.

Current Notre Dame track and field coach Joe Piane is perhaps the best example of this, as he enters his 31st year at the helm of the Irish. Piane is the longest-tenured coach among active mentors at Notre Dame, with women's basketball skipper Muffet McGraw next in line with her 19th season on tap in 2005-06.

Deeter – JoAnna Deeter ended her career as one of the best women's cross country and track and field runners in Irish history. A native of Glen Ellyn, Ill., Deeter earned All-America status twice for cross country in 1996 and 1998 and three times in track and field, all in 1999. Included in her accomplishments are two school records - the indoor and outdoor 3,000 and 10,000.

Fifth – One-fifth of a mile is the length of the Meyo Track, the largest collegiate indoor surface in the country and the home track for the Irish indoor teams. First opened in 1988, the track was named for Ray and Marie Meyo of Brecksville, Ohio, and is made of the Mondo track surface featuring six 42-inch lanes.

The Meyo Track has established itself as one of the fastest surfaces in the nation and welcomes a number of high-class athletes in a "last chance" meet (the Alex Wilson Invitational) who are attempting to qualify for the NCAA Indoor Championship. The Meyo Invitational, which features the "Meyo Mile" (a special race that features many of the top milers in the nation) and the Alex Wilson Invitational are fixtures on the Notre Dame indoor track and field schedule each season.

Football Players – The Notre Dame football and track and field programs are two of the oldest varsity sports on the Irish campus. There have been a number of football stars who have crossed over to the track, or the field, and left an impression on the track and field program. Just a glance at the Notre Dame track and field record book shows the effect that football players have had on it. Raghieb "Rocket" Ismail, who finished second in the Heisman Trophy balloting in 1990, holds the school record for the indoor 55 meters and finished as an All-American in 1991.

Former Irish defensive back Allen Rossum (now a standout return specialist with the NFL's Atlanta Falcons) currently holds the school record in the indoor 60 meters (6.68), former running back Randy Kinder set the indoor 200-meter record in 21.11 and former receiver Ryan Postel owns the indoor 400-meter record (47.01).

Some football players who also earned monograms on the track include 1987 Heisman Trophy winner Tim Brown, Jack Elder, Edward "Moose" Krause, Elmer Layden, Dean Lytle, Ryan Mihalko (the school-record holder in the javelin), Creighton Miller and Knute Rockne.

Current Irish assistant track and field coach John Millar and his sprint corps could get a boost this season from Terrail Lambert (who earned a letter in track and field during the 2005 season after earning all-BIG EAST Conference honors in the indoor 60 meters).

Ghana – The impact of Notre Dame track can be felt around the world as evidenced by William P. Mahoney, an Irish alumnus who served as the U.S. ambassador to Ghana under the Kennedy Administration. A sprinter for coach John Nicholson, Mahoney took over the coaching duties when Nicholson died in 1940. Mahoney guided the team to an unofficial victory in the Drake Relays before he entered the Navy in 1942.

Golden Anniversary – The 2005 season will mark the 50th running of the Notre Dame Invitational cross country meet, one of the nation's oldest and largest intercollegiate races. The invitational was started by former Irish head coach Alex Wilson in 1956 as a four-mile race, extended to five miles in 1968, and a women's competition added in 1987. Notre Dame has won the men's event 15 times (most recently in 2003) and the women's race on six occasions (also last doing so in 2003).

The golden anniversary running of the Notre Dame Invitational will take place Sept. 30, 2005 at the Notre Dame Golf Course on the Notre Dame campus.

Heisman – Achieving success on both the track and the football field was the trademark of former Irish runners Tim Brown and Raghieb "Rocket" Ismail. Brown won the 1987 Heisman Trophy in addition to running with the track team during the offseason. Brown owned the school record in the 55 meters until 1990 when '90 Heisman runner-up Ismail ran 6.07 in the event, and eventually went on to earn track All-America honors by finishing second in the 1991 NCAA indoor 55 meters.

Hurd – Dr. Bill Hurd was honored in 2002 at the annual Notre Dame Monogram Club dinner with the Moose Krause Distinguished Service Award, the highest honor presented by the Monogram Club. A world-class sprinter and 1969 Notre Dame graduate with a degree in electrical engineering, Hurd now is a noted eye surgeon – with an ophthalmology practice in Memphis that specializes in cataract, glaucoma and diabetic treatment and keratorefractive surgery.

