USC FOOTBALL CONCLUDES 2010 SEASON AGAINST CROSSTOWN RIVAL UCLA IN ROSE BOWL

FACTS

USC (7-5 overall, 4-4 Pac-10) vs. UCLA (4-7 overall, 2-6 Pac-10), Saturday, Dec. 4, 7:30 p.m. PST, Rose Bowl, Pasadena, Calif.

THEMES

Although USC is ineligible for post-season play this year because of NCAA penalty, the Trojans still get to visit the Rose Bowl when they conclude their 2010 campaign there against UCLA. The Bruins' season also will end after this game, as they can't get enough wins to be bowl eligible. It's the 80th meeting between the crosstown rivals. The Pasadena stadium has been USC's home away from home (this will be Troy's 50th contest in the Rose Bowl). It's the first USC-UCLA game since 2000 when neither team is ranked (the Trojans have done well historically against unranked Bruin teams). USC has lost just once in the last 11 matchups against UCLA, including having captured the past 3 games. Besides pride and year-long city bragging rights, also at stake in the game are possession of the Victory Bell and points in the Crosstown Gauntlet standings. Both teams will don their home jerseys. This is just the seventh night game in the series (but the first one in Pasadena) and the second latest start time. It's also USC's school record 10th night game of 2010. There will be 2 sets of brothers on opposite sidelines. Both teams also feature players whose fathers and brothers once wore the opponent's colors (including TB Marc Tyler, USC's rushing leader, whose dad topped the Bruins in rushing 35 years ago), as well as coaches who coached at the "other" school. UCLA head coach Rick Neuheisel even earned his law degree at USC. A win over UCLA would give Lane Kiffin his eighth victory of 2010, the second most wins of any new USC head coach. USC, playing one of the nation's toughest schedules, lost a heartbreaker last Saturday to intersectional rival Notre Dame. QB Mitch Mustain filled in for injured QB Matt Barkley (his status against UCLA is uncertain), who ranks high on USC's career passing and total offense charts. Troy's top 2 receivers are also dangerous return specialists: Freshman All-American candidate WR Robert Woods, one of the nation's best all-purpose runners who owns USC season kickoff return marks in 2010, and WR Ronald Johnson, who is among USC's career Top 15 pass catchers. The USC defense has gotten stronger as the season has progressed. Top defenders include S T.J. McDonald (his status is questionable this week after getting injured against Notre Dame), DT Jurrell Casey, LBs Malcolm Smith and Chris Galippo and CB Shareece Wright. UCLA has lost 5 of its past 6 games (including at Arizona State last Friday). QB Richard Brehaut, coming off a record-setting performance, is filling in for injured starting QB Kevin Prince. He directs the Pistol offense which features TBs Johnathan Franklin (he is over 1,000 rush yards in 2010) and Derrick Coleman. Top Bruin receivers include WRs Taylor Embree, Nelson Rosario, Ricky Marvray and Randall Carroll. Among UCLA's defensive leaders: LBs Sean Westgate and Akeem Ayers (a Butkus Award finalist) and Ss Tony Dye and 2009 All-Pac-10 first teamer Rahim Moore. UCLA has 2 of the nation's premier specialists in PK Kai Forbath, the 2009 Groza Award winner who has 85 career field goal (equaling the school record and just 2 shy of the NCAA mark), and P Jeff Locke, who is seventh nationally in punting. The game will be shown live nationally on FSN cable.

RANKINGS

USC is not ranked by AP (the Trojans are not eligible to be ranked in the USA Today poll). UCLA is not ranked in either poll.

All games at the Los Angeles Coliseum, except Away games after 1981, which were played at the Rose Bowl, Pasadena, California

*2 wins later vacated due to NCAA penalty

SERIES

USC leads the series with crosstown rival UCLA, 44-28-7 (dating to 1929, a 76-0 Trojan win), although Troy's 2004 and 2005 victories were later vacated due to NCAA penalty. USC has won the last 3 meetings and 10 of the past 11. In games against UCLA in the Rose Bowl, the Trojans are 6-8.

Last year in the Coliseum, No. 24 USC beat crosstown rival UCLA, 28-7, behind a revived defensive effort that produced 4 takeaways and led to a pair of touchdowns. It was the Trojans' third straight win over the Bruins and 10th in 11 games. It was the fifth straight year that USC held UCLA to less than 20 points and third year in a row to just 7 points. The final score was the same as the 2008 game. It also was USC's 31st consecutive home night victory and came in Troy's 600th conference game. LB Malcolm Smith gave USC an early lead when he returned an interception 62 yards for a TD midway through the first quarter. Those were the only points in the game's opening half, making it the lowest USC-UCLA halftime score since the Trojans led by a similar margin in 1976. Then midway through the third quarter, after S Will Harris' interception, USC marched 29 yards for a TD on TB Allen Bradford's 1-yard run. UCLA got on the board with 5:41 to play on FB Chane Moline's 2-yard run. But USC countered with a 73-yard scoring drive, capped by Bradford's 1-yard TD run with 1:30 remaining. The Trojans got the ball back on downs 36 seconds later and QB Matt Barkley took a knee on first down, but UCLA called a timeout so USC responded with Barkley's 48-yard TD pass to WR Damian Williams. The game's statistics were fairly even, as both squads had 18 first downs while USC had 336 total yards to UCLA's 322 (the Bruins had 14 more plays than Troy's 60), but USC was penalized 12 times for 107 yards. S-CB Josh Pinkard came up with a pair of turnovers deep in USC territory (a fumble recovery and an interception), Smith made a USC season-best 15 tackles (the most by a Trojan since Troy Polamalu's 20 against Utah in 2001), including 1.5 for losses, to earn Walter Camp Football Foundation National Defensive Player of the Week honors and S Taylor Mays had 9 tackles. Bradford ran for a game-high 62 yards on 14 carries, TB Joe McKnight added 47 yards on 12 rushes, Barkley was 18-of-26 for 206 yards with a pick and both Williams (82 yards) and WR Ronald Johnson (48 yards) had 5 receptions. For UCLA, QB Kevin Prince was 10-of-22 for 90 yards with 2 interceptions and also ran 7 times for 34 yards before injuring his shoulder in the third quarter and being relieved by QB Kevin Craft, who was 8-of-17 for 98 yards with 1 interception in addition to gaining 40 yards on 9 carries. WR Nelson Rosario had 5 catches for 54 yards, Moline also had 5 grabs for 39 yards and WR Terrence Austin had 5 catches for 66 yards. The game's 7 p.m. start was the second latest in series history (only the 8:30 p.m. start in 1945 was later) and it was just the sixth night game in the series (the first since 1977). It was the first time since 1977 that the game was played on Thanksgiving weekend. Both teams wore their home jerseys.

In 2008 in the last meeting in the Rose Bowl, QB Mark Sanchez threw a pair of touchdown passes and the Trojan defense turned in another dominating performance as No. 5 USC beat crosstown rival UCLA, 28-7. The win, Troy's ninth in its last 10 meetings against the Bruins, gave USC outright claim to the Pac-10 title (its seventh straight) and propelled the Trojans into their 33rd Rose Bowl berth (their fourth in a row and fifth in the past 6 years). It also extended USC's NCAA record streaks of BCS bowl appearances and 11-win seasons to 7 consecutive. The Trojan defense limited the Bruins to 157 yards—UCLA's season low—including just 47 rushing, plus only 7 first downs, 50 plays, 23:26 possession time and 2-of-13 third down conversions. The Bruins went 3-and-out 7 times and punted 10 times. After USC fumbled away the ball on its first offensive play, UCLA used a trick play—a 21-yard throwback pass from WR Dominique Johnson to TB Kahlil Bell—to open the game's scoring. But it was all USC after that, as the Bruins only got into Trojan territory on 1 more drive. USC scored on its final 2 possessions of the first quarter, first on a 12-yard run by TB Joe McKnight and then on Sanchez's 12-yard pass to WR Damian Williams. Troy used a 16-play drive to add another score late in the half on TB Stafon Johnson's 2-yard run. USC scored again on the opening drive of the second half on Sanchez's 18-yard pass to WR Patrick Turner. Troy rolled up 478 total yards (including 209 rushing) and 33 first downs on 80 plays. Sanchez completed 18-of-33 passes for 269 yards, Turner caught 5 aerials for 81 yards and WR Ronald Johnson (57 yards) and TE Anthony McCoy (50 yards) each had 4 receptions. McKnight ran for 99 yards on 15 carries. LB Rey Maualuga and CB Josh Pinkard led USC with 5 tackles each, DE Gerald Washington blocked a punt and S Drew McAllister had an interception. For UCLA, QB Kevin Craft was 11-of-28 for 89 yards, WR Terrence Austin had 4 catches for 33 yards and Bell rushed for 39 yards on 15 tries.

USC IN ROSE BOWL STADIUM

USC is 31-18 in regular and post-season games it has played in the Rose Bowl, including 23-9 in the Rose Bowl game, 6-8 versus UCLA and 2-1 in the 1922 regular season. Incidentally, USC played the first-ever football game in the Rose Bowl, a 12-0 loss to California in 1922.

VERSUS PAC-10

USC has won 70.4% (414-166-29) of its games against Pac-10 opponents (9 wins were later vacated due to NCAA penalty).

IN DECEMBER

USC has a 40-24-7 (.613) all-time record while playing in the month of December (2 wins were later vacated due to NCAA penalty).

SEASON ENDERS

USC is 65-41-11 (.603) in all season finales (1 win was later vacated due to NCAA penalty)

HIGH RANKING

USC has been ranked in the AP Top 25 for 110 of its past 116 games. Troy has been in the AP Top 10 for 86 of its past 108 games, including a since-snapped school record of 62 consecutive games. The Trojans have been in the AP Top 5 in 62 of the last 104 games.

NIGHT GAMES

USC is playing a school record 10 night games (after 5 p.m.) in 2010. USC owns a 144-40-4 (.777) record at night, including 88-21-4 in the Coliseum, 41-14 on the road and 15-5 at neutral sites (5 of those wins were later vacated due to NCAA penalty, including 3 in the Coliseum and 2 at neutral sites).

TICKETS—Tickets for the USC-UCLA game, priced at $80, are available at the USC Ticket Office (213-740-GO SO) on campus or online at usctrojans.com.

USC ONLINE—USC's official athletic website is usctrojans.com.

PAC-10 ONLINE—The Pac-10's official website is pac-10.org.

PAC-10 COACHES TELECONFERENCE—Pac-10 football coaches are available for 10 minutes each on a media teleconference beginning at 10 a.m. (PST) every Tuesday (through Nov. 30) during the season. USC coach Lane Kiffin comes on at 10:40 a.m. (PST). Beginning at 3 p.m. (PST) each of those Tuesdays, a taped replay of the teleconference is available until the next call. Call the Pac-10 office (925-932-4411) or USC sports information office (213-740-8480) to obtain the media-only phone numbers for the Pac-10 Coaches Teleconference.

IT'S NOT SOUTHERN CAL—Note to the media: In editorial references to athletic teams of the University of Southern California, the following are preferred: USC, Southern California, So. California, Troy, Trojans and (for women's teams) Women of Troy. PLEASE do not use Southern Cal.

USC-UCLA AT NIGHT

With a 7:30 p.m. kickoff, this year's USC-UCLA game is the second latest start in the Trojan-Bruin series, behind only 1945's 8:30 p.m. kickoff. In fact, this will be only the seventh time in the series' 80 contests that a game has been played at night (5 p.m. or later): the 1970, 1972 and 1975 meetings started at 5 p.m., while the 1977 game was at 6 p.m. and last year was at 7 p.m. The first 6 USC-UCLA night games were played in the Coliseum. This is just the fourth time (along with 1970-72-2009) that the USC-UCLA will be on a Saturday night as the others were on Friday evening. USC has a 4-2 mark in night games against UCLA (with wins in 1945-72-77-2009).

HOME JERSEYS

After a 26-year hiatus, this will be the third consecutive year that both USC and UCLA will wear their home jerseys in the crosstown rivalry game. For the first time since 1982, both USC and UCLA wore their home jerseys in the 2008 game (a UCLA home game in the Rose Bowl). Per an NCAA football-playing rule (no longer in effect beginning in 2009), because the Trojans were not in their white road jerseys, they were charged with a timeout at the opening kickoff. UCLA responded by calling a timeout immediately after to even things up. The tradition of USC in its cardinal jerseys and UCLA in its blue jerseys, regardless of whose home game it was, went on from 1949 to 1951 and then 1957 through 1982 before an NCAA football rule change required the visiting team to wear white.

CONNECTIONS

Two USC players—S T.J. McDonald and S Marshall Jones—have brothers who are freshmen at UCLA (CB Tevin McDonald and TB Malcolm Jones)...USC offensive coordinator/running backs coach Kennedy Pola was a graduate assistant coach at UCLA in 1992 and 1993, working with the secondary and special teams...USC LB Michael Morgan's brother, Steve Morgan, was a defensive tackle at UCLA from 1999 to 2002...USC TB Marc Tyler's father, Wendell Tyler, was a running back at UCLA (1973-76) who led the Bruins in rushing in 1975 (they won the Rose Bowl that season), earned All-Conference first team honors in 1976 and is fifth on the school's career rushing list...USC S Shane Horton and DE Wes Horton are the sons of former UCLA offensive tackle Myke Horton, who lettered there 2 years (1973-74)...USC C Abe Markowitz's father, Barry, lettered as a linebacker at UCLA in 1974 and his great grandfather, Richard Love, played basketball and tennis at UCLA in the 1920s...UCLA C Kai Maiava is the brother of former USC LB Kaluka Maiava (2005-08)...UCLA CB Brandon Sermons is the brother of ex-USC TB-FB Rodney Sermons (1994-97)...UCLA head coach Rick Neuheisel earned his law degree at USC in 1990...UCLA offensive coordinator Norm Chow held the same position at USC from 2001 to 2004...UCLA running backs coach Wayne Moses was an assistant at USC in 2001...UCLA offensive line coach Bob Palcic was an assistant at USC in 1992...UCLA football intern Pete Dalis formerly was a defensive administrative assistant with the USC football program...USC men's and women's water polo head coach Jovan Vavic was a Bruin men's assistant in 1991...USC women's rowing head coach Zenon Babraj previously was the UCLA men's head coach (1987-91)...USC assistant track coach John Henry Johnson was a decathlete at UCLA in the late 1980s...USC assistant men's volleyball coach Jeff Nygaard was a 3-time (1993-95) All-American and 2-time National Player of the Year at UCLA...USC head trainer Russ Romano spent 1997 at UCLA...UCLA baseball coach John Savage was USC's pitching coach from 1996 to 2000...UCLA assistant athletic director for academic and student services Christina Rivera previously worked in USC's student athlete academic service department...UCLA assistant equipment manager Phil Hollenbaugh held a similar position at USC.

