JACK GARDNER

(Inducted April 30, 1984)

Gardner was a three-year letterman at USC (1930-32) and was captain his senior year, playing under legendary coach Sam Barry. He learned well from Barry and became one of the most successful college coaches ever. Known as "The Fox", Gardner became the only coach in history to lead two different schools to the Final Four twice each. Gardner achieved this honor by directing both Kansas State (1948 and 1951) and Utah (1961 and 1966) into the Big Dance. In 28 years of coaching at the major college level, Gardner's teams compiled a 486-235 record (67.4 percent). When you combine his 10 years (1933-43) of coaching AAU, high school, junior college and military ball, his record swells to 649-278, an impressive 70 percent winning mark. A proponent of fundamental basketball, Gardner was an expert in fast break hoops.

SAM BARRY

(Inducted April 28, 1979)

Justin "Sam" Barry, USC's winningest coach ever, started out a three-sport star at Madison (Wisc.) High. After a four-year stint at Knox College, Barry coached Iowa for seven seasons, leading the Hawkeyes to the 1923 Big Ten championship and a share of the 1926 title. He then came to Troy, where he stayed for 18 years, leading the Trojans to a 260-138 won-loss record, a mark that included winning the Pacific Coast Conference in 1930, 1935 and 1940. Under Barry, USC won the Southern Division seven times and finished third in the 1940 NCAA tournament. In 1948, Barry led the USC baseball team to the NCAA title, and served as an assistant football coach. On the administrative side, Barry was a leading advocate of the 10-second rule and the elimination of the center jump after each basket.

BILL SHARMAN

(Inducted April 26, 1976 as player, April 5, 2004 as coach)

Bill Sharman, who brought a disciplined work ethic to basketball with a willingness to spend countless hours in the gymnasium perfecting his skills, was a 15-letter athlete at Porterville (Calif.) High before coming to USC. A four-year letterwinner at Troy (1947-50), Sharman was named All-America in 1950 and was a two-time All-Pacific Coast Conference selection and conference MVP. He's still 21st on USC's all-time scoring list (1,108). Sharman, known as "Bullseye Bill" for his marksmanship at the foul line, played briefly in the Brooklyn Dodger organization before his basketball career took off. Sharman spent 1951 with the NBA's Washington Capitals before they folded. He joined Boston a year later and became a Celtic mainstay. In 10 seasons with the Celtics, Sharman was named All-NBA First Team four times and played in eight All-Star Games, earning MVP honors in the 1955 tilt. Sharman teamed with Bob Cousy to form one of the NBA's most formidable backcourt duos, and the pair landed Boston four NBA championships (1957, 1959, 1960, 1961). He directed the Los Angeles Lakers to their first NBA title in 1972 and was awarded Coach of the Year honors. That season, the Lakers finished with an amazing 69-13 regular season record, including 33 straight victories, both NBA single-season records. By winning titles in the ABL (Cleveland Pipers, 1962), ABA (Utah Stars, 1971), and NBA (Los Angeles Lakers, 1972), Sharman became the first coach to win championships in three different pro leagues. Sharman joins John Wooden and Lenny Wilkens as the only members enshrined as a player and a coach.

ALEX HANNUM

(Inducted October 2, 1998)

A three-year letterman at USC in 1943, 1946-47, Hannum was a captain his final year with the team. Hannum, who had a knack for turning around beleaguered franchises during 16 professional coaching seasons (12 NBA, four ABA), was the first coach in professional basketball history to win an NBA and ABA Championship. He began his coaching career as a player/coach for the St. Louis Hawks during the 1956-57 season, reaching the NBA Finals. The next year, Hannum began his first season as a full-time head coach and guided St. Louis to the 1958 NBA Championship. He spent three years with the Syracuse Nationals (1960-63), posting a 48-32 record in his final year. Hannum then became coach of a San Francisco Warrior team that had finished fourth in the Western Division the previous year and led them to the NBA Finals. Under Hannum's guidance in San Francisco, Wilt Chamberlain altered his game from offense-oriented to defense-and-team-oriented, a trait that would later help him win an NBA title. Both Hannum and Chamberlain were reunited in Philadelphia in the 1966-67 season, winning the NBA championship with a then-record .840 winning percentage (68-13). Following his stint in Philadelphia, Hannum joined the ABA's Oakland Oaks, turning a last-place team into a title team in 1969. Hannum was named NBA Coach of the Year in 1964 and ABA Coach of the Year in 1969.

