Game Story

After hosting Michigan State in Pittsburgh during the 2006 season, Pitt will play in East Lansing for the first time in nearly 50 years. The Panthers last visited the Spartans during the 1958 season.

With a 2-0 start, Pitt looks to go 3-0 for the first time since the 2000 season.

The Panthers have never defeated Michigan State, losing to the Spartans five times and tying once. Pitt dropped a 38-23 decision to Michigan State at Heinz Field last year.

Pitt has played a Big Ten team only twice this decade: Michigan State in 2006 and Penn State in 2000 (a 12-0 victory at Three Rivers Stadium).

Pitt vs. the Big Ten

The Panthers have played only three Big Ten teams since the 1996 season — Ohio State, Penn State (four times between 1997-2000) and, for the second consecutive year, Michigan State. Pitt will start a series with Iowa beginning in 2008. Pitt owns a 65-106-6 record against current members of the Big Ten.

Notes & Anecdotes

Players of the Game: As selected by the Pitt coaching staff, the Players of the Game for the Grambling State contest were placekicker Conor Lee (special teams), defensive lineman Gus Mustakas (defense) and running back LeSean McCoy (offense).

Closing in on a Record: Junior placekicker Conor Lee, a 2007 Lou Groza Award candidate, has converted 54 consecutive extra points. Lee was 47 of 47 last season and began this season converting each of his seven PATs in the first two contests.

The school mark for consecutive PATs is held by Carson Long, who made 60 in a row over the 1974 and 1975 seasons.

In the Red Zone: Pitt has scored 10-of-10 times it has penetrated the 20-yard line or "red zone" in 2007. While Pitt is 100% in the red zone, its opponents are just 33.3%. Pitt's red zone offense and defense are both ranked first in the Big East.

Made in the Shade: Freshman running back LeSean "Shady" McCoy rushed into the end zone three times in his first four carries against Grambling State last weekend. McCoy scored on runs of 5, 7 and 13 yards within a 4:19 span in the first quarter. McCoy finished with 107 yards on 19 carries, an average of 5.6 yards per rush. His three rushing TDs were one shy of the Pitt freshman single-game mark set by Elliott Walker in 1974 (four vs. Temple). He additionally is the first Pitt frosh to rush for three TDs in a game since the 1995 season when Demetrius Harris did it against Eastern Michigan.

Stull out Indefinitely: Junior quarterback Bill Stull underwent surgery on the thumb of his right (throwing) hand to repair an injury sustained during the Sept. 1 season opener against Eastern Michigan. Stull left the game in the third quarter due to the injury and did not return. Prior to the injury, he had completed 14-of-20 passes for 177 yards and a 21-yard touchdown in the Panthers' 27-3 victory. Stull will be out for an indefinite period following the surgery.

Smith in Relief: In for the injured Bill Stull, Pitt redshirt freshman quarterback Kevan Smith threw for 202 yards on 15-of-22 passing against Grambling State in his first career start. The last time a freshman threw for over 200 yards in their first start was Matt Lytle in 1995, when he was 20 of 38 for 200 yards against Syracuse.

Strong Defensive Start: Pitt's defense has allowed just 13 points in its first two games this season. That mark is the lowest opponent total in the opening two games of a season since the Panthers allowed nine total points in the first two contests of the 1990 campaign (Ohio, 3; Boston College, 6).

Pitt 27 Eastern Michigan 3 • Sept. 1, 2007 • Heinz Field (36,183)

PITTSBURGH—Pitt opened the 2007 season in winning fashion, defeating Eastern Michigan, 27-3, at Heinz Field. The victory was Pitt's 10th in its last 11 season openers.

A strong defensive effort keyed the victory. The Panthers limited the Eagles to 145 yards in total offense, the lowest total by a Pitt season-opening opponent since 1989. Eastern Michigan (0-1) rushed for 39 yards on 23 carries, an average of just 1.7 per attempt.