VICTORY BELL

The winner of the annual USC-UCLA football game gets year-long possession of the Victory Bell, a 295-pound bell off a freight locomotive. Originally given to UCLA in 1939 as a gift from the UCLA Alumni Association, several USC students took the bell in 1941 and hid it in a variety of locations for more than a year. A controversy ensued and school administrators had to intercede. In 1942, the bell resurfaced and, by agreement, became the trophy given to the game's winner. However, tradition calls for the Victory Bell to spend most of the year in storage...or, rather appropriately, in hiding.

CROSTOWN GAUNTLET

The winner of the USC-UCLA football game scores 10 points toward the Crosstown Gauntlet, a trophy awarded annually to the school with the most successful athletic year against the other. Points will be awarded to the winner of each Trojan-Bruin head-to-head contest and the Crosstown Gauntlet will be awarded to the school with the most points at year's end (57.5 points is the magic number). USC captured the inaugural trophy in 2001-02, UCLA won it in 2002-03, USC recaptured it in 2003-04, UCLA won it back in 2004-05, USC claimed it in 2005-06, UCLA was victorious in 2006-07 and, for the first time in the competition's history, a school won it in consecutive years when USC captured it in 2007-08 and 2008-09 (Troy then won it in 2009-10 for a third straight year). Currently, USC leads this season's Crosstown Gauntlet competition, 20-5.

SCHEDULE

USC faces a challenging 13-game regular-season schedule in 2010, getting the extra contest because it opened at Hawaii on Thursday night of Labor Day weekend. The Trojans played 3 of their first 4 games on the road and close the season the same way. On the slate are 7 teams that were in bowls last fall. After the Hawaii opener, USC—winner of its last 19 non-conference games—returned home to host Virginia and then traveled to Minnesota before it began Pac-10 play at Washington State. Troy then had 4 of its next 5 outings in the Coliseum: versus Washington and, after going to Stanford, hosting California, Oregon following a bye and Arizona State. USC closed at Arizona and Oregon State before coming home to play intersectional rival Notre Dame and finishing at the Rose Bowl against crosstown foe UCLA. USC's 2010 schedule is the nation's sixth most difficult in the current Sagarin rankings.

FUN FACT I

USC is 24-12-5 against unranked UCLA teams (1 win was later vacated due to NCAA penalty). USC is 11-6-4 against UCLA when neither team was ranked by AP. The wins were in 1937-40-43 twice-48-49-56-63-64-99-2000, the losses in 1950-57-61-70-83-96 and the ties in 1936-41-44-58.

FUN FACT II

USC is 6-2-2 against UCLA in December games (2 wins were later vacated due to NCAA penalty). Troy's wins came in 1937-45-2004-05-07-08, the losses were in 1942 and 2006 and the ties were in 1939 and 1941.

FUN FACT III

This is only the fifth time that USC has played UCLA immediately following the Notre Dame game. The other times were in 1937 (when Troy lost to the Irish and then beat the Bruins), 2004 (when USC swept its main rivals), 2006 (when the Trojans beat Notre Dame, then were upset by UCLA) and 2008 (when USC beat both teams).

FUN FACT IV

A win this week over UCLA would give Lane Kiffin his eighth victory of 2010. Only Howard Jones (11 wins in 1925) and John Robinson (11 in 1976) won more. Larry Smith in 1987 and Paul Hackett in 1998 also captured 8 wins in their debut seasons (Robinson had 8 wins in 1993 when he returned to USC as coach).

FUN FACT V

New USC head coaches are 4-5-1 in their first meeting against UCLA. The wins were by John McKay (1960), John Robinson (1976), Larry Smith (1987) and Pete Carroll (2001), the tie was by Sam Barry (1941) and the losses were by Jeff Cravath (1942), Jess Hill (1951), Don Clark (1957), Ted Tollner (1983) and Paul Hackett (1998). Not included was Robinson's loss in 1993 in his return to USC as its head coach.

FUN FACT VI

Although Lane Kiffin is in his first year as USC's head coach, this is his not first experience guiding a team against UCLA. His 2009 Tennessee squad lost to Rick Neuheisel's Bruins, 19-15, in Knoxville.

FUN FACT VII

USC and UCLA are among 4 NCAA FBS (formerly Division I-A) schools that have never played an FCS (formerly non-Division I-A) opponent since the divisions were established in 1978. The other schools are Washington and Notre Dame (both of those teams also were on the Trojans' schedule this season).

FUN FACT VIII

This Dec. 4 date is the earliest that USC's season has ended since 2000.

PRE-SEASON HONORS

C Kristofer O'Dowd (Playboy, Athlon, Phil Steele's), DT Jurrell Casey (Rivals.com), OT Tyrone Smith (Athlon) and FB Stanley Havili (Playboy, Consensus Draft Services) were named to various 2010 pre-season All-American first teams. LB Chris Galippo and OG Butch Lewis made some pre-season All-American second teams. Besides the above-mentioned players, WR Ronald Johnson and CB Shareece Wright were selected to various pre-season All-Pac-10 first teams.

SPECIAL TEAMS BIG PLAYS

Under the direction of new associate head coach/special teams coordinator John Baxter, USC spends significant time in practice on special teams...and it has paid off with some big plays by the special teams in 2010:

|------|--|
| HAW | Ronald Johnson 89-yard punt return TD |
| VIRG | Shareece Wright blocked field goal |
| MINN | Robert Woods 97-yard kickoff return TD |
| WSU | Wes Horton blocked punt, Tyron Smith blocked PAT |
| WASH | Robert Woods 56-yard kickoff return to set up a TD |
| CAL | Joe Houston pooch punt to 8-yard line |
| ORE | Ronald Johnson 55-yard punt return to set up a TD |
| ASU | Joe Houston game-winning 29-yard field goal, Tyron Smith blocked PAT, Torin Harris 2-point defensive PAT, T.J. McDonald blocked punt (and partially blocked another) and downed another punt at ASU 4, Mitch Mustain 2-point conversion pass to David Ausberry |
| ARIZ | Michael Reardon blocked field goal, Mitch Mustain 7-yard pass to Jordan Cameron for 1st down on fake field goal |
| OSU | Jordan Cameron first down run on fake punt |
| ND | Joe Houston 3 field goals |

LIMITED DEPTH

To illustrate USC's limited depth in 2010, the Trojans traveled just 56 scholarship players on their most recent road trip (to Oregon State), but 4 of them didn't suit up, 3 are redshirting and 3 others are former walk-ons. USC's current depth chart features a true freshman, a true sophomore and 2 redshirt sophs starting on offense (plus 1 true freshman, 3 redshirt frosh and a redshirt soph as backups), while the defensive starters include 1 true freshman, 3 true sophomores and a redshirt soph (plus 1 true freshman, 1 redshirt frosh and 3 redshirt sophs as backups).

LOOKING TO 2011

On USC's current 48-man 2-deep (including the punter and kicker), 29 players (13 offense, 16 defense, 0 kickers) are non-seniors, including 16 starters (8 offense, 8 defense, 0 kickers). That does not include a pair of potential 2-deepers who are injured (DT Christian Tupou and S Drew McAllister) and will return in 2011, nor does it consider possible early departures for the NFL. Here's the revamped 2011 USC schedule (subject to change) that those returnees will face as they begin the first year of Pac-12 play:

|------------------|--|
| Sept. 3 | Minnesota |
| Sept. 10 | Utah |
| Sept. 17 | Syracuse |
| Sept. 24 | at Arizona State |
| Oct. 1 | Arizona |
| Oct. 13 (Thurs.) | at California (AT&T Park, San Francisco) |
| Oct. 22 | at Notre Dame |
| Oct. 29 | Stanford |
| Nov. 5 | at Colorado |
| Nov. 12 | Washington |
| Nov. 19 | at Oregon |
| Nov. 26 | UCLA |

LAST GAME

RB Robert Hughes' 5-yard touchdown run with 2:23 to play gave Notre Dame a 20-16 win over USC before 85,417 fans on a cold, rainy night in the Coliseum and an ABC-TV national audience. It snapped USC's 8-game winning streak over the Irish, as well as Troy's 19-game non-conference victory streak (1 shy of the school record) and 15-game non-league home game winning string. It was USC's fewest points against ND since also getting 16 in 2001 (its last loss in the series). After PK Joe Houston hit his third field goal of the game (a 37-yarder with 6:25 left in the contest following S Marshall Jones' interception) to put USC up 16-13, the Irish drove 46 yards in 9 plays for the game-winning TD. USC threatened as it advanced to the ND 23-yard line, but QB Mitch Mustain's pass was intercepted at the 1-yard line by S Harrison Smith with 36 seconds remaining. Mustain, who was filling in for injured QB Matt Barkley, was 21-of-38 for 183 yards in his first Trojan start. USC also was without injured starting OT Tyron Smith and lost starting S T.J. McDonald to an injury early in the game. All of USC's points came on short drives following 4 Irish turnovers (but USC came away with just field goals after 3 of those turnovers). After LB Chris Gallipo's interception on ND's second series of the game, Houston nailed a career-long 45-yard field goal late in the opening quarter to open the game's scoring (it was USC's longest 3-pointer since David Buehler's 46-yarder against UCLA in 2007). The Irish then scored on a pair of 1-yard TD passes by QB Tommy Rees at the end of the first half, the first to WR Michael Floyd with 2:39 to go to culminate a 16-play, 79-yard drive and the second to WR Duval Kamara with 7 seconds on the clock to finish a 7-play, 62-yard drive (sending the Irish into intermission with a 13-3 lead). As a constant rain began at the end of halftime, USC tied it in the third quarter by first getting a 23-yard Houston field goal (after LB Devon Kennard's interception) early in the half and then a 1-yard TD sneak by Mustain late in the quarter (after DE Nick Perry's strip and fumble recovery). It was the first offensive touchdown that Notre Dame had allowed after 13 quarters and 227 plays. Besides not being able to take better advantage after turnovers, USC couldn't capitalize on an average starting field position on its 45-yard line (while Notre Dame's average start was just at its 19-yard line). The Trojans also managed just 261 total yards (74 rushing, its fewest since getting 61 against Penn State in 2008), had only 12 first downs (its fewest since getting 12 at Arizona State in 2009), converted just 4-of-17 third downs (ND was 5-of-15) and were penalized 8 times (to ND's 1). USC's total yards, rushing yards and first downs were its fewest against Notre Dame since 1983. The Irish had 296 total yards. WR Robert Woods had 166 all-purpose yards (9 receptions for 87 yards and 3 kickoff returns for 79 yards), WR Ronald Johnson had 6 catches for 40 yards, TE Rhett Ellison added 5 catches for 38 yards and TB Marc Tyler had 48 yards on 17 carries. LB Malcolm Smith had a game-best 12 tackles, while S Tony Burnett (a walk-on on the track and football teams) added 10 stops while subbing for McDonald. For Notre Dame, Rees, a true freshman in just his third start, was 20-of-32 for 149 yards, Floyd made 11 catches for 86 yards, RB Cierre Woods ran for 89 yards on 15 carries and Hughes had 69 yards on 11 rushes. It was the first time since 2001 (and only the ninth time ever) that both teams played while unranked. It also was the first time since 1941—and just the second time ever—that both USC (with Lane Kiffin) and Notre Dame (with Brian Kelly) featured new head coaches.

LANE KIFFIN

First-year USC head football coach Lane Kiffin is regarded as one of the game's brightest young coaches. At 35, he already has been a head coach at football's top levels, both professionally and collegiately. He is known for his high football IQ, as well as for being a vibrant leader and a master recruiter. The one-time Trojan offensive coordinator who then became the head coach of the Oakland Raiders and the Tennessee Volunteers returned to the USC program on Jan. 13, 2010, when he was named its head football coach. In 2010, he became the first USC head coach since Jess Hill in 1951 to begin his Trojan career with a 4-0 mark. Kiffin came back to Troy after guiding Tennessee to a 7-6 record in 2009 in his only season there. The Volunteers finished second in the Southeastern Conference Eastern Division at 4-4 and played in the Chick-Fil-A Bowl. Four of Tennessee's losses were by 10 points or less, including a 2-point road loss to eventual national champion Alabama and 10 points at then-No. 1 Florida. His Vols offense jumped at least 34 places in every national statistical category over its 2008 figures, while the defense was in the nation's Top 25 in pass and total defense. He was the youngest active head coach in the NCAA FBS ranks while at Tennessee. Before that, Kiffin was the head coach of the NFL's Raiders for 2 years (2007-08), where at age 31 he was the youngest head coach in the NFL's modern era. He was 5-15 with the Raiders (4-12 in 2007 and 1-3 in 2008). Kiffin spent 6 seasons (2001-2006) as an assistant at USC under Pete Carroll. He was the tight ends coach in 2001, then handled the wide receivers the next 5 years. He added the duty of passing game coordinator in 2004, then was promoted to offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator in 2005 and 2006. He coached a trio of All-American first team wide receivers at USC: Mike Williams (2003), Dwayne Jarrett (2005-06, USC's first 2-time All-American wideout) and Steve Smith (2006). Jarrett set the Pac-10 record for career touchdown catches (39) and the USC career mark for receptions (216). While the offensive coordinator in 2005, USC's offense was in the national Top 6 in every statistical category, including tops in total offense (579.8) and second in scoring offense (49.1), and set Pac-10 records for total offense yardage, first downs, points scored, touchdowns and PATs. The Trojans scored 50 points a school-record 7 times. USC became the first school to have a 3,000-yard passer, a pair of 1,000-yard runners and a 1,000-yard receiver in a season. In 2003, Williams set USC career (30) and season (16) touchdown reception records, while fellow wide receiver Keary Colbert set the school career reception record (207). In 2002, Williams and Colbert became USC's first pair of 1,000-yard receivers in a season and wide receiver Kareem Kelly became the Trojan career reception leader (204). Williams, Jarrett, Smith and Colbert all played in the NFL. Quarterback Matt Leinart won the Heisman Trophy in 2004 while Kiffin was the passing game coordinator and tailback Reggie Bush was the 2005 Heisman winner with Kiffin as the offensive coordinator. While serving as USC's recruiting coordinator, Troy's recruiting classes in 2005 and 2006 were ranked by some as No. 1 in the nation. He was named one of the nation's Top 25 recruiters by Rivals.com in 2005. Kiffin was a member of USC staffs that helped the Trojans win a pair of national championships (2003-04), post a 65-12 record (14 wins were later vacated due to NCAA penalty) and appear in a bowl game each of his 6 seasons: 2001 Las Vegas Bowl, 2003 Orange Bowl, 2004 Rose Bowl, 2005 Orange Bowl (BCS Championship Game), 2006 Rose Bowl (BCS Championship Game) and 2007 Rose Bowl. Before coming to USC, Kiffin was the defensive quality control coach for the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars in 2000 (he worked with the secondary). He began his coaching career at Fresno State, his alma mater, where for 2 seasons (1997-98) he worked with the quarterbacks, wide receivers and defensive backs as a student assistant. He then was an assistant at Colorado State in 1999, working with the offensive line. The Rams played in the Liberty Bowl that season. Kiffin was a quarterback at Fresno State for 3 seasons (1994-96). He prepped at Bloomington (Minn.) Jefferson High, where he played football, basketball and baseball.