PAUL WESTPHAL

In his first year as a head coach in the NBA, Paul Westphal guided the 1992-93 Phoenix Suns to the league's best record and their first berth in a NBA Final since 1976. Westphal was also a member of that 1975-76 Suns team as a player. He was named head coach of the Seattle SuperSonics after the 1998 season. He is now the head coach at Pepperdine.

MACK CALVIN

Mack Calvin was an All-Conference performer at USC in 1969 and got his first NBA head coaching job with the Los Angeles Clippers.

ALEX HANNUM

After starring at USC and playing eight years in the NBA, Alex Hannum went on to coach five different NBA teams.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC is one of the top four private universities in the western half of the United States?

- USC, Caltech, Stanford and Rice are the only private universities west of Missouri boasting membership in the Association of American Universities, the premier teaching and research institutions of North America?
- USC is the oldest and largest private research university in the western half of the United States. The university was founded in 1880 with 53 students; today, USC enrolls about 32,000 students in its College of Letters, Arts and Sciences and 17 top-ranked professional schools.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC is among the nation's most highly selective universities?

- USC was named one of nine "hot schools" in the country by the 2001 Newsweek/Kaplan How to Get into College Guide, signifying USC's popularity among the nation's best high school students.
- USC was named Time/Princeton Review College Guide's "College of the Year 2000."
- USC was selected as the Association of American Colleges and Universities "Leadership Institution of 2001."

DID YOU KNOW...each year since 2000, USC honors more than 100 Renaissance Scholars – seniors who graduate with a major and a minor in widely separated fields of study – with as many as 20 receiving $10,000 prizes for graduate study?

DID YOU KNOW...in 2002, USC launched its "Teaching Has No Boundaries" award which honors exemplary teachers who enhance learning by taking the experience beyond the classroom walls?

DID YOU KNOW...that Nobel laureate George A. Olah helped pave the way for high-octane gasoline and a number of advances in our daily life?

- Professor Olah, who has been at USC for nearly three decades, has transformed the field of chemistry through his pioneering work with hydrocarbons, work which has led to less polluting gasoline, more effective oil refining and many modern drugs. For his research, Professor Olah received the 1994 Nobel Prize in chemistry.

DID YOU KNOW...that the Tomás Rivera Policy Institute – the nation's premier Latino think tank – joined USC in fall 2003?

DID YOU KNOW...USC's Zilkha Neurogenetic Institute – which opened in April 2003 – is working toward cures and therapeutic strategies to attack debilitating disorders, such as Alzheimer's, faced by millions worldwide?

DID YOU KNOW...since 1998, USC's Casden Institute for the Study of the Jewish Role in American Life has held seminars and hosted lectures that explore contemporary issues of Jewish life in the Western United States?

DID YOU KNOW...USC's Good Neighbors Campaign – made up of voluntary contributions from faculty and staff – has invested nearly $5 million since 1994 in neighborhood programs surrounding its University Park and Health Sciences campuses?

DID YOU KNOW...that USC has more international alumni than any other university in the United States?

DID YOU KNOW...that USC's recently completed fundraising campaign, "Building on Excellence," raised $2.85 billion, surpassing its goal of $2 billion, and is the most successful campaign in the history of higher education?

- During its fundraising campaign, USC received five school-naming gifts – for the USC Leventhal School of Accounting, the USC Marshall School of Business, the USC Rossier School of Education, the USC Thornton School of Music, and the Keck School of Medicine of USC. At the time they were pledged, they were the largest gifts to schools of their kind in the history of American higher education.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC is the only university in the nation to have received four nine-figure gifts?

- Those gifts: $120 million from Walter Annenberg (1993) to establish the USC Annenberg Center for Communication; $112.5 million from biomedical industry entrepreneur Alfred Mann (1998) to establish the Alfred E. Mann Institute for Biomedical Engineering; $110 million from the W.M. Keck Foundation (1999) to USC's medical school, the largest gift to a medical school in history; and $100 million from the Annenberg Foundation (2002).

DID YOU KNOW...that the USC Leonard Davis School of Gerontology, founded in 1975, was the nation's first school in this critical, emerging field?

- USC's Ethel Percy Andrus Gerontology Center is considered to be the nation's premier program for studies of aging?