Hurd annually spends 2-3 weeks providing voluntary eye surgery to the poor in Africa, Mexico and Brazil. On the most recent trip to Madagascar, he and two other doctors saw 1,100 patients in 10 days and he performed 35 eye surgeries – with Hurd and his colleagues increasingly in demand as their reputation grows.

Hurd's days of distinction as a collegian included being named Notre Dame's "athlete of the year" for 1967-68 and establishing the

Two-time NCAA shot put champion ('23 and '24) Tom Lieb introduced the spinning throw delivery in the discus, which is still in use today.

John P. Nicholson was one of track and field's greatest innovators in the late 20's and early 30's. Here he is pictured with Irish distance great Greg Rice, plotting out the All-American's next race.

American indoor record in the 300-yard dash (29.8). He set eight Notre Dame records and totaled five All-America finishes at the 1968 and '69 NCAA meets (only two Notre Dame student-athletes ever have totaled more All-America honors).

He also was a finalist (top eight) at the Olympic Trials in the 100 and 200 meters, finishing fifth in the 100 to just miss a spot on the Olympic squad (his competitors included the likes of Jim Hines, John Carlos, Tommy Smith and Mel Gray).

Hurd – who added graduate degrees from Massachusetts Institute of Technology (master's in management science) and Meharry Medical School in Nashville – was a Rhodes Scholarship regional finalist and received Notre Dame's Harvey Foster Award in 1992 (recognizing alumni for distinguished civic activity) and the NCAA's prestigious Silver Anniversary Award in 1994 (recognizing career success and community service). He holds two U.S./foreign patents for optical devices, including a slit-lamp, mountable intraocular biometer.

Also an accomplished jazz musician, Hurd recently completed work on his fourth CD, in which he plays the saxophone and flute.

Hurd and his wife Rhynette, an attorney, have sent both of their sons to Notre Dame. One of his sons, Ryan, was a four-year monogram winner on the Irish track and field team from 2001-04.

Jinx – Although Irish great Greg Rice is widely regarded as one of the best distance runners of all time, his coach only saw him race once during his Notre Dame career. Coach John Nicholson felt he superstitiously jinxed Rice during races and therefore stayed in South Bend while Rice traveled to meets. The only race Nicholson saw was perhaps one of Rice's finest as he outdueled Taisto Maki and Don Lash to win a three-mile race in 13:52.2. Unfortunately, the race would also be Nicholson's last as the coach died two days later from complications of a heart attack that he suffered just hours before the competition.

Krause Stadium – The outdoor home of the Irish track team, the 5,000-seat Krause Stadium is located behind the Joyce Center. The Monogram Track features eight 48-inch lanes on the curves and nine lanes on the front stretch. Consisting of Mondo track material, the Monogram Track features the same surface used in the 1992 Barcelona Olympic Games.

Lieb – Tom Lieb, an Irish shot put thrower in the early 20's, is credited with introducing the spin-style delivery to the sport, a style which is still used today. Lieb won the NCAA championship in the event during the 1923 and 1924 seasons.

Loftus Center – Notre Dame first utilized the Loftus Center in October of 1987 and is enjoying its 19th full season of use in 2005-06. The indoor facility, which is connected to the recently-completed Guglielmino Athletic Complex, features the Haggar Fitness Center, a 25,000-square foot weightlifting area, and Meyo Field. It also houses a 154-seat auditorium and nine conference rooms. The building, dedicated in April 1988 after construction began in March 1987, is available for a variety of other uses – including practice by Irish field sport teams.

The Loftus Center took on a revitalized look in the summer of 2003, as a new Prestige Turf surface and Mondo track were installed.

Meyo Invitational – Four minutes, one mile. For years it was the unbreakable barrier, and it remains among the most celebrated feats in all of sport. Folks that know the sport of track and field will tell you that 3:40 in the 1,500 or 7:55 in the 3,000 are just as impressive, but to the casual fan there is something about the simplicity of it; four laps, four minutes, one mile.

On Feb. 3-4, 2006, the 19th annual Meyo Invitational will return to the Loftus Sports Center on Notre Dame's campus with the marquee event at the meet being the Meyo Mile. In the past three seasons, 13 runners have broken through the magical four-minute mark in three of the most exiting races at Notre Dame in recent memory.

