

Camp Information

"We are very excited about our fourth year of basketball camps at the University of Wyoming. Our camps will be some of the best camps in the west. If you want to improve as a player, these are the camps for you.

Steve McClain
Head Basketball Coach
University of Wyoming

Each Camper Receives

- 🏆 Camp T-Shirt
- 🏆 Each camper from the Specialty and Instructional Camp session(s) receives a written evaluation of his skills and suggested comments for improvements in several areas. This enables the camper to work on his game outside of camp.
- 🏆 Camp Ball (Specialty and Instructional Campers)

Facilities

The camp will be held on the beautiful University of Wyoming Campus in Laramie, WY. All activities will be held in the Arena Auditorium (site of the Cowboys' home games), University Fieldhouse, Multi-Purpose Gymnasium, and Half Acre Gymnasium. Over 14 courts and 30 baskets are available to teach and learn the game of basketball. All campers will enjoy first class housing in the on campus residence halls and all-you-can-eat meals at Washakie Dining Hall.

The Staff

The 2001 Camp will be run by Steve McClain and the University of Wyoming basketball staff. The camp will also feature current and former University of Wyoming basketball players.

Our basketball team gets great competition at the Cowboy camp. The facilities are the best in this area, and our players are always made to feel special by the Wyoming Coaching Staff.

Brent Garretson - Sierra H.S. Head Coach
2000 Colorado 4A State Champions

We like the high quality of competition and the fact that we get to play a wide variety of teams.

We leave the camp knowing what areas we need to improve upon to get ready for the regular season.

Mike Curry - Campbell County H.S. Head Coach

2000 Wyoming 4A State Champions

Applying for Wyoming Basketball Camp

1. Fill out an application and return it with a 50% deposit.
2. When you have been accepted to the Wyoming Basketball Camp, you will receive a confirmation letter and further instructions.

Insurance

All campers must carry their own accident insurance. Your insurance company, policy number, and agent should all be indicated on your application. A professional trainer will be on duty at all times. Health facilities on campus are easily accessible should an emergency occur, and doctors are on call around the clock.

Food and Housing

All overnight campers will be housed in residence halls on the University of Wyoming campus. Twenty-four hour-a-day supervision and security will be provided. Campers will enjoy three nutritious all-you-can-eat meals a day in the University's dining facilities.

Overnight Campers Should Bring

Bedding, personal items, towels, basketball shoes, T-shirts, shorts, socks, etc.

Camp Store

The Wyoming Camp Store will be open in the afternoon and evenings for campers to purchase snacks, drinks, pizza, T-shirts, shorts, and other apparel representing the Wyoming Cowboys.

Camp Bank

All campers are strongly advised to keep their spending money in the camp bank, as we will not be responsible for any misplaced monies not deposited in the camp bank. The bank will open any time the camp store is open so the camper will have frequent access to his money. The bank is operated by a member of the camp staff and there is no charge for this service. At the conclusion of the week, each camper will receive the balance of his account. Meals for day campers and commuters may also be subtracted from the camp bank.

Registration for Specialty & Instructional Camp

Registration will begin promptly at 3:00 pm on the first day of camp listed and continue through 5:00 pm that evening.

Information for all camps will be mailed to you upon receiving your application.

Late Registration for Specialty & Instructional Camp

If there is a problem on the day of registration or if delays are expected, late registration can be arranged. If you are unable to make the first day, you can still attend camp starting on the second day of camp and your cost will be prorated. Please call (307) 766-5114 for further details.

All campers attending the Specialty and Individual Camp will be placed on a team according to age and skill level. This will allow for excellent competition throughout the camp.

Registration for Team Camp

Registration for Team Camp will begin promptly at 9:00 am on July 5th and continue through 12:00 noon. Further information on team camp will be mailed to you.

For additional information, please call the Wyoming Basketball Office at (307) 766-5114.