OFFENSIVE OVERVIEW

Five starters returned on offense from 2009 for USC: quarterback Matt Barkley, fullback Stanley Havili, tackle Tyron Smith and 2 sets of co-starters (wide receiver Ronald Johnson and wide receiver-tight end David Ausberry along with center Kristofer O'Dowd and guard Butch Lewis). Others back with starting experience included tailbacks Allen Bradford and C.J. Gable, tight end Rhett Ellison, wide receivers Brice Butler and Brandon Carswell, guard Zack Heberer, tackle Matt Kalil and quarterback Mitch Mustain (whose starts came while at Arkansas). The Trojans returned their top passer from 2009, but had to re-stock elsewhere offensively after losing their leading rusher and receiver. Although 5 of USC's top 7 groundgainers were back, the 2 who are gone accounted for more than half of the team's 2009 rushing total of 2,168 yards. And while USC returned 9 of the 15 players who caught passes last year, missing are more than half of the team's 2009 reception total of 228. It is imperative that the Trojans improve upon last season's offensive output, as Troy was 64th nationally in scoring offense (26.5) and 55th in total offense (389.1)—both averages were USC's lowest since 2001—as well as 54th in passing offense (222.3) and 44th in rushing offense (166.8).

QUARTERBACKS

Last fall, sophomore Matt Barkley (221-of-351, 63.0%, 2,593 yds, 25 TD, 10 int in 2010, plus 2 rush TD) quickly earned his stripes when he became the first USC true freshman to start a season opener at quarterback. He had moments of brilliance (hitting nearly 79% of his passes against San Jose State in his debut, directing USC on a late game-winning drive at noisy Ohio State, throwing for 380 yards at Notre Dame and 350 yards in the Emerald Bowl) mixed with the expected struggles of a newcomer starting all year at the position. Last season's experience should propel Barkley to a big 2010...and beyond. He was the only freshman in the nation named a semifinalist for the 2009 Davey O'Brien Award. He was a semifinalist for the 2010 Davey O'Brien Award. He has had streaks of 119 and 72 consecutive passes without an interception in 2010. His 432 career completions rank him sixth on USC's career passing ladder. He has thrown at least 1 TD pass in 19 of his 23 career games (including 12 consecutive games at one point), at least

2 TDs 12 times (7 times in 2010) and at least 3 TDs 5 times (all in 2010, including twice with a school record-tying 5 TDs). He has thrown for at least 200 yards in 14 career games (4 times over 350 yards). His 5,277 career yards of total offense rank him seventh on USC's career chart. His 221 completions in 2010 is tied for 10th on the USC season list (more than his entire 2009 output) and his 2,580 yards of total offense is 14th on USC's season ladder. Senior Mitch Mustain (41-of-72, 56.9%, 348 yds, 1 TD, 1 int in 2010, plus 1 rush TD) is experienced and is coming off a nice showing in 2010 spring drills. Mustain has appeared at quarterback in 17 games in his 3 seasons as a backup at USC (throwing just 87 passes and starting just once). However, he started 8 games as a freshman at Arkansas in 2006 (passing for 894 yards and 10 touchdowns) and is more than capable to step in as Troy's signalcaller. Adding depth to the quarterback unit is a pair of untested walk-ons: sophomore John Manoogian and junior Brett Kan, who previously played at Princeton. Bolstering the group as a freshman is prep All-American Jesse Scroggins, plus 2 walk-ons in sophomore Emon Saeed and freshman Anthony Neyner.

—Barkley completed 78.3% of his passes (18-of-23) for 257 yards with a USC single game record-tying 5 TDs against Hawaii, while Mustain was 2-of-4 for 21 yards.

—Barkley hit 20-of-35 passes for 202 yards and 2 TDs against Virginia and he also had a career-long 20-yard scramble.

—Barkley was 17-of-26 for 192 yards and 2 TDs against Minnesota, but threw 2 interceptions (after beginning the 2010 season without a pick in his first 72 passes), while Mustain played the final series (but did not throw a pass).

—Barkley was 16-of-25 for 290 yards with 3 touchdowns at Washington State but threw 2 interceptions, while Mustain played the entire fourth quarter and hit 4-of-5 passes for 38 yards with a TD.

—Barkley hit 70% of his passes (14-of-20) for 186 yards against Washington, but had his streak of games with a TD pass snapped at 12.

—Barkley completed 28-of-45 passes for 390 yards (all career highs) with 3 TDs against Stanford and he also tied for the team lead in rushing with 33 yards on 5 carries (with a career-long 27-yard scramble).

—Barkley threw a USC single game record-tying 5 TDs (all in the first half, also tying a USC game record) against California and overall completed 25-of-37 passes for 352 yards as he earned College Football Performance Awards National Quarterback of the Week and Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week honors, while Mustain played the entire fourth quarter and was 5-of-7 for 39 yards.

—Barkley was 26-of-49 for 264 yards with a TD against Oregon (it was the most pass attempts by a Trojan since Carson Palmer's 50 against Washington State in 2002), but he was picked off twice (to snap a streak of 137 passes without an interception) and lost a fumble; he also scored on a 1-yard sneak.

—Barkley was 26-of-37 for 215 yards and 3 TDs against Arizona State, but threw 2 interceptions (1 was returned for a TD and the other was in the end zone).

—Barkley was 21-of-35 for 170 yards with a TD and an interception against Arizona (he was 15-of-20 for 124 yards in the first half) and also scored on a 1-yard sneak, while Mustain completed a 7-yard pass for a first down off a fake field goal to set up a USC TD.

—Barkley was 10-of-19 for 75 yards with an interception against Oregon State before being sidelined with an ankle sprain on USC's final play of the first half, so Mustain took over in the second half and went 8-of-17 for 60 yards.

—Against Notre Dame, Mustain got his first Trojan start (subbing for an injured Barkley) and completed 21-of-38 passes for 183 yards with an interception and he also scored on a 1-yard sneak.

TAILBACKS

USC lost a pair of quality tailbacks from last year's squad: 2009 rushing leader Joe McKnight, who declared for the NFL draft after his junior season (he was a fourth round pick), and 2008 rushing leader Stafon Johnson, who missed the final 9 games of 2009 after suffering a life-threatening throat injury in a weightlifting accident. McKnight, who is 14th on the school's career rushing list (2,213 yards), became USC's 26th 1,000-yard season rusher when he had 1,014 yards with 8 TDs in 2009 (he also caught 22 passes). A dangerous runner, receiver and returner, he had 14 career games with at least 100 all-purpose yards and averaged 6.5 yards per carry as a Trojan. Johnson, who had 157 yards and 5 touchdowns (including the late game-winner at Ohio State) in 2009 before getting hurt, totaled 1,552 career rushing yards with 19 TDs. His 705 rushing yards topped USC in 2008, when he also led Troy in punt returns. But plenty of top-notch runners remain in USC's tailback stable. Hard-running junior Marc Tyler (163 tcb, team-best 868 yds, 5.3 avg, 9 TD in 2010, plus 16 rec, 128 yds, 8.0 avg, 1 TD and 0-of-1 passing, 0 yds), who was hampered by injuries earlier in his career and is coming off a toe injury that curtailed most of his 2009 campaign, has started 8 games in 2010. Tyler has 3 100-yard games in his career (all in 2010). Bruising senior Allen Bradford (82 tcb, 582 yds, 7.1 avg, 4 TD in 2010, plus 2 rec, 27 yds, 13.5 avg), with 3 starts in 2010, was second on the Trojans in rushing last season with 668 yards and tied for the team lead in touchdowns with 8. He led USC in rushing 5 times in 2009, including a career-best 147 yards against Oregon State. Bradford has 3 100-yard games in his career, including 2 in 2010. He has had at least 1 run for 30 yards or more in 3 games in 2010. He is 36th on USC's career rushing list (1,371 yards). His 7.1 average per rush in 2010 is fifth highest among the nation's Top 100 rushers. Fellow senior C.J. Gable (51 tcb, 235 yds, 4.6 avg, 1 TD in 2010, plus 7 KOR, 186 yds, 26.6 avg and 8 tac) has 18 career starts (mostly in 2008 when he ran for 617 yards and 8 TDs) and 1,531 career rushing yards, 34th on USC's career rushing list. He also is sixth on USC's all-time kickoff return chart (1,196 yards, including a team-best 348 last fall). Sophomore Curtis McNeal got just a handful of carries last season, but proved difficult to tackle because of his compact style. He also shared time as a kick returner. He is sitting out 2010 while ineligible. Adding depth to the tailback corps as freshmen are a pair of prep All-Americans: Dillon Baxter (58 tcb, 252 yds, 4.3 avg, 1 TD in 2010, plus 11 rec, 73 yds, 6.6 avg and 1-of-1 passing, 4 yds), named the 2009 national high school player of the year by several outlets (he might also be used as a returner), and speedy D.J. Morgan, also a world-class hurdler who won the 110-meter high hurdles at the 2009 IAAF World Youth Championships. Baxter graduated from high school a semester early and enrolled at USC this past spring to get a head start on the competition (he had an impressive showing), while Morgan arrived this fall. Baxter has 1 start in 2010.

—Tyler rushed for a personal-best 154 yards on 17 carries (9.1 average) with a 44-yard TD against Hawaii in his first career start, while Bradford added 52 yards on 8 carries and Gable had 39 yards on 8 tries.

—Tyler led USC with 67 yards on 18 carries against Virginia and he also caught 2 passes for 18 yards, while Baxter saw his first action as a Trojan and ran for 49 yards on 9 carries (5.4 avg) plus caught 2 passes for 8 yards, Bradford gained 10 yards on 3 carries and Gable had a tackle.

—Bradford averaged 10.9 yards on his 10 carries as he ran for 131 yards (his second career 100-yard game) with a career-long 56-yard TD (the longest TD run by a Trojan since Reggie Bush's 76-yarder against Arkansas in 2005) against Minnesota, while Gable added 36 yards on 6 carries and had 2 tackles, Tyler had 33 yards on 9 tries with a short TD and Baxter had 24 yards on 7 rushes and caught 3 passes for 17 yards.

—Bradford had a game-high 84 yards on 7 carries (12.0 average) against Washington State, while Baxter added 75 yards on 14 carries, Tyler had 34 yards on 7 carries with a short TD and Gable had 12 yards on 7 rushes.

—Bradford had a career-best 223 yards on 21 carries (a 10.6 average per rush) against Washington, the most rushing yards by a Trojan since Reggie Bush had 260 against UCLA in 2005 (it was also the most rushing yards by a USC runner ever in a loss and was the first time a Trojan had 200 yards in a loss since Marcus Allen's 211 yards in 1981 against Arizona), with TD runs of 37 (on his first carry) and 16 yards, while Tyler added 60 yards on 14 carries (mostly out of the Wildcat formation) with 2 short touchdowns and he also had 2 receptions for 13 yards and Baxter had a carry for -1 yard.

—Bradford gained 33 yards on 13 carries and had a short TD against Stanford, while Baxter added 22 yards on 4 carries with an 8-yard touchdown run out of the Wildcat formation and Tyler had 11 yards on 3 carries, plus caught a 10-yard pass and just missed completing a long bomb out of the Wildcat formation.

—Tyler ran for a game-best 79 yards on 7 carries (with an 11-yard TD out of the Wildcat formation) and caught a 24-yard pass against California, while Gable had 72 yards on 13 rushes along with 2 kickoff returns for 56 yards and 4 tackles before leaving late in the game with a knee injury and Bradford had 27 yards on 9 carries.

—Tyler led USC with 69 rushing yards on 17 carries with 2 short TDs against Oregon and he also caught 3 passes for 16 yards, while Baxter had 14 yards on 2 carries and Bradford had 9 yards on 3 carries.

—Tyler had a game-best 119 yards on 12 carries (9.9 average) and also led USC with 5 receptions for 32 yards (with a 15-yard TD) against Arizona State, while Baxter added 52 yards on 17 carries along with 4 catches for 26 yards while making his first start and Bradford had a 2-yard run.

—Tyler had a career-high and game-leading 160 yards on 31 carries (the most rushes by a Trojan since Sultan McCullough had 39 against California in 2002) with a short TD against Arizona (he also had a 16-yard reception), while Baxter added 13 yards on 3 carries and had 2 receptions for 22 yards.

—Gable has 191 all-purpose yards off the bench against Oregon State (a team-best 57 on 10 carries, 130 on 5 kickoff returns and 4 on 2 receptions), while Tyler added 34 yards on 11 carries along with a catch for -1 yard before spraining his ankle in the second quarter and Bradford had 11 yards on 5 carries along with a 19-yard reception.

—Tyler had 48 yards on 17 carries against Notre Dame, Gable added 19 yards on 7 tries and Baxter had a 4-yard run and completed a 4-yard pass.

FULLBACKS

USC returned one of the nation's most effective fullbacks in senior Stanley Havili (26 tcb, 166 yds, 6.4 avg, 1 TD in 2010, plus 31 rec, 382 yds, 12.3 avg, 2 TD), who is skilled as a runner, receiver and blocker. The 4-year starter has caught more passes (115) than any fullback in Trojan annals to rank 16th on USC's career pass catching chart. Both of his scoring catches in 2009 came in the first half of the Emerald Bowl. Two walk-ons, redshirt freshman walk-on Hunter Simmons and first-year freshman K.C. Pola (the son of USC offensive coordinator/running backs coach Kennedy Pola), are battling to get into the fullback rotation.

—Havili had a 49-yard reception and a 7-yard run against Hawaii.

—Havili had 3 catches for 22 yards against Virginia.