In 2003, Notre Dame senior Luke Watson won the race in school record time (3:57.83), moving into the lead a mere 30 meters from the finish line. After the dust had settled, the top five in the race were each in under four minutes, each within a half second of the others, and each owned one of the five fastest times in the world that year.

The 2005 race turned out to be just as thrilling, with four runners breaking the four-minute barrier, including a pair of Notre Dame athletes (Watson, running unattached, and sophomore Kurt Benninger). All four sub-four minute runners earned automatic qualification to the NCAA Indoor Championships and Benninger's time of 3:58.75 put him less than a second off Watson's school record mark of two years earlier.

The Invitational, as well as the Meyo Mile, are the brainchild of Irish head track and field coach Joe Piane. When the Loftus Center was built, Notre Dame installed a track that was oversized and topped with a Mondo surface, which produced a rare and very fast combination.

Piane recounted the invention of the Invitational, "We put the meet together because it was a huge track and it was attractive to just give it a try. The name comes from Ray Meyo, who donated everything, and we decided to highlight the mile because even the average person knows that a sub-four-minute mile is very good, so we put together a 'four minute challenge' knowing that if the race did go under four minutes, everyone was going to say, 'Wow! This is really something.'"

The Meyo Mile, however will not be the only great event on the weekend. The Meyo Invitational is always packed with outstanding performances from start to finish. In 2005, the meet saw a staggering 110 automatic or provisional qualifications for the NCAA Championships, and through the years, numerous track and school records have been shattered.

National Champions – Fifteen Irish athletes have won 16 national track titles during the program's history, in addition to the two individual and one team championships in cross country. The most recent track champion was Ryan Shay, who ran away with the 10,000 meters at the 2001 NCAA Championships in Eugene, Ore.

Before Shay's triumphant victory, Notre Dame's last track and field champion was Tom McMannon who won the 55-meter high hurdles in 1972. Greg Rice (1938) and Oliver Hunter (1942) were individual cross country champions, while coach Alex Wilson's 1957 squad won the team national championship.

Pioneer – Harry M. Jewett was the first recognized Notre Dame track and field athlete, making his debut in 1890 at a relay invitational in Ann Arbor, Mich. The school was next represented in 1898, and the Irish have competed in every year since then with the exception of 1906.

Notre Dame's Greg Rice (second from left) is considered by many to be the greatest distance runner in U.S. history. The 1940 Sullivan Award winner, Rice went undefeated in 65 major indoor and outdoor races over a three-year span, setting 10 world records in six different events. He also was an All-American in the two-mile race, winning the NCAA title in 1937 and 1939 and finishing second in 1938.

Prices – There is no charge to watch the Notre Dame track and field and cross country teams in action. The cross country teams will be on campus two times this season (see schedule on back cover of this media guide), while the indoor track and field teams will host the Meyo Invitational and Alex Wilson Invitational, as well as the Spring Opener during the outdoor season.

Rockne – The name that has become synonymous with Notre Dame football was also involved in the Irish track scene. After a difficult freshman year as a reserve on the varsity football team, Knute Rockne turned his attention to track where he earned a monogram and, as legend has it, once broke the world record in the indoor pole vault with his best effort of 12-4, but held it for such a brief period that he never received official recognition for it. Rockne became the University's first track coach in 1916 and the first cross country mentor in 1920. During his tenure, Rockne guided five Olympians and two Olympic medalists. The coach resigned his track responsibilities in 1928 to devote his energy to football until his death in 1931.

Roof Top Running – Injured by a wild discus throw, John P. Nicholson (Irish track coach from 1927-40) sat on the roof of a car and shouted instructions to his runners through a megaphone during training. The method proved so effective that Nicholson made the car a regular part of his training regimen.

Scholarships – Beginning with the 2004-05 season, all 26 varsity programs at the University of Notre Dame received the full NCAA complement of scholarships.

"Fully scholarshiping all our programs will help us realize our goals over the next five or six years of pushing Notre Dame's athletic program toward a top finish in the annual NACDA Directors' Cup standings," Director of Athletics Kevin White says.

"This eventually will put all of our programs in position to compete for national championships."

Notre Dame finished 16th in the 2004-05 NACDA Directors' Cup standings.