The Panthers made their season debut with a new quarterback in junior Bill Stull. The primary backup to Tyler Palko each of the previous two seasons, Stull impressed in his first starting assignment by throwing for 177 yards on 14-of-20 passing. His 21-yard touchdown pass to Oderick Turner put Pitt in control early in the second period with a 14-3 lead.

Stull, however, would ultimately leave the game due to injury in the third quarter after injuring the thumb on his right (throwing) hand. Redshirt freshman Kevan Smith came on in relief over the final quarter-and-a-half and led Pitt to two scores – Conor Lee field goals of 28 and 35 yards – while completing 2-of-4 passes for 18 yards.

After managing just 19 yards on 13 carries in the first half, Pitt's rushing game came to life over the final two quarters.

Freshman LeSean McCoy made his collegiate debut by rushing for a game-high 68 yards on 10 carries, averaging nearly seven yards per attempt. LaRod Stephens-Howling had 67 yards on 16 carries (4.2 avg.).

Former tailback Shane Brooks scored a pair of one-yard touchdowns from the fullback position, giving him the first TDs of his career.

Pitt bottled up Eastern Michigan's offense all game long. EMU quarterback Andy Schmitt was 16 of 27 for 106 yards but didn't complete a pass over 15 yards. Only one Eagles' ball carrier had more than five yards rushing, Pierre Walker, who finished with 30 yards on 11 carries.

Middle linebacker Scott McKillop, making his first collegiate start, had eight tackles and a six-yard sack. Gus Mustakas anchored the defensive front with five tackles, including two for losses. Redshirt frosh Ricky Gary earned the start at cornerback and had an interception late in the first quarter that set up Pitt's second touchdown.

Pitt improved to 2-0 all-time against Eastern Michigan and 25-2 against teams from the Mid-American Conference.

Pitt 34 Grambling State 10 • Sept. 8, 2007 • Heinz Field (30,852)

PITTSBURGH—Pitt freshman tailback LeSean McCoy rushed for three touchdowns in the opening quarter and quarterback Kevan Smith threw for 202 yards and a TD in his first start to lift Pitt past Grambling State, 34-10, at Heinz Field.

Smith gained his first start after Bill Stull was lost for an indefinite period due to a thumb injury sustained the previous week in the opener against Eastern Michigan.

In only the second game action of his collegiate career, Smith completed 15-of-22 passes, including a 50-yard touchdown to Nate Byham in the second period that put the Panthers up 28-10.

McCoy scored three touchdowns in less than four-and-a-half minutes in the first quarter to propel Pitt to a 21-0 lead. He finished with 107 yards on 19 carries, an average of 5.6 yards per rush.

McCoy's three rushing touchdowns were one shy of the Pitt freshman single-game mark set by Elliott Walker in 1974 (four vs. Temple). McCoy scored on runs of 5, 7 and 13 yards within a 4:19 span.

The last Pitt freshman to rush for at least 100 yards was LaRod Stephens-Howling against Syracuse in 2005. Stephens-Howling started against Grambling but left the contest early after injuring his ribs.

McCoy's final two TDs were set up by a pair of gems by Pitt's defensive and special teams units.

Brian Kaiser blocked a Grambling punt to give the Panthers possession at the Tigers' seven-yard line, where McCoy scored from on the very next play.

Eric Thatcher then intercepted a Grambling pass that was tipped by Scott McKillop to set Pitt up at the Tigers' 31. Two plays later McCoy scored his final touchdown, giving Pitt a commanding 21-0 lead just 11 minutes into the contest.

Pitt's defense would limit the speedy Tigers to 239 total yards and just 84 on the ground. The Panthers intercepted three passes. In addition to Thatcher, Pitt also got thefts from Mike Phillips and Lowell Robinson.

Conor Lee kicked field goals of 20 and 27 yards to complete Pitt's scoring. He additionally converted each of his four extra-point attempts, running his PAT streak to 54 straight.

Pitt improved to 7-0 all-time against I-AA (renamed Football Championship Subdivision) teams. It was the Panthers' first-ever game against Grambling State.