—Havili had a 10-yard grab against Minnesota.

—Havili had 187 all-purpose yards against Washington State, including 80 on 4 carries (with a 59-yard TD on USC's first play, the longest TD run by a Trojan since Reggie Bush's 76-yarder against Arkansas in 2005) and 107 on 5 receptions (including a 58-yard pickup on USC's second play and then a 22-yard TD).

—Havili had 2 catches for 10 yards against Washington.

—Havili caught 2 passes for 22 yards against Stanford and had a 4-yard run.

—Havili had 5 receptions for 36 yards against California.

—Havili ran for 38 yards on a career-best 10 carries against Oregon and also caught 4 passes for 27 yards.

—Havili caught 3 passes for 43 yards (with a 22-yard TD) and ran for 12 yards on 4 carries against Arizona State.

—Havili had 21 yards on 3 carries along with a 13-yard catch against Arizona.

—Havili had 2 catches for 21 yards and a 2-yard rush against Oregon State.

—Havili had 2 receptions for 22 yards and 2 carries for 2 yards against Notre Dame.

WIDE RECEIVERS

USC lost only one key wide receiver from 2009, but it was a challenge to replace him. Damian Williams was a 2-year starter who is 12th on the Trojan career receptions list (128 catches). He won All-Pac-10 first team honors last fall as both a wide receiver (70 catches, 1,010 yards, 6 TDs) and punt returner (he was ninth nationally with a 14.2 average and had 2 scoring runbacks). His 12-catch, 189-yard outing against Boston College earned him the 2009 Emerald Bowl Offensive MVP trophy. He had 6 games with 100-plus all-purpose yards in 2009. He left USC after his junior year to enter the NFL, where he was a third round selection. Most of the remainder of last year's wideout crew is back, led by experienced senior Ronald Johnson (59 rec, 656 yds, 11.1 avg, 8 TD in 2010, plus 19 PR, 296 yds, 15.6 avg, 1 TD and 3 KOR, 57 yds, 19.0 avg and 5 tcb, 25 yds, 5.0 avg). Johnson is eighth nationally in punt returns (15.6, second in Pac-10). His 59 catches in 2010 is 18th on the USC season list. He missed the first part of last season with a shoulder injury, but returned with a bang for the second half as the starter and finished second on the Trojans in receptions (34, with 3 TDs) and kickoff returns (264 yards). His speed makes him a threat on deep balls (his 21 career touchdowns average 24.1 yards each) and also on both punt returns (in his first game handling that duty as a Trojan, he ran one back for a TD in 2010) and kickoff runbacks, where he ranks fifth on the Trojan career chart (1,321 yards). His 133 career receptions is 11th on USC's career list.

Competing to get into the playing mix are 3 other semi-seasoned receivers. Senior David Ausberry (20 rec, 252 yds, 12.6 avg, 4 TD in 2010, plus 2 tcb, 14 yds, 7.0 avg and 1 tac), USC's most physical wideout, was moved to tight end in 2010 spring drills and showed signs of making an impact there, but he is being used more at wide receiver in 2010. He started at wideout for the first half of last season before being sidelined with a leg injury. Sophomore Brice Butler (9 rec, 112 yds, 12.4 avg, 1 TD in 2010, plus 1 tac) and junior Brandon Carswell (16 rec, 205 rec, 12.8 avg, 1 TD in 2009) each posted starts in 2009. Then there is untested sophomore De'Von Flournoy. Five walk-ons who have yet to catch a pass fill out the wideout unit: juniors Nic Curry, Tim McGuigan and Kevin Noble and sophomores Robbie Boyer and James Wright. First-year freshman Kyle Prater, a prep All-American, graduated from high school a semester early and enrolled at USC this spring. He did well after being thrown into the pass catching competition right away, but is redshirting in 2010. Joining the wide receivers as a freshman was prep All-American Robert Woods (team-best 62 rec, 735 yds, 11.9 avg, 6 TD in 2010, plus 6 tcb, 50 yds, 8.3 avg and 37 KOR, 948 yds, 25.6 avg, 1 TD and 1 PR, 4 yds, 4.0 avg and 1 tac), who has won a starting job. Woods is the first USC true freshman since Dwayne Jarrett in 2004 to have consecutive 100-yard receiving games. His 62 catches in 2010 is tied for 14th on the USC season list. He ranks seventh on USC's career kickoff return list (948 yards). His 948 kickoff returns yards and 37 kickoff returns in 2010 are school season records. He currently is 21st nationally in all-purpose running (144.8, second in Pac-10). Junior Thearon Collier, who started 4 games the past 2 years at Miami (he had 44 receptions and 2 scoring punt returns in his Hurricane career), transferred to USC this fall, but he must sit out 2010 because of NCAA transfer rules.

—Johnson tied a USC single game record by catching 3 TDs (13, 3 and 1 yards) among his 7 overall receptions for 59 yards against Hawaii and he also returned 3 punts for 100 yards, with an 89-yard TD (the longest by a Trojan since Curtis Conway's school-record 96-yarder against Oregon in 1992), in his first game handling that duty at USC, while Woods became the first USC true freshman to start a season opener at wide receiver in the post-World War II era and had 4 catches for 46 yards along with 6 kickoff returns for 96 yards, Ausberry had 2 grabs for 55 yards (with a 46-yard TD in which he easily shed the defensive back), and Carswell (15 yards) and Butler (9 yards) each had 1 catch.

—Johnson had 5 catches for 58 yards against Virginia and returned 3 punts for 15 yards, Woods added 3 receptions for 64 yards and 2 kickoff returns for 35 yards, Carswell caught 2 passes for 14 yards, including an 11-yard touchdown, and Ausberry had a 2-yard catch.

—Woods caught a team-best 4 passes for 33 yards against Minnesota and had 2 kickoff returns for 122 yards (including a 97-yard scoring runback to jumpstart USC, the longest kick return by a Trojan since Chad Morton went 98 yards for a TD against Purdue in 1998 and the first scoring kickoff return by a USC freshman since Reggie Bush did so against UCLA in 2003), while Johnson had 3 grabs for 63 yards (with a 53-yard TD), Ausberry had an 21-yard TD catch and Butler caught a 4-yard pass.

—Johnson caught 5 passes for 69 yards (with a 7-yard TD) against Washington State, while Carswell added 3 catches for 63 yards, Woods had 2 catches for 32 yards (with an 11-yard TD) and returned a kickoff 11 yards and a punt 4 yards, Ausberry had an 11-yard reception, Butler caught a 7-yard touchdown and Markeith Ambles had a 3-yard grab.

—Johnson had 6 receptions for 109 yards (the first 100-yard game in his career) and 2 carries for 17 yards against Washington, while Ausberry added 3 catches for 40 yards and Woods had 6 kickoff returns for 163 yards (including a 56-yarder to set up a USC touchdown) and a tackle.

—Against Stanford, Woods had 12 catches (tied for fifth most in a game by a Trojan and 1 shy of the USC freshman game record) for 224 yards (the fifth highest game total by a Trojan, just 36 yards shy of the school record) with 3 touchdowns (including a 61-yarder) to tie the USC game record for TD catches as he earned College Football Performance Awards National Wide Receiver of the Week honors and he added 86 yards on 3 kickoff returns (and 0 yards on a rush) to total 310 all-purpose yards, while Johnson had 6 catches for 61 yards, Carswell added 2 catches for 24 yards and Butler had a 25-yard grab.

—Woods had 7 receptions for 116 yards and 2 TDs (16 and 9 yards) to become the first USC true freshman to have back-to-back 100-yard receiving games since Dwayne Jarrett did so in 2004, plus he had 2 runs for 25 yards and returned a kickoff 25 yards, against California, while Johnson also had 7 catches for 45 yards with 2 TDs (8 and 11 yards), returned 2 punts for 38 yards and had 1 carry for minus 1 yards, Ausberry caught 4 passes for 53 yards (with a 22-yard TD), Butler had 2 catches for 18 yards and Carswell had a 33-yard reception.

—Woods has 259 all-purpose yards against Oregon (200 on 8 kickoff returns and 59 on a USC-best 7 receptions), while Johnson added 159 all-purpose yards (94 on 4 punt returns, including a 55-yarder to set up a TD, and 65 on 4 catches) and both Carswell (30 yards) and Ausberry (26 yards) had 2 receptions.

—Against Arizona State, Johnson had 3 receptions for 17 yards, returned 3 kickoffs for 57 yards, returned 3 punts for 21 yards and had a 4-yard run, while Butler added 3 catches for 49 yards, Ausberry had 3 for 21 yards (with a 2-yard TD), Woods had 3 for 18 yards and Carswell had 2 for 9 yards.

—Woods had a game-best 8 receptions for 41 yards, returned 3 kickoffs for 64 yards and had a 5-yard run off a lateral against Arizona, while Johnson added 2 catches for 25 yards and had an 11-yard punt return, Ausberry had 2 receptions for 14 yards and Carswell had a 4-yard catch.

—Johnson had a team-best 5 catches for 45 yards (plus a punt return for -2 yards) against Oregon State, while Woods had 3 catches for 15 yards, 2 rushes for 20 yards and 2 kickoff returns for 68 yards, Carswell added 2 receptions for 13 yards and Ausberry had a 9-yard catch.

—Woods had 166 all-purpose yards (87 on a team-best 9 receptions and 79 on 3 kickoff returns) against Notre Dame, while Johnson added 6 catches for 40 yards and had a 4-yard punt return.

TIGHT ENDS

USC had to replace productive tight end Anthony McCoy, who caught 22 passes each of the past 2 seasons. He not only was a good blocker, but was a downfield receiving threat (he averaged 20.8 yards per catch in 2009). His 153 yards at Notre Dame last year established the school record for most receiving yards in a game by a tight end. He was a sixth round NFL pick. Juniors Rhett Ellison (19 rec, 218 yds, 11.5 avg, 2 TD in 2010, plus 3 tac), who has 18 career starts at tight end and fullback, and Blake Ayles (1 rec, 54 yds, 54.0 avg in 2010) are the only tight ends on the 2009 roster who came into 2010 with any appreciable playing time at the position. Senior Jordan Cameron (13 rec, 97 yds, 7.5 avg, 1 TD in 2010, plus 1 tcb, 6 yds, 6.0 avg), who has also played basketball at USC, was moved from wide receiver to tight end prior to 2010 spring drills and he is thriving there. Sophomore walk-on Eric Childs is also available. Depth arrived in the fall when a pair of heralded prep All-Americans enrolled as freshmen: Xavier Grimble and Randall Telfer.

—Ellison had 3 catches for 34 yards against Hawaii, including stretching out for a 6-yard TD, while Cameron had his first career catch (an 11-yarder).

—Cameron caught 2 passes for 16 yards against Virginia, including a 4-yard TD.

—Ellison had 3 receptions for 45 yards against Minnesota.

—Ellison had a 29-yard reception against Washington State and Cameron had a 7-yarder.

—Cameron had a 14-yard catch against Washington.

—Cameron had 4 catches for 24 yards against Stanford.

—Ayles caught a career-long 54-yard pass against California, while Ellison had a 4-yard grab.

—Ellison (26 yards) and Cameron (15 yards) each had 2 receptions against Oregon.

—Ellison had 3 receptions for 32 yards, including a 7-yard TD, against Arizona, while Cameron had 2 catches for 10 yards.

—Ellison had a 10-yard catch and a tackle against Oregon State, while Cameron had a 6-yard run on a fake punt for a first down.

—Ellison had 5 receptions for 38 yards against Notre Dame.

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

Three veteran USC offensive linemen from 2009 are gone: 3-year starting guard-center Jeff Byers, who was a 2009 All-Pac-10 first team choice, along with a pair of 2-year starters in 2009 All-American first team tackle Charles Brown and guard Alex Parsons. Brown was a NFL second rounder. But there are some gifted returning linemen with experience and some younger players with potential looking to make their mark. However, this 14-player unit is not particularly deep as offensive lines go. Three players returned from the 2009 starting lineup: a pair of seniors who have started for 2 previous years in center Kristofer O'Dowd and guard Butch Lewis, plus junior tackle Tyron Smith (1 rec, -1 yds, -1.0 avg in 2010, plus 2 BLK PAT). Also in the mix are 2 others who have started games at Troy: senior guard Zack Heberer (1 KOR, 5 yds, 5.0 avg in 2010, plus 1 tac), who has 5 career starts but none since 2008, and sophomore tackle Matt Kalil (he started the 2009 Emerald Bowl), now starting on the left side. They are joined by a group of players with little, if any, prior experience: soph guard Khaled Holmes, who has emerged as a starter on the right side, junior center Michael Reardon (1 BK FG in 2010), who has started 4 times at left guard in 2010, junior tackle Martin Coleman (injuries have hampered him throughout his career), sophomore center Abe Markowitz, a one-time walk-on who earned a scholarship in the fall of 2010 and who also is a thrower on the USC track team, and redshirt freshmen Kevin Graf at guard or tackle and John Martinez at guard. Then there are 2 walk-on freshmen: Nathan Guertler (a tackle) and Patrick Kim (a guard). Prep All-American center Giovanni DiPaolo came aboard in the fall as a freshman.

—Kalil, Lewis, O'Dowd, Holmes and Smith started against Hawaii, Virginia, Minnesota, Washington State, Washington, Stanford, California and Oregon.

—Kalil, Reardon, O'Dowd, Holmes and Smith started against Arizona State, Arizona and Oregon State.

—Kalil, Reardon, O'Dowd, Holmes and Lewis started against Notre Dame.

DEFENSIVE OVERVIEW

Starters returned at 6 defensive spots from 2009: linebackers Chris Galippo, Malcolm Smith and co-starters Devon Kennard and Michael Morgan, tackles Jurrell Casey and Christian Tupou and co-starting ends Wes Horton and Armond Armstead. Others back with starting experience were cornerback Sharece Wright, end Nick Perry, safety Drew McAllister and linebacker Shane Horton (although Tupou will redshirt this year with an injury). USC lost 5 of its top 10 tacklers from 2009 (including the No. 1 stopper) and its leaders in interceptions, deflections and forced fumbles, but the Trojans returned their leaders in tackles for losses and fumble recoveries and a co-leader in sacks. Troy was 16th nationally in pass efficiency defense (106.0), 17th in sacks (2.7), 20th in tackles for loss (7.0) and 22nd in scoring defense (19.9) last year. But USC's defense, which allowed 340.5 yards in total defense (128.2 rushing), was not up to its normal high standard, particularly for a 5-game stretch in the middle of 2009 when it surrendered an average of 455.6 total yards and 34.8 points per outing (including a USC opponent record 55 points by Stanford). So, cutting down on these figures has been a point of emphasis in 2010.