DID YOU KNOW...that USC physicians serve more than one million patients each year through the Health Sciences Campus and 15 affiliated hospitals?

- Three USC-affiliated hospitals are ranked by U.S. News & World Report as among the Top 10 in the nation in their specialty: Childrens Hospital Los Angeles, Doheny Eye Institute, and Rancho Los Amigos National Rehabilitation Center. More than 130 doctors of USC are listed in the book, "The Best Doctors in America," published by Naifeh and Smith.
- USC is home to the USC/Norris Comprehensive Cancer Center, one of only 39 designated by the National Cancer Institute to lead the nation in cancer research, prevention and care.

DID YOU KNOW...that the Southern California Earthquake Center is based at USC?

- The SCEC was established by the federal government in 1991 to coordinate geological research relating to earthquakes.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC's Museum Studies Program is the only master's degree program of its kind in the western United States?

- Ninety-eight percent of the graduates from this program have been placed in professional museum careers.
- A three-year course of study leading to the Master of Arts in art history, the program is designed to meet the special training needs of students whose career goals are oriented toward professional work in art museums. A unique aspect of the program is that all students intern in a museum during their third year.

DID YOU KNOW...that the USC Viterbi School of Engineering is a leading force in robotics and multimedia research?

- The USC Center for Robotics and Embedded Systems constitutes the second largest robotics effort in the country, with more than 20 faculty members, 60 students and over 60 robots. USC research focuses on the frontiers in robotics, including control of robot teams, reconfigurable robots, humanoid robots, and nanorobots.
- USC's Integrated Media Systems Center is the only Engineering Research Center devoted to multimedia and the Internet to be funded by the National Science Foundation. It has demonstrated breakthrough technology for streaming high-definition digital video and multi-channel audio across the Internet.
- USC's Information Sciences Institute (ISI) is a birthplace of the Internet, and, more recently, grid computing, and is recognized as one of the world's leading research centers in the field of information technology. More than 300 researchers, graduate students and staff work on projects at the frontiers of computational science, including artificial intelligence, computer system design, computer security, and machine translation of human language.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC ranks among the top 10 private universities receiving federal funds for research and development and in the top 20 of all universities.

DID YOU KNOW...that the USC School of Architecture was the first architecture school in Southern California, and, until 1963, offered the only fully accredited degree program in the region?

- The USC School of Architecture has more regular faculty members who have been elected to the College of Fellows of the American Institute of Architects than any other school of architecture in the country.
- Three faculty members have been named Distinguished Professors of the Association of College Schools of Architecture.

DID YOU KNOW...that the USC School of Cinema-Television's top-ranked film and television program is the oldest film school in the nation?

- CNTV's Mark Jonathan Harris has won two Academy Awards for best documentary features; in 2001, for "Into the Arms of Strangers: Stories of the Kindertransport"; and in 1997, for "The Long-Way Home," a film about the aftermath of the Holocaust.
- Distinguished alumni include Ron Howard, George Lucas, John Singleton and Robert Zemeckis.

DID YOU KNOW...that USC's School of Fine Arts was the first fine arts school in the nation to offer a Master of Public Art Studies degree?

- The school's acclaimed faculty artists are represented at the Metropolitan Museum of Art, Museum of Modern Art in New York, Whitney Museum of American Art, Art Institute of Chicago, National Gallery of Art, Smithsonian Institution, Los Angeles County Museum of Art and Victoria and Albert Museum in London.
- Distinguished alumni include Oscar-winning art director Henry Bumstead, artist Robert Therrien and ceramacists Ken Price and the late Beatrice Wood.

DID YOU KNOW...that the USC Fisher Gallery is one of the few university museums accredited by the Association of American Museums?

- Established in 1939 by Elizabeth Holmes Fisher, the gallery houses her collection of Dutch and Flemish Old Master works and a fine collection of 19th-century American landscape paintings. In 1964, Armand Hammer made his first donation of Dutch and Flemish masterworks to the gallery.

DID YOU KNOW...that classical KUSC's 24-hour broadcast day features a wide range of programs of classical music and arts information?

- As a partner in the arts in Southern California, the station has been responsible for bringing performances by local orchestras and chamber groups to both local and national audiences.
- In 2003, National Public Radio struck a partnership with the Classical Public Radio Network – a creation of KUSC and Colorado Public Radio – to provide round-the-clock classical music to public radio stations across the country.