Starting Blocks – John P. Nicholson bestowed upon the track world perhaps his greatest innovation, the starting block. His starting block caught on in the late 1920s and was well-received by the track community.

"You have a device which will materially make short distance, hurdle and relay racing more popular with both the public and athletes," wrote former Illinois coach Harry Gill in a 1929 letter. "It appears to be a real help to track athletics."

John Griffith, former chairman of the NCAA track and field rules committee and commissioner of the Big Ten Conference, was equally impressed in a letter written the same year.

"I have studied the pictures of your new starting device with a great deal of interest, and am of the opinion that you have made a distinct contribution to track athletics."

Varsity – While the men's track and field and cross country teams are two of the oldest teams at Notre Dame, dating back to the 19th century, the women's program is only in its infancy. The women's cross country team is in its 19th year and owns five conference titles in that time, including the 2002 BIG EAST Championship. The women's cross country team also finished third at the NCAA Championship in 2002 and fourth in 2004.

The women's track and field squad enters its 15th season of varsity competition this year and has won four league championships in that time and advanced at least one runner to the NCAA Championships for the 11th consecutive year in 2004-05. The women's team also broke through for its first BIG EAST Championship team title at the 2002 indoor meet.

Shay is the most decorated athlete in the history of Notre Dame track and field. A 2001 NCAA champion in the 10,000 meters, Shay was a nine-time All-American including two honors for cross country, two for indoor track and six for outdoor track. His 10 honors are the most in school history.

In 2002, a fifth year of eligibility, Shay was named an Academic All-American, and had a second-place finish in the 10,000 meters at the NCAA Championships.

Shay was a nine-time BIG EAST champion in his years at Notre Dame, with one of those victories coming in cross country. He also had seven top-10 finishes at the NCAA Championships in various distance events including the 3,000, 5,000 and 10,000 meters.

Liz Grow

*Four-time All-American
Five-time BIG EAST
Champion*

Liz Grow, a 2002 graduate, asserted herself as one of the best sprinter's in Notre Dame history during her career. Grow was a four-time All-American, earning the honor twice in the indoor 400-meter dash, and twice with the 4x400-meter relay team, once indoors and once outdoors.

Perhaps the most telling statistics about the success she enjoyed at Notre Dame are her school records. At the time she graduated, Grow was a part of six different school records, and had set a seventh in her junior year, which was subsequently broken the next season.

Grow's school record résumé includes the University's fastest times in the indoor and outdoor 400 meters, the indoor 500 meters, and the outdoor 4x100 and 4x400-meter relays.

Six-time BIG EAST
Champion
Sub-Four Minute Mile*

Enjoying one of the best careers in the history of Notre Dame track and field, Luke Watson competed in one of the most exciting moments in the history of the track and field program.

In January of 2003, Watson broke one of the great barriers in sports, the four-minute mile, in front of one of the largest crowds to ever see a track meet at Notre Dame. Watson's mile of 3:57.83 was the fastest collegiate indoor mile in the country in '03 and was only the second sub-four-minute mile in school history.

In the '03 season, Watson's last with the Irish, he was honored as an All-American for the eighth time, including two for cross country, four for indoor track and two for outdoor track. He was also named an Academic All-American in both the '02 and '03 seasons.

Upon graduating, Watson had five top-10 finishes in the NCAA Track and Field Championships, and two top-10 finishes at the NCAA Championships for cross country. Additionally, Watson held six school records – the indoor and outdoor mile, the 3,000-meter steeplechase, the indoor 3,000 meters, outdoor 5,000 meters and the distance medley relay.

Watson was also a force to be reckoned with in the BIG EAST. During his career he was a six-time BIG EAST champion. He also led the 2003 Irish to BIG EAST Championships in both the indoor and outdoor seasons, the first time a Notre Dame team accomplished that feat.

King has five top-10 finishes in the NCAA Championships as well as four BIG EAST Championships to her credit.

King also has a very impressive resume outside of the collegiate spectrum. In 2001, as a sophomore, she placed second in the long jump at National Junior Track and Field Championships, and went on to finish in the top 10 at the World Junior Championships in Santiago, Chile.

More recently, she won the 2004 USA Track and Field Indoor long jump title after finishing fourth in '03. King ended up sixth at the U.S. Olympic Trials and was the top finisher from the United States at the 2003 Pan American Games.