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

The Trojans are well-stocked on the defensive line, after losing only end Everson Griffen from the 2009 lineup. He left for the NFL, where he was chosen in the fourth round, after a junior season that saw him record 8 sacks (tied for most on USC) among his 45 tackles. Both starting tackles from last season returned: promising junior Jurrell Casey (65 tac, team-best 10 for loss, team-best 4.5 sack, 1 int, 1 FR, 1 dfl in 2010), who topped the Trojans in fumble recoveries (3), and dependable senior Christian Tupou, a 2-year starter. But Tupou is redshirting in 2010 after injuring his knee on the final day of 2010 spring practice. Pushing for playing time at tackle are a trio of players who saw backup action in 2009: senior Derek Simmons (8 tac, 1 for loss, 3 dfl in 2010), who is also working at end, and juniors DaJohn Harris (35 tac, 5.5 for loss, 3.5 sack, 1 int, 1 FF, 1 FR in 2010), who has won the starting job, and Hebron Fangupo (4 tac in 2010), who broke his ankle early last season after transferring in from a junior college. There are also 2 walk-on tackles: senior Tyler Grady, a thrower on the USC track team, and freshman Conrad Tavarez. Last year's co-starters at end are back in sophomore Wes Horton (28 tac, 5.5 for loss, 4 sack, 3 dfl, 1 FF, 1 BLK P in 2010, plus 1 PR, 24 yds, 24.0 avg) and his later-in-the-season successor, junior Armond Armstead (38 tac, 4.5 for loss, 1 sack, 1 FR in 2010), who notched starts at both tackle and end in 2009 when he returned from a pre-season broken foot. Also in the starting mix at end is soph Nick Perry (20 tac, 6 for loss, 4 sack, 2 dfl, team-high 2 FF, 1 FR in 2010), a 2009 Freshman All-American first teamer who was USC's sack co-leader last fall (he started once). Others looking for time at end are 2 redshirt freshmen who switched positions this spring, former linebacker Kevin Greene (2 tac in 2010) and ex-tight end/quarterback James Boyd. Three walk-ons—senior Jeff Serrano (he can also long snap) and juniors Zack Kusnir and Peter Yobo, a javelin thrower on the USC track team who can also play tight end—are also available at end. Entering the fray as freshmen were prep All-Americans George Uko at tackle and end Christian Thomas (6 tac in 2010), who originally was a tight end.

—Horton had 6 tackles against Hawaii, including 2 for losses (with a sack), while Casey added 4 stops (2 were sacks), Armstead had 3 tackles, Fangupo had 2, Greene and Thomas had 1 each and Simmons had a deflection.

—Casey had 10 tackles against Virginia, Horton added 4 tackles (including 1.5 for losses, with a sack), Harris had 4 tackles with a sack and Armstead (who played both tackle and end) and Perry each had a tackle.

—Casey had a team-best 9 tackles (0.5 for loss) against Minnesota, Armstead added 4 tackles (1.5 for loss), Harris had 3 stops, Horton had 2 tackles and Perry had 1.

—Horton had 3 tackles (with a sack) and a blocked punt against Washington State, while Harris and Perry each had 2 tackles (with a sack), Casey had 2 tackles (1 for a loss), Fangupo had 2 tackles, Simmons had a tackle for a loss and Greene and Thomas each had a tackle.

—Casey had 5 tackles against Washington, Armstead added 4 tackles (with a sack), Perry had 3 tackles and a deflection, Harris had 3 tackles (1.5 for loss) and Thomas had a tackle.

—Armstead had 3 tackles against Stanford, Casey had 2 tackles and recovered a fumble, Perry had 2 tackles (with a sack) and a forced fumble and Simmons and Thomas each had a tackle.

—Casey and Armstead each had 3 tackles (1 for a loss) against California, while Perry had 2 tackles (with a sack), Simmons had 2 tackles and 2 deflections and Harris intercepted a point-blank pass and returned it 9 yards to set up a USC TD.

—Armstead had 7 tackles (0.5 for a loss) and a fumble recovery against Oregon, Harris had 6 tackles (with a sack, in which he forced a fumble), Casey had 5 tackles and intercepted a pass tipped at the line of scrimmage, Horton had 4 tackles and a deflection and Perry had 3 tackles.

—Casey had 5 tackles (1 for a loss, with 0.5 sack) against Arizona State, Harris also had 5 tackles (0.5 sack), Horton had 4 tackles and a deflection, Perry had 3 tackles (2 for a loss) and Simmons and Thomas each had a tackle.

—Casey had 6 tackles, including 2 for losses (with a sack), against Arizona, while Simmons added 2 tackles, Harris had a tackle and recovered a fumble to set up a USC touchdown and Horton had a tackle.

—Casey had 8 tackles, including 2.5 for losses (with a sack), and a deflection against Oregon State, while Harris and Armstead each also had 8 tackles (Harris had 0.5 for a loss), Horton added 3 tackles (with 1 sack) and a forced fumble and Perry had 2 tackles.

—Casey had 6 tackles against Notre Dame, Armstead added 4 tackles (0.5 for loss), Harris had 3 stops, Perry had a sack, a deflection and forced a fumble that he recovered and returned 8 yards to set up a USC TD, Horton had a tackle and deflection and both Simmons and Thomas had 1 tackle.

LINEBACKERS

USC returned a slew of linebackers from 2009, including all of the starters. The unit, Troy's greenest a year ago, now has a season of quality experience to call upon. Senior Malcolm Smith (69 tac, 6.5 for loss, 1 sack, team-high 2 FF, 1 int for TD, 1 dfl in 2010) and junior Chris Galippo (28 tac, 2 for loss, 1 sack, 2 int, team-high 2 FF in 2010)—a 2009 Sophomore All-American first team honoree—were second and third on the Trojans in tackles last fall while starting on the weak side and in the middle, respectively. Senior Michael Morgan (56 tac, 3 for loss, 0.5 sack, 3 dfl, 1 FR, 1 FF in 2010, plus 1 KOR, -1 yds, -1.0 avg), who topped Troy in tackles for losses in 2009, started the first 9 contests last year on the strong side before precocious sophomore Devon Kennard (72 tac, 7 for loss, 2 sack, 1 int, 1 dfl in 2010) took over after switching from defensive end. Kennard is working at middle linebacker in 2010 and is the starter there. Battling this group for playing time are junior Shane Horton (27 tac, 6.5 for loss, 1 sack, 1 FF, 1 dfl in 2010), who started 3 times in 2009, and junior Ross Cumming (8 tac in 2010), who played often on special teams last year. Cumming is a one-time walk-on who earned a scholarship in the fall of 2010. There also are 2 redshirt freshmen in Marquis Simmons and Simione Vehikite, a converted fullback (he might double at fullback in 2010). A quartet of walk-ons—sops Augusto Alonso and Austin Rittenour and redshirt freshmen Will Andrew (2 tac in 2010) and Luke Freeman—are also available. Then there's prep All-American Hayes Pullard, a freshman.

—Smith had 6 tackles against Hawaii, Morgan added 4 tackles (1 for a loss) and a deflection, Kennard had 2 tackles (1 was a sack) and Galippo and Horton also had 2 stops each.

—Smith had 12 tackles against Virginia, Kennard added 7 tackles (0.5 for a loss) and Morgan had 5 stops.

—Smith and Kennard each had 4 tackles against Minnesota, Morgan had 3 stops and a fumble recovery and Galippo had 2 tackles (with a sack) and an interception.

—Kennard had a game-high 8 tackles against Washington State, Smith added 5 stops, Horton had 3 tackles (1 for a loss), Morgan had 3 tackles and Galippo had 2 tackles (1 for a loss).

—Kennard had 10 tackles (1 for a loss) against Washington, Smith added 8 tackles (2 for a loss), Morgan had 6 tackles (0.5 for loss) and Cumming had a tackle.

—Horton led USC with 10 tackles (2 for a loss) and had a forced fumble while coming off the bench early in the game against Stanford, Morgan and Kennard each had 7 tackles (Morgan also had a deflection), Galippo had 2 tackles and a forced fumble, Smith had a tackle for a loss before leaving with a knee injury and Cumming had a tackle.

—Against California, Galippo had 6 tackles while starting for the first time on the weak side, Kennard also had 6 tackles (1 for a loss) and had a deflection, Cumming and Andrew each had 2 tackles, Morgan had a tackle and Horton had a sack.

—Kennard had a game-high 13 tackles (1.5 for losses) against Oregon, while Horton added 11 stops (2.5 for losses) and a deflection off the bench, Morgan had 7 tackles and a deflection, Galippo had 3 stops and Cumming had 2.

—Smith had 7 tackles (with a sack), forced a fumble and returned an interception 74 yards for a TD against Arizona State to earn College Football Performance Awards National Defensive Player of the Week and National Linebacker of the Week honors, while Morgan had 4 tackles (0.5 sack), Kennard also had 4 tackles (0.5 for a loss) and Galippo and Cumming each had 1 tackle.

—Smith had 7 tackles (1.5 for losses) and forced a fumble that USC recovered to set up a field goal against Arizona, Morgan added 5 tackles (0.5 for loss) and a forced fumble and Galippo had 4 tackles.

—Kennard had 8 tackles, including 1.5 for a loss (with a sack), against Oregon State, Smith had 7 tackles, Morgan had 6 tackles (0.5 for a loss) and Cumming had 1 stop.

—Smith had a game-best 12 tackles (1 for a loss) against Notre Dame, Galippo had 6 tackles, a forced fumble and an interception (to set up a USC field goal), Morgan had 4 tackles and Kennard had 3 tackles and an interception (to set up a USC field goal).

DEFENSIVE BACKS

The entire USC secondary had to be replaced in 2010, as last year's 4 starters departed. Between them, they accounted for 645 tackles and 19 interceptions while starting 116 games during their careers. It was an impressive group, as evidenced by the fact that USC allowed a Pac-10 low 12 passing touchdowns in 2009 (including none in the first 5 games) and was 16th nationally in pass efficiency defense (106.0). Taylor Mays, a 3-time All-American first teamer while starting 4 years at free safety, posted 276 career tackles, including a team-high 96 in 2009. Cornerback Josh Pinkard was a 3-year starter with 167 career tackles, including 59 last season. Strong safety Will Harris led the 2009 Trojans in interceptions with 4 while notching 69 tackles and cornerback Kevin Thomas topped the team in deflections (11) while making 57 tackles. Mays was a second round NFL pick and Thomas went in the third round. The cupboard wasn't left completely bare, though. Cornerback Shareece Wright (67 tac, 7 for loss, 2.5 sack, team-high 10 dfl, team-high 2 FR, team-high 2 FF, 1 BLK FG in 2010), the only scholarship senior in this year's secondary, is a good one. He has 15 career starts, including in last year's Emerald Bowl after sitting out the 2009 regular season while academically ineligible. Others looking to earn significant time at cornerback are junior T.J. Bryant (3 tac in 2010) and sophomore Brian Baucham (19 tac, 1 dfl in 2010), who both spent time as USC's nickel back in 2009, plus redshirt freshman Torin Harris (13 tac, 1 FR, 1 dfl, 1 defensive PAT in 2010). Then there are 7 walk-on cornerbacks: senior Omari Crittenden, juniors Daniel Harper (8 tac in 2010), Allen Noble, James Harbin, Boomer Riepke, a former Trojan swimmer who can also punt, Taylor Ashton, who previously played at Arizona State, and William Rojas and sophomore Tony Burnett (20 tac, 0.5 for loss in 2010), also a jumper/sprinter on the USC track team. Taking over the safety jobs are promising sophomores T.J. McDonald (team-high 89 tac, 3 for loss, 1 sack, 4 dfl, team-high 3 int, 1 BLK P in 2010) at free safety and Jawanza Starling (37 tac, 1 int, 1 dfl in 2010), the strong safety who is also on the Trojan baseball team. Their backups are juniors Drew McAllister (1 tac in 2010), who started once last fall, and Marshall Jones (25 tac, 1.5 for loss, 3 dfl, 1 FF, 1 int in 2010), who missed most of 2009 with a neck injury while playing cornerback. McAllister is sidelined in 2010 with a hip injury. Two walk-ons, sophomore Cody Romness and freshman Greg Caruso, also are available at safety. Then there's freshman safety Patrick Hall, who enrolled this spring. He originally signed with USC in 2009 but did not qualify for admission. He is coming off a knee injury. Adding to the secondary ranks as freshmen were 3 cornerbacks—prep All-Americans Anthony Brown and Demetrius Wright (5 tac in 2010), plus Nickell Robey (44 tac, 1.5 for loss, 3 dfl, team-high 3 int with 1 TD in 2010), who has emerged as a starter—and prep All-American safety Dion Bailey. Wright can also play safety.

—Robey became the first USC true freshman to start a season opener at cornerback in the post-World War II era when he had 6 tackles and a deflection against Hawaii, while Starling added 5 tackles, McDonald had 4 stops with a deflection, Shareece Wright had 3 tackles and a deflection, Harris had 2 tackles, Baucham, McAllister and Burnett each had a tackle and Jones had a deflection.

—McDonald had a game-best 14 tackles with an interception (in the end zone) and a deflection against Virginia, while Shareece Wright had 8 stops (1 for a loss) with a blocked field goal and a deflection, Starling had 5 tackles, Robey had 2 tackles and 2 deflections and Jones had a tackle.

—McDonald had 7 tackles (with a sack) against Minnesota, Shareece Wright added 5 tackles (1 for a loss) and a deflection, Robey also had 5 tackles, Starling had 4 tackles and an interception, Baucham, Harris and Harper each had 2 stops, and Bryant and Burnett both had a tackle.

—McDonald had 6 tackles (1 for a loss) and an interception that he ran back 20 yards against Washington State. Shareece Wright had 4 tackles and a deflection, Robey had 3 tackles and 2 interceptions (including a 25-yard TD return and an 8-yarder to set up a USC TD) to become the first Trojan freshman to get 2 picks in a game since Mike Salmon did so in 1990 against Arizona State. Starling had 3 tackles and a deflection, Jones had 2 tackles (1 for a loss), Bryant, Baucham and Demetrius Wright each had 2 tackles and Harper and Harris each had 1 stop.

—McDonald had a game-best 11 tackles against Washington. Shareece Wright added 8 stops and forced a fumble (when he punched the ball out of a ballcarrier's hands and out of the end zone for a touchback as the runner was about to score on a 54-yard run), Starling had 7 tackles, Robey had 5 tackles, Baucham had 4 tackles and a deflection, Harper had 3 tackles and Burnett had 2 tackles.

—Shareece Wright had 5 tackles (1 for a loss) and a fumble recovery against Stanford. Starling also had 5 tackles, McDonald added 4 stops, Robey and Baucham each had 2 tackles, Harris had a tackle and recovered a fumble (to set up a USC TD) and Burnett had a tackle.

—Jones had 5 tackles off the bench against California. McDonald had 3 tackles and an interception (to set up a USC TD). Shareece Wright had 3 tackles, Robey, Starling, Baucham and Harper each had 2 stops and Demetrius Wright and Burnett each had a tackle.

—Shareece Wright had 7 tackles (0.5 for a loss) and a deflection against Oregon. McDonald had 6 tackles (1 for a loss) and a deflection, Starling had 5 tackles, Jones had 4 stops and a forced fumble, Robey had 2 tackles and Burnett had 1 tackle.

—Against Arizona State, McDonald had a game-high 13 tackles and blocked a punt (he also partially blocked another punt and downed a punt at the ASU 4-yard line). Shareece Wright had 6 tackles (1.5 sacks) and 2 deflections, Robey had 6 tackles (0.5 for a loss) and an interception, Harris had 3 tackles, a deflection and returned a blocked PAT for a defensive PAT, Jones had a tackle (0.5 for a loss) and 2 deflections and Starling, Baucham and Burnett each had a tackle.

—McDonald had a game-high 10 tackles against Arizona. Shareece Wright had 4 tackles (with a sack), a forced fumble that USC recovered to set up a TD and a fumble recovery to set up a USC field goal, Harris had 4 tackles, Robey had 3 tackles (including 1 for a loss), Jones added 3 tackles while starting at strong safety and Burnett had a tackle.

—McDonald had a team-best 10 tackles with a deflection against Oregon State. Shareece Wright added 7 tackles (1 for a loss) with a deflection, Robey and Jones each had 5 tackles, Baucham had 2 tackles and Burnett had 1 stop.

—Burnett played most of the Notre Dame game at free safety when McDonald was injured early in the contest and he had 10 tackles (0.5 for a loss), while Shareece Wright added 7 tackles and 2 deflections, Jones had 4 tackles with an interception (to set up a USC field goal) while starting, Robey and Baucham each had 3 tackles, Demetrius Wright had 2 stops and McDonald had a tackle.

SPECIAL TEAMS OVERVIEW

USC's punter (Jacob Harfman), short snapper (Chris Pousson) and top kickoff returners (C.J. Gable, Ronald Johnson and Curtis McNeal) from last year were back in 2010. But a new placekicker, holder and punt returner had to be found. The Trojans were good last year on both sides of the punt return battle, ranking ninth nationally in punt returns (13.6) and third in opponent punt return yardage (2.1), and they are hoping to continue in that fashion. But they need to improve the other areas of special teams, particularly in kickoff returns and opponent kickoff return yardage (their 18.9 and 24.6 averages, respectively, were in the bottom 10 in the nation).

SPECIALISTS

Senior Jacob Harfman (40.9 avg in 2010, plus 5 tac) took over the punting job from now-graduated walk-on Billy O'Malley after the third game of 2009 and he was consistent, if not spectacular. Nearly a third of his punts in 2009 (14 of 48) pinned foes within the 20-yard line and he had 5 that travelled at least 50 yards. In 2010, 17 of his 42 punts have pinned opponents within the 20 and 8 have measured at least 50 yards. The only other punters on the roster are untried junior walk-ons Boomer Roepke, also a cornerback, and Kyle Negrete, also a linebacker who punted the past 2 years at San Diego. Senior quarterback Mitch Mustain or senior placekicker Joe Houston (26.0 avg in 2010) could be used in an emergency. USC had to find a replacement for placekicker Jordan Congdon, who was deadly accurate inside the 40-yard line last fall (he was 11-of-12 from there). He hit 12-of-16 field goals overall and was perfect on his 41 PAT kicks in 2009 in his only season as USC's kicker. The choice was between senior Jacob Harfman, who handled the kickoffs and punts last year but missed his only field goal attempt (a 50-yarder at the end of the half against UCLA), and senior Joe Houston (39-of-39 PAT, 10-of-16 FG in 2010), whose only action last year was kicking the final point in USC's 56-3 season-opening win over San Jose State. Houston, a one-time walk-on who earned a scholarship in the fall of 2010, won the placekicking job while Harfman continues to kick off. Also available is freshman walk-on kicker Craig McMahon. As a kickoff man in 2009, Harfman kept opponents within the 20-yard line a third of the time (on 22 of his 67 kickoffs, including 11 touchbacks). In 2010, 31 of Harfman's 71 kickoffs have pinned foes within the 20, including 14 touchbacks.

Junior short snapper Chris Pousson (1 tac in 2010) is back after handling that job efficiently for the past 2 seasons. He has added the long snapping duty to his repertoire in 2010 now that 2-year long snapper Cooper Stephenson is gone. Sophomore quarterback John Manogian and senior defensive end Jeff Serrano, both walk-ons, also are available to snap. A new holder had to be found in 2010 after last year's holder (quarterback-wide receiver Garrett Green) and his backup (punter Billy O'Malley) graduated. Senior quarterback Mitch Mustain is doing the job, backed by sophomore walk-on wide receiver Robbie Boyer. USC appeared set on kickoff returns, as 3 players who had at least 13 runbacks last year were back: senior tailback C.J. Gable (7 KOR, 186 yds, 26.6 avg in 2010), senior wide receiver Ronald Johnson (3 KOR, 57 yds, 19.0 avg in 2010) and sophomore tailback Curtis McNeal. Johnson is fifth on USC's career kickoff return list (1,321 yards) and Gable is right behind him in sixth (1,196 yards). Gable and freshman wide receiver Robert Woods (37 KOR, 948 yds, 25.6 avg, 1 TD in 2010, plus 1 PR, 4 yds, 4.0 avg) are handling the kickoff return duties now, with Johnson, senior tailback Allen Bradford and senior fullback Stanley Havili also available. Woods ranks seventh on USC's career kickoff return list (948 yards). His 948 kickoff returns yards and 37 kickoff returns in 2010 are school season records. Wide receiver Damian Williams, one of college football's best punt returners in 2009, is gone. His 14.2 average ranked ninth nationally and his 2 scoring punt returns (66 yards at California and 63 yards versus Oregon State) were 1 shy of the USC season record. His backup, tailback Joe McKnight, is also off to the NFL (he had 32 career punt returns). So there was an open call for a new punt return man, with Johnson (19 PR, 296 yds, 15.6 avg, 1 TD in 2010) winning the job, and Woods (1 PR, 4 yds, 4.0 avg in 2010) and freshman cornerback Nickell Robey the backups. Johnson is eighth nationally in punt returns (15.6, second in Pac-10).

—Against Hawaii, Harfman averaged 44.0 yards on his 2 punts (including a 52-yarder that pinned the Warriors within the 20-yard line) and 6 of his 8 kickoffs pinned the Warriors within the 20 (with 4 touchbacks), while Houston hit all 3 of his PATs.

—Against Virginia, Harfman averaged 42.7 yards on 7 punts (with a pair of 52-yarders) while he twice pinned the Cavaliers within the 20 and 1 of his 4 kickoffs was a touchback, while Houston hit both of his PATs along with a 34-yard field goal (he also missed a 47-yarder).

—Against Minnesota, Harfman averaged 36.7 yards on his 3 punts (including 1 that pinned the Gophers within the 20-yard line) and 1 of his 6 kickoffs was a touchback, while Houston hit both of his PATs but missed a 48-yard field goal.

—Against Washington State, Houston hit all 6 of his PATs but missed a 39-yard field goal, while 6 of Harfman's 8 kickoffs pinned the Cougars within the 20-yard line (with 4 touchbacks).

—Against Washington, Harfman averaged 37.0 yards on 2 punts (including 1 that pinned the Huskies within the 20-yard line) and 1 of his 6 kickoffs pinned UW within the 20 (he also made 2 tackles), while Houston hit all 4 of his PATs and was 1-of-2 on field goals (he made a 27-yarder, while his 40-yard try bounced off the upright).

—Against Stanford, Houston hit all 5 of his PATs, while Harfman averaged 45.0 on his 2 punts (1 pinned the Cardinal within the 20) and 1 of his 6 kickoffs pinned the Cardinal within the 20.

—Against California, Houston hit a pair of 27-yard field goals, all 6 of his PATs and even had a 26-yard pooch punt down to the Cal 8-yard line to earn Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week honors, while 5 of Harfman's 9 kickoffs pinned the Bears within the 20 (with a touchback).

—Against Oregon, Houston hit a 32-yard field goal and all 3 of his PATs, while Harfman averaged 45.2 yards on his 5 punts (2 traveled at least 50 yards and 2 pinned the Ducks within the 20) and 2 of his 6 kickoffs pinned the Ducks within the 20 (with a touchback).

—Against Arizona State, Houston hit a game-winning 29-yard field goal with 3:06 to play (after missing 2 first half short kicks) and made all 3 of his PATs, while Harfman averaged 43.5 yards on his 6 punts (with 4 pinning the Sun Devils within the 20 and 2 traveling at least 50 yards) and 1 of his 6 kickoffs pinned ASU within the 20.

—Against Arizona, Harfman averaged 42.5 yards on his 2 punts (1 pinned the Wildcats within the 20) and all 5 of his kickoffs pinned the Wildcats within the 20 (with 2 touchbacks), while Houston hit a 30-yard field goal that proved to be the decisive points and all 3 of his PATs.

—Against Oregon State, Harfman averaged 38.0 yards on his 6 punts (with a 52-yarder) and kicked off twice, while Houston hit his only PAT.

—Against Notre Dame, Houston hit all 3 of his field goal attempts (45, 23 and 37 yards, with the 45-yarder the longest by a Trojan since David Buehler's 46-yarder against UCLA in 2007) and a PAT to earn College Football Performance Awards National Placekicker of the Week honors, while Harfman averaged 36.7 yards on his 7 punts (4 pinned the Irish within the 20) and 2 of his 5 kickoffs pinned ND within the 20.

NEW ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Pat Haden, a Rhodes Scholar quarterback at USC and with the Los Angeles Rams who then became a successful businessman and football broadcast analyst, assumed the athletic directorship at his alma mater on Aug. 3. He brought with him as a senior assistant athletic director for football his boyhood friend, one-time USC and NFL receiver J.K. McKay, the son of legendary USC coach John McKay.

DECIDED AT 0:00

For the first season in its history, USC in 2010 has lost a pair of games (back-to-back versus Washington and Stanford) when the opponent scored with 0:00 on the clock in regulation. Here's a look at Trojan regulation games that have been lost or tied at the gun:

| YEAR | OPPONENT | RESULT | HOW SCORED |
|------|------------|----------|------------|
| 1944 | UCLA | T, 13-13 | TD |
| 1975 | Stanford | L, 13-10 | FG |
| 1986 | Notre Dame | L, 38-37 | FG |
| 2000 | Stanford | L, 32-30 | TD |
| 2001 | Washington | L, 27-24 | FG |
| 2010 | Washington | L, 32-31 | FG |
| 2010 | Stanford | L, 37-35 | FG |

And here are the games that USC has won or tied by scoring as time expired in regulation:

| YEAR | OPPONENT | RESULT | HOW SCORED |
|------|-----------|----------|------------|
| 1969 | Stanford | W, 26-24 | FG |
| 1980 | Tennessee | W, 20-17 | FG |
| 1983 | Florida | T, 19-19 | TD* |
| 1986 | Baylor | W, 17-14 | FG |

*USC missed extra point

(In 1982, USC scored on the final play against UCLA, but failed on a 2-point try to lose, 20-19)

STATS OF NOTE

WINS

USC has won 84 of its last 98 games, 95 of its last 111, 96 of its last 113, 98 of its last 114 and 102 of its last 121 (14 wins later vacated due to NCAA penalty).

USC has won 51 of its past 58 home games (6 wins later vacated due to NCAA penalty), although 5 of those losses have come within the past 9 home contests.

USC has won its past 13 non-conference road games (not including 8 neutral site wins and 1 neutral site loss), a school record (5 wins later vacated due to NCAA penalty; revised streak: 8 games, not including 4 neutral site wins).

OFFENSE

USC's 6.0 yards per play in 2010 is seventh highest average since records were first kept in 1948.

USC has had 600-plus yards of total offense in a game twice in 2010 (613 at Washington State and 602 versus California).

USC is converting 84.3% (43-of-51, with 34 TDs and 9 field goals) of its chances in the red zone.

All 5 of USC's running backs who have carried the ball in 2010 are averaging at least 4.3 yards per carry, including 2 who are averaging at least 6.0.

USC has allowed just 17 sacks in 12 games in 2010.

SCORING

USC has had 7 touchdowns in 2010 of at least 50 yards (and 9 of 40-plus yards).

USC is outscoreing its opponents in each of the first 3 quarters of 2010, but has been outscored 111-58 in the fourth quarter.

USC has scored at least 20 points in 108 of its past 119 contests (including a since-broken NCAA record 63 consecutive games, a streak that was snapped in the 2006 UCLA game).

USC has scored at least 30 points in 73 of its last 108 games, including 7 consecutive games in one stretch in 2010.

USC has scored at least 40 points 48 times since the start of the 2001 season (including 18 times with at least 50 points).

Since trailing late in the third quarter at Oregon State in 2006, 33-10, USC has outscored its opponents by nearly double, 1,835-980.

USC has a knack for scoring 20 or more unanswered points in a game (4 times in 2010, 3 times in 2009, 11 times in 2008, 8 times in 2007, 5 times in 2006, 13 times in 2005, 12 times in 2004 and 11 times in both 2003 and 2002).

Since the start of the 2001 season, USC has nearly doubled the score of its opponents in the second half of games (2,144 to 1,104 points).

Since 2003, USC has scored touchdowns of 20-plus yards 169 times.

DEFENSE

The most recent season before this one that USC has allowed 500-plus yards of total offense in 3 games was in 1970 (also 3 times).

Opponents have scored on their final drives in 8 of USC's 12 games in 2010 (all but Washington State, Oregon and Notre Dame, which scored on their second-to-last possession, and Arizona State).

Of the 53 opponent scoring drives against USC in 2010, 23 have been at least 70 yards (with 11 at least 80 yards).

USC is allowing 403.8 total yards per game in 2010, the most allowed since records were first kept in 1955.

USC is allowing 262.0 passing yards per game in 2010, the third most allowed since records were first kept in 1955.

USC has intercepted a pass in 84 of the last 113 games.

USC has held 72 of its last 116 opposing teams to 100 rushing yards or less (4 times in 2010, 9 times in 2009, 10 times in 2008, 10 times in 2007, 6 times in 2006, 5 times in 2005, 8 times in 2004, 10 games in 2003 and 10 times in 2002).

Only 20 opposing runners have rushed for 100 yards against USC in the past 105 games (most recently, Oregon State's Jacquizz Rodgers in 2010 with 128).

 Since the start of the 2001 season, USC is 56-4 when holding opponents to less than 300 yards of total offense (the losses were against UCLA in 2006, Stanford in 2007, Washington in 2009 and Notre Dame in 2010).

MISCELLANEOUS

On special teams, USC is fifth nationally in punt returns (15.8, second in Pac-10) and 18th in kickoff returns (24.4, third in Pac-10).

The most recent season before this one that USC had a scored a touchdown on a punt return, kickoff return and interception return was 1998.

2010 is the first season that USC has suffered a pair of losses on the game's final play of regulation.

This is the first time that USC has suffered consecutive losses by a combined 3 points or less since 1958 (when it had 1-point losses to Michigan and North Carolina).

This is the first season ever that USC has had 5 games decided by 3 or less points and 6 games decided by 4 or less points.

USC's 3 losses by 4 points or less in 2010 are the most since 2001, when it lost 4 times like that.

USC has played before crowds of at least 85,000 in 40 of its past 93 games.

Twenty of USC's last 39 home games (including a since-ended streak of 14 in a row) have been played in front of 90,000-plus crowds.

ASSISTANT COACHES

As soon as he was hired, head coach Lane Kiffin immediately assembled an all-star coaching staff, including legendary former Trojan defensive line assistant/recruiting maven Ed Orgeron and defensive guru Monte Kiffin, who is Lane's father and was Pete Carroll's defensive mentor. Orgeron now is the defensive coordinator and defensive line coach in addition to serving as the recruiting coordinator, while the elder Kiffin has been appointed assistant head coach. Both men were on the younger Kiffin's staff at Tennessee. Also new to the staff are linebackers coach Joe Barry (a one-time Trojan linebacker who spent the past 10 years as an assistant in the NFL), offensive coordinator/running backs coach Kennedy Pola (a former USC player and assistant coach who was an NFL assistant the past 6 years), another pair of Tennessee assistants under Kiffin in offensive line coach James Cregg and secondary coach Willie Mack Garza, plus quarterbacks coach Clay Helton (who came from Memphis) and special teams coordinator John Baxter from Fresno State, who also is the associate head coach. Former Trojan greats and NFLers Keary Colbert (tight ends) and Sammy Knight (safeties) returned as graduate assistant coaches. They all joined holdover John Morton (passing game coordinator/wide receivers).

RANDOM NOTES

The USC football program is on probation until June 9, 2014 for NCAA violations involving agent and amateurism issues, lack of institutional control, impermissible inducements, extra benefits, exceeding coach staff limits and unethical conduct. The penalties include: public reprimand and censure; four years of probation through June 9, 2014; post-season ban for the 2010 and 2011 seasons; one-year show cause penalty (through June 9, 2011) for an assistant football coach; vacation of wins from December 2004 through the 2005 season; limit of 15 initial scholarships and 75 total scholarships for each of the 2011-12, 2012-13 and 2013-14 years; $5,000 fine; disassociation of a former football player; prohibit non-university personnel from traveling on team charters, attending practices and camps, and having access to sidelines and locker rooms. USC is appealing selected penalties.

USC's 2010 captains, as elected by their teammates during fall camp, are: QB Matt Barkley, FB Stanley Havili, LBs Malcolm Smith and Michael Morgan and CB Shareece Wright. Barkley is the first sophomore ever named a USC captain.

Former USC All-American fullback Sam "Bam" Cunningham, whose performance in USC's 1970 win at Alabama helped integrate Southern football and whose 4-touchdown outing in the 1973 Rose Bowl earned him Player of the Game honors, was named to the 14-member 2010 Football Bowl Subdivision Class of the College Football Hall of Fame. Cunningham will be inducted at a Dec. 7 dinner in New York City and then enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame in ceremonies in the summer of 2011 in South Bend, Ind. He is the 37th Trojan, including 29 players, in the College Football Hall of Fame. A Trojan has been elected into the Hall in 9 of the past 11 years. Cunningham, a 3-year (1970-72) letterman at USC, earned All-American honors in 1972 while captaining the Trojans to the national championship that season. He was Troy's Back of the Year that season. He rushed for 1,579 yards and 23 touchdowns in his career (including 13 TDs in 1972) and added 34 receptions for 293 yards and 2 scores. As a sophomore in 1970, his 135-yard, 2-TD debut performance in the Trojans' season-opening 42-21 victory over Alabama in Birmingham provided a catalyst for the integration of college football in the South. Cunningham's 4 short goal line dives against Ohio State in the 1973 Rose Bowl earned him game MVP honors and he was later inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1992. He played in the 1973 Hula Bowl, College All-Star Game and Coaches All-America Game. He was inducted into the USC Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001. Drafted 11th overall in the 1973 NFL Draft's first round by the New England, he played 9 seasons for the Patriots. He was named to the AFC Pro Bowl team in 1978. Cunningham currently works as a landscape contractor in Inglewood, Calif.

USC has only 73 scholarship players on its 2010 roster, well below the NCAA maximum of 85.

Six first-year freshmen have played for USC in 2010, including 3 who have started.

USC currently has 4 players who graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC in the spring. OT Martin Coleman enrolled in the spring of 2007, QB Matt Barkley enrolled in the spring of 2009 and both TB Dillon Baxter and WR Kyle Prater enrolled in the spring of 2010. Since 1999, 15 Trojans have graduated at least a semester early from high school and come to USC (including 1 who graduated a full year early).

Associate head coach/special teams coordinator John Baxter brought his innovative study-skills program, "Academic Gameplan," with him from Fresno State this year...and it immediately produced marked results with USC's football team. Following its implementation in the spring of 2010, the Trojan football team had more players record a 3.0 grade point average than in the past 11 years and the team's overall GPA was its highest in 14 semesters. A third of the USC team either posted a 3.0 GPA or had their highest-ever GPA. Baxter's highly-regarded program was similarly successful during his 13 years at Fresno State, producing 141 Academic All-WAC players and an NCAA APR score nearly 20 percentage points higher than the national average.

USC's roster features 2 Gatorade National High School Football Players of the Year: QBs Mitch Mustain (2005) and Matt Barkley (2007).

Who's the fastest among the 2010 Trojans? It might be WR Robert Woods (bests of 21.01 in the 200 and 46.17 in the 400), who at the 2010 California state was second in the 400 and third in the 200 (he also was third in the 400 in the 2009 state meet). Or perhaps TB D.J. Morgan (bests of 10.6 in the 100, 21.8 in the 200 and 13.28 in the 110-meter high hurdles), who won the 2009 California state high hurdles and was second in the 300-meter intermediate hurdles (he also won the highs at the 2009 IAAF World Youth Championships).

Speaking of track and field, several other Trojan footballers shined in high school at their state meets. CB Brian Baucham won the 300-meter intermediate hurdles title at the 2008 California state meet despite taking up the event in just the final 6 weeks of his senior season. TE Blake Ayles was second at the 2008 California state meet in the discus throw. C Abe Markowitz was second at the 2008 Hawaii state meet in the shot put and discus. OT Kevin Graf was third in the shot put at the 2009 California state meet.

Several USC football players have participated on other Trojan athletic teams. TE Jordan Cameron played forward on the men's basketball team in 2009, C Abe Markowitz was a thrower on the track squad in 2009 and 2010, CB-P Boomer Roepke swam for the Trojans in 2008 and 2009, CB Tony Burnett was a jumper on the 2010 track team, DE-TE Peter Yobo threw the javelin on the 2010 track squad and DT Tyler Grady was a discus thrower on the 2009 and 2010 track teams.

Two Trojans previously participated in rugby. OT Martin Coleman, who grew up on the Tongan island of Vavau, played rugby as a youngster. FB Hunter Simmons was a member of the 2008 USA Under-18 National Rugby Team that competed in England.

Two Trojans—LB Michael Morgan (public policy, management and planning) and PK Joe Houston (social sciences psychology)—already received their bachelor's degrees.

OG Martin Coleman had some of his sculpture pieces displayed at the 2008 and 2009 "Artletics" on-campus exhibits that featured the works of USC student-athletes, while some of QB Mitch Mustain's artwork was exhibited at the 2010 "Artletics" event.

In the summer of 2009, C Kristofer O'Dowd and some of his classmates in his USC Writing 340 class helped create an online summer school website for elementary school students in the Los Angeles Unified School District., where summer classes were eliminated for financial reasons. O'Dowd produced content for the language arts program for kindergartners through second graders on SOSClassroom.org.

C Abe Markowitz is a member of one of Samoa's royal families, the Aiga Sa Malietoa, and he was selected as a "Talking Chief" of the family. He also is a cousin of the King of Tonga.

Frankie Telfort, a 2009 USC freshman linebacker signee from Gulliver Prep in Miami, Fla., did not receive medical clearance because of a heart defect (hypertrophic cardiomyopathy), but he has remained with the Trojans as a student assistant coach.

In 2010, Athlon selected USC as the No. 2 "Most Attractive Coaching Job" in college football.

In 2009, USC was named "Team of the Decade" by both CBSSports.com and Football.com, as well as the "Program of the Decade" by SI.com, plus was No. 1 in CollegeFootballNews.com's "5-Year Program Rankings" and was ranked No. 2 in ESPN.com's "Prestige Rankings" among all schools since 1936 (behind Oklahoma).

USC's current coaching staff has a combined 57 years of experience coaching in the NFL. Monte Kiffin spent 26 years coaching in the NFL, followed by Joe Barry (10), John Morton (9), Kennedy Pola (6), Lane Kiffin (3), James Cregg (2) and Ed Orgeron (1). Between them, they have coached with 22 NFL playoff teams, including in 3 Super Bowls (2 Super Bowl winners). In all, the Trojan staff has 208 years of coaching experience at all levels. Collegiately, they have coached in 76 bowls or playoffs, including on 9 national championship teams. The staff also has 442 years of college playing experience and 22 years of pro playing experience.

Defensive coordinator/recruiting coordinator/defensive line coach Ed Orgeron broke his foot in practice early in the 2010 season, had surgery and was on crutches and/or a walking boot for the first three-fourths of the season while coaching in practice and during games.

Defensive coordinator/recruiting coordinator/defensive line coach Ed Orgeron played himself in the 2009 Oscar-nominated movie, "The Blind Side."

USCTrojans.com, USC's official athletics website, features live game broadcasts and stat trackers, replays of classic contests, exclusive behind-the-scenes video, a widely-read blog and original programming (including the popular football documentaries, "Project Trojan" and "Trojans 360") covering all 19 of USC's men's and women's sports. Nearly all of USC's home sporting events are shown live. Most home and road football, basketball and other sports' games that are aired live on commercial or cable television networks, and thereby protected contractually from live coverage elsewhere, are replayed upon their conclusion on USCTrojans.com. Also featured are daily post-practice reports and coverage of breaking news pertaining to Trojan athletics. All programming is archived for later viewing. USCTrojans.com also has an online athletic merchandise store and ticket office. USCTrojans.com also can be followed on Facebook (Facebook.com/pages/USC-Trojans-Official-Page/124984464200434) and Twitter (Twitter.com/USC_Athletics), with many of the videos also posted on YouTube (YouTube.com/USCAthletics). The USC Trojan Text Alert program allows fans to get real-time news about the Trojans (text "Trojans" to 51234). There is also an iPhone application for USCTrojans.com. Local AT&T U-verse customers can watch free on-demand videos from USCTrojans.com in the "College Football Extras" category.

The Trojan Marching Band and the USC Song Girls were named the nation's best by ESPN.com in 2009: "Nothing says 'glamour school' more than the ubiquitous presence of the USC Song Girls and the Trojans Marching Band...The Spirit of Troy brings one of the most stirring sounds in college football, while the USC Song Girls give Trojans games one of the sport's most indelible sights."

Eight Trojans have relatives who played on national championship USC football squads: CB Taylor Ashton (brother, Collin, was on the 2003 and 2004 teams), TE Rhett Ellison (father, Riki Gray Ellison, was on the 1978 team), OT Kevin Graf (father, Allan, was on the 1972 team), S Patrick Hall (cousin, Keary Colbert, was on the 2003 team), OG Khaled Holmes (brother, Alex, was on the 2003 and 2004 teams), OT Matt Kalil (brother, Ryan, was on the 2003 and 2004 teams), LB Marquis Simmons (brother, Melvin "Champ," was on the 2003 team) and LB Malcolm Smith (brother, 2006 All-American Steve Smith, was on the 2003 and 2004 teams). Also, head coach Lane Kiffin and assistant coach Ed Orgeron were USC assistant coaches on the 2003 and 2004 teams and assistant coach Kennedy Pola was a Trojan assistant on the 2003 team, while graduate assistant coach Keary Colbert played on the 2003 team.

KENNEDY POLA OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/RUNNING BACKS COACH

Kennedy Pola, a former USC player and assistant coach who spent the past 6 years as an NFL assistant, returned to USC as the offensive coordinator and running backs coach in July of 2010.

Pola, 46, who joined the Tennessee Titans as the running backs coach following the 2009 season, spent the past 5 season (2005-09) as the running backs coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars. While there, both Fred Taylor (2007) and Maurice Jones-Drew (2009) earned Pro Bowl honors and the Jaguars offense totaled the third most rushing yards in the NFL over that time, including 4 Top 10 rushing finishes. In 2009, Jones-Drew finished fourth in the NFL in rushing (1,391 yards), fourth in scrimmage yards (1,765) and second in total touchdowns scored (16). In 2008, Greg Jones became the highest paid fullback in NFL history. The Jaguars finished second in the AFC South Division and were in the AFC playoffs in 2005 and 2007, advancing to the AFC divisional playoffs in 2007.

He was the running backs coach for the Cleveland Browns in 2004.

Pola spent 4 years (2000-03) as an assistant at USC. He was the running backs coach in 2000, spent 2001 as the special teams coordinator, then returned to his running back coaching duties in 2002 and 2003 while also continuing as special teams coordinator.

In 2003, USC's 4 young tailbacks who saw action combined for 1,887 rushing yards (157.3 per game) and 20 rushing TDs (plus 4 receiving TDs and 1 kickoff return TD). Tailback LenDale White's 13 rushing touchdowns were a USC freshman season record. Tom Malone was named USC's first-ever All-American first team punter (he also made All-Pac-10 first team).

In 2002, USC 4 tailbacks combined for 1,897 rushing yards (2 were NFL draft picks: Justin Fargas in the third round and Malaefou MacKenzie in the seventh).

In 2001, cornerback Kevin Arbet won All-Pac-10 first team honors as a special teams player and placekicker David Davis led the Pac-10 in field goals (tied for 17th in the nation).

In 2000, tailback Sultan McCullough ran for 1,163 yards.

USC played in the 2001 Las Vegas Bowl, 2003 Orange Bowl and 2004 Rose Bowl. USC won the national championship in 2003.

Pola spent 1999 as the linebackers coach at San Diego State, working under former USC head coach Ted Tollner.

He coached the running backs at Colorado in 1997 and 1998. The 1998 Buffaloes won the Aloha Bowl.

Before that, he spent 3 years (1994 to 1996) as San Diego State's running backs coach, guiding a pair of 1,000-yard rushers (Wayne Pittman in 1994 and George Jones in 1995). Jones, who was 32 yards shy of 1,000 yards in 1996, won All-WAC first team honors in 1995 and played in the NFL with Pittsburgh and Jacksonville. Pola also worked with the Aztecs special teams in 1996 (punter Noel Prefontaine was an All-American first teamer, placekicker Peter Holt was runnerup for the Lou Groza Award given to the nation's top kicker and return specialist Leandrew Childs was an All-WAC first team pick).

Pola was a graduate assistant coach at UCLA in 1992 and 1993, working with the secondary and special teams. The 1993 Bruins played in the Rose Bowl.

He began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Crespi High in Encino, Calif., for 3 seasons (1986-88) and then Westlake High in Westlake Village (Calif.) for 3 years (1989-91). Crespi won the 1986 CIF Division I championship and he coached prep All-American running back Russell White, who starred at California.

Pola was a 4-year letterman (1982-85) at USC, playing both fullback and linebacker. He began his Trojan career as a backup linebacker, but was moved to fullback by midseason of his freshman year. He ended up starting there the last 2 games of 1982 against UCLA and Notre Dame, as well as most of the next 3 seasons. In his career, he ran for 681 yards (he also caught 23 passes and in 1983 threw a 65-yard scoring pass against Stanford). He helped USC to a victory over Ohio State in the 1985 Rose Bowl (he also played in the 1985 Aloha Bowl).

He earned his bachelor's degree in history from USC in 1987.

He attended Mater Dei High in Santa Ana, Calif., where he was a prep All-American in football (he also was on the basketball and track teams). He also served as the student body president.

His nephew, Troy Polamalu, was a 2-time (2001-02) All-American first team safety on the USC football team who now stars in the NFL with the Pittsburgh Steelers (he was Pittsburgh's first round pick). Kennedy's brother, Ao Polamalu, played football at Penn State (1985-87). Nephew Nicky Sualua played running back in the NFL with Dallas and Cincinnati after attending Ohio State, while 3 other nephews played college football: Leie Sualua was a defensive lineman at Oregon, Joe Polamalu was at Oregon State in 1987 and 1988 and Kaio Aumua played at UTEP.

Pola was born in Pago Pago, American Samoa, on Nov. 22, 1963, the same day President John F. Kennedy was assassinated (Pola was named in his honor).

He and his wife, Diane, have 3 sons: K.C. (Kennedy Christopher), 18, who is a freshman fullback at USC, Matthew Aoatoa, 17, and Raymond Trey, 12.

SAMMY KNIGHT SAFETIES ASSISTANT

Sammy Knight, who starred at safety for USC and in the NFL, begins his first year as a graduate assistant working with the safeties.

Knight, 35, lettered 4 years (1993-96) at safety and linebacker (rover) at USC, starting the last 3 seasons. He had 290 tackles and 5 interceptions in his career.

As a 1996 senior linebacker, he made the All-Pac-10 first team while leading USC in tackles (121), interceptions (5, including 1 for a touchdown) and fumble recoveries (3), and he also had 11 tackles for a loss, 9 deflections and a forced fumble. He was named USC's MVP and Most Inspirational Player and was a team captain in 1996. He added a team-best 89 tackles (9 for losses), plus 7 deflections, 4 forced fumbles and a blocked punt as a junior strong safety in 1995 when he won USC's Bob Chandler Award and Jack Oakie "Rise and Shine" Award. He made the All-Pac-10 second team in 1995. He had 65 tackles, 3 deflections, 2 fumble recoveries and a blocked field goal as a 1994 sophomore strong safety while making All-Pac-10 honorable mention. As a first-year freshman in 1993, he saw action as a reserve safety in all 13 games, getting 15 tackles, 1 deflection, 1 fumble recovery and 1 forced fumble, and even started at free safety against Oregon State to become the first USC true freshman to start at safety in the post-World War II era.

He then spent 12 years as a strong safety in the NFL with the New Orleans Saints (1997-2002), Miami Dolphins (2003-04), Kansas City Chiefs (2005-06), Jacksonville Jaguars (2007) and New York Giants (2008). He played in the 2002 Pro Bowl. In his career, he had 42 interceptions (4 for touchdowns), 671 tackles, 38 deflections, 13 fumble recoveries and 12 forced fumbles. He started 168 of the 183 regular season games he played (he also appeared in 5 playoff games).

He was a prep All-American at Rubidoux (Calif.) High, where he also was on the basketball and track teams.

He received his bachelor's degree in communication from USC in 1998. He is working on his master's degree in communication management.

He spent 2009 as an analyst on Compass Media Networks' college and pro football radio broadcasts.

He has 3 brothers who played college football: Ryan was a record-setting prep All-American running back (rushing for 501 yards in a game) who then lettered 4 years (1984-87) at tailback for USC and led the Trojans in rushing in 1985 and 1986 (he is 20th on USC's career rushing list with 1,875 yards), Greg played defensive line at Colorado (1986) and Darryl lettered 3 years (1998-2000) at linebacker at USC. His father, Sam Sr., played on a California state championship basketball team at Riverside (Calif.) Community College in the early 1960s that was coached by Jerry Tarkanian.

He was born Sept. 10, 1975. He is married and his wife's name is Freda. He has 4 daughters: Aneka, 20, Shianne, 8, Samone, 6, and Savannah, 3.

PAT HADEN ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Pat Haden, a Rhodes Scholar quarterback who played on 2 national championship teams at USC and a Super Bowl squad with the Los Angeles Rams before becoming a successful businessman and football broadcaster, assumed the athletic directorship at his alma mater on Aug. 3, 2010.

The 57-year-old Haden will oversee 19 men's and women's teams and the $74 million budget that make up the nation's most tradition-rich athletic program.

Along with his athletic director position, he received a joint faculty appointment in the USC Marshall School of Business and USC Annenberg School for Communication and Journalism. He works with faculty to design new curricula in areas such as sports business and sports journalism, and lectures and teaches courses.

From 1987 to 2010, Haden was a partner and managing director of Riordan, Lewis & Haden, a Los Angeles private equity firm that invests in high-growth middle market companies. His partners were former Los Angeles mayor Richard Riordan and Chris Lewis, an All-American tennis player on a pair of USC's NCAA championship teams.

From 1982 to 1987, Haden was an attorney in the Los Angeles office of Lillick, McHose & Charles.

He also was an analyst on college and pro football telecasts for CBS (1982-90), TNT (1990-97), NBC (1998-2009, where he did Notre Dame games) and FOX (2008) and on radio with CBS and Westwood One.

He served on USC's Board of Trustees from 1991 until 2010 and chaired the board's Academic Affairs and Student Affairs committees. He was a key adviser to a pair of USC provosts, working closely with them on all aspects of the university's teaching and research mission. He also chaired the fundraising initiative of USC's College of Letters, Arts and Sciences. He served on the USC Alumni Association Board of Governors from 1984 to 1988.

He has served on numerous corporate and non-profit boards, including Systems Management Specialists, Data Processing Resources Corporation, Adohr Farms, Tetra Tech, The Apothecary Shops, Rose Hills Foundation, Fletcher Jones Foundation, Good Samaritan Hospital, Boys Town of Southern California, Multiple Sclerosis Society of Los Angeles and Crippled Children's Society of Los Angeles. He formerly chaired the March of Dimes Reading Olympics in Los Angeles and the Boys Life National Illiteracy Campaign.

Haden exemplified the term "student-athlete" while at USC. Not only was he one of Troy's most productive quarterbacks, but he starred in the classroom.

A 3-time letterman (1972-73-74), he led the Trojans in passing in 1973 and 1974 (and in total offense in 1973). He was a member of USC's 1972 and 1974 national championship teams and played in 3 Rose Bowls. He was Co-MVP of the 1975 Rose Bowl (with lifelong friend J.K. McKay, the son of head coach John McKay) when he threw for 181 yards and 2 scores, including a TD pass (to McKay) and a PAT pass late in the game, for a comeback 18-17 win over Ohio State. A Trojan co-captain in 1974, he was named the team's MVP and Most Inspirational Player that season and was selected to play in the 1975 Hula Bowl. He helped orchestrate one of the greatest comebacks in college football history, throwing 4 touchdowns to lead USC to a 55-24 win over Notre Dame in 1974 after trailing 24-0 late in the first half. He still ranks 13th on USC's career passing list (241 completions) and is 14th in total offense (3,802 yards). He threw for 3,288 yards and 33 TDs in his career.

He was a 2-time Academic All-American (1973-74) and was named a NCAA Post-Graduate Scholar, NCAA Today's Top Five Award winner and National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete in 1974.

Haden graduated from USC magna cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa in 1975 with a bachelor's degree in English and was awarded a Rhodes scholarship to Oxford, where he received a bachelor's degree in philosophy, politics and economics in 1978. He received a law degree from Loyola Law School in 1982.

A seventh round pick of the Los Angeles Rams in the 1975 NFL draft, he played for the Southern California Sun of the World Football League in 1975 and then the Rams for 6 seasons (1976-81) while also attending Oxford. He led the Rams to 3 NFC West Division titles (1976-77-78) and the team advanced to the NFC Championship Game in 1976 and 1978. He began 1979 as the starter, but was sidelined with a broken finger midway through the season as the Rams made it to the Super Bowl. He was the Rams' Rookie of the Year in 1976, made the Pro Bowl in 1977 and was named the NFC Player of the Year in 1978 by the Washington D.C. Touchdown Club. In his career, he completed 731-of-1,363 passes (53.6%) for 9,296 yards and 52 touchdowns.

He starred in football at Bishop Amat High in La Puente (Calif.), where he lived with the McKay family during his senior year because his family moved out of state. He was inducted into the USC Athletic Hall of Fame in 2003, the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1995, the National High School Hall of Fame in 1995 and the Academic All-American Hall of Fame in the 1988 inaugural class. He received an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award in 2000.

He was born on Jan. 23, 1953. He and his wife of 34 years, Cindy, have 2 daughters, Natalie O'Connor, 31, and Kelly Paulus, 30 (she played soccer at Georgetown and her husband, David, played football and basketball there), and 2 sons, Ryan, 29 (he played football briefly at USC), and Taylor, 27, as well as 5 grandsons.

J.K. MCKAY SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR FOR FOOTBALL

John "J.K." McKay, a former standout USC wide receiver whose name is synonymous with Trojan football greatness and who subsequently developed a legal and business background well-suited for running sports organizations, became a senior associate athletic director for football at USC in August of 2010.

The 57-year-old McKay has been a practicing attorney since 1982. In 1986, he joined the law firm of Allen, Matkins, Leck, Gamble, Mallory as an associate and became a partner in 1990, specializing in real estate litigation. He represented the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in negotiating the potential relocation of the franchise and consulted in the financing and construction of the team's new stadium in Tampa.

He then worked in 1997 with a group from Hollywood Park trying to bring an NFL team to Los Angeles.

In 1998, he was executive director of football operations for Majestic Realty Co./New Coliseum Partners, a group headed by Ed Roski to bring a football franchise to Los Angeles. He worked with senior NFL executives assessing criteria for a Los Angeles team. He was responsible for negotiating the renovation of the Los Angeles Coliseum and for the acquisition of an expansion NFL franchise.

In 2000-01, McKay was vice president and general manager for the Los Angeles Xtreme of the now-defunct XFL.

Most recently, he was a lawyer at Jeffer Mangels Butler & Marmaro in Los Angeles.

After starring at Bishop Amat High in La Puente (Calif.), where he paired with lifelong friend and future Trojan teammate Pat Haden (now USC's athletic director), McKay lettered 3 years (1972-74) at wide receiver at USC while playing for his father, head coach John McKay. The younger McKay was a member of USC's 1972 and 1974 national championship teams and played in 3 Rose Bowls. He led USC in receiving as a senior in 1974 (34 catches for 550 yards and 8 TDs). He was Co-MVP of the 1975 Rose Bowl (with Haden) when he caught a 38-yard TD pass (from Haden) late in the game to help the Trojans to a comeback 18-17 win over Ohio State. He was selected to play in the 1975 Hula Bowl and Senior Bowl. He still ranks 23rd on USC's career receiving list with 88 catches for 1,326 yards and 18 touchdowns. He was inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1998.

He received his bachelor's degree from USC in 1975 in political science.

A 16th round pick by the Cleveland Browns in the 1975 NFL draft, he played with the Southern California Sun of the World Football League in 1975. He then served briefly as an assistant coach at Oregon State in 1976 before spending 3 seasons (1976-78) playing wide receiver for his father at the Buccaneers.

While playing pro football, McKay attended Stetson College of Law and earned his law degree there in 1982. During law school and after his NFL playing career, he was an assistant to the Buccaneers' president, general manager and head coach.

McKay's father, John, won 4 national championships, 5 Rose Bowls and 9 conference titles while winning 75% of his games (127-40-8) as USC's football coach from 1960 to 1975. A member of the College Football and USC Athletic Halls of Fame, he was twice National Coach of the Year (1962, 1972). He also served as Troy's athletic director for 4 years (1972-75). He then became the Buccaneers' first-ever head coach, serving for 9 seasons (1976-84).

His brother, Rich, has been the president of the Atlanta Falcons since 2004 (he also served as the team's general manager from 2004 to 2007). He was the general manager of the Buccaneers from 1995 to 2003.

McKay was born on March 28, 1953. His wife's name is Kim. He has 3 children: sons Jeff, 31, and Haden, 4, and daughter Kiley, 10.
