Wyoming Has Defeated the Last Six Consecutive Top 25 Teams in The Arena-Auditorium: Wyoming has enjoyed a great deal of success at home against nationally-ranked teams over the past five seasons. In fact, UW has posted a 6-0 record at home against the last six nationally-ranked opponents to play in the Double A.

The last nationally-ranked team to defeat UW in the Dome of Doom was the Cincinnati Bearcats on Dec. 17, 1994, in a game that saw LaZelle Durden hit three free throws with no time left on the clock for a one-point victory (81-80). Cincinnati was ranked No. 17 in the nation at the time.

Here is a breakdown of the Cowboys' success against Top 25 ranked teams in the Arena-Auditorium over the past five seasons.

Wins Over Top 25 Ranked Teams

Feb. 28, 2000 88-61 Win over No. 24 ranked Utah
Jan. 14, 1999 96-93 Win over No. 20 ranked TCU
Feb. 12, 1998 62-56 Win over No. 5 ranked Utah
Jan. 10, 1998 58-55 Win over No. 10 ranked New Mexico
Feb. 12, 1996 80-76 Win over No. 7 ranked Utah
Jan. 13, 1996 61-58 Win over No. 25 ranked New Mexico

Cowboys 10-4 Record Matches Best Start in McClain Era:

Wyoming's 10-4 record matches the best start by a Steve McClain team at Wyoming. In McClain's first season (1998-99), Wyoming started out 10-4. Last season (1999-2000), the Cowboys were also 10-4 through 14 games.

McClain's '98-'99 squad went on to win its 15th game of the season to go to 11-4. A year ago, Wyoming also lost its 15th game for a 10-5 start.

Notes From Last Week in Cowboy Basketball:

- Wyoming's 70-69 overtime win at Colorado State last Saturday marked the first time this season that the Cowboys had trailed at halftime and came back to win. UW trailed by seven at the half (29-36), but outscored CSU by seven in the second half and by one in overtime to capture the one-point road victory.

- UW's win at Colorado State on Jan. 13 was its first in Fort Collins since Feb. 21, 1998, when the Cowboys won 69-64. That game was also the last time Wyoming won an overtime game.

- The Border War game in Fort Collins has now been decided by one point in the last two consecutive meetings. Last year's game in Fort Collins was won by the Rams 79-78.

- The Cowboys have now won two straight against their archrival, CSU. UW also defeated the Rams in the First Round of the 2000 Mountain West Conference Tournament by a score of 74-68.

- The Cowboys one-point win over CSU (70-69) on Saturday, Jan. 13 was the UW's first one-point game of the season.

- Saturday has been a good day for the Pokes this season. Wyoming is 6-0 in Saturday games this season.

- In fact, Wyoming is perfect in weekend games this season (Friday, Saturday and Sunday games). UW is a perfect 8-0 in weekend games -- 1-0 on Friday, 6-0 on Saturday and 1-0 on Sunday.

- Marcus Bailey's 20 points against Colorado State on Jan. 13 was a conference career high for him. His previous high scoring game in a conference contest was 19 vs. New Mexico on Feb. 14, 2000.

- Brett McFall's 35 minutes played against CSU was a career high for him. His previous high was 29 vs. Colorado State on Feb. 20, 1999.

- McFall's 14 points against the Rams was a season high for him. His previous season high was 10 against Denver on Nov. 27, 2000.

- Brett McFall continues to be perfect from the free-throw line for the 2000-01 season. He is 14 of 14 for the year.

McMillian Stretches Streak of Consecutive Starts to 73 Games -- Every Game of His Career:

Junior guard Chris McMillian has started every game of his career. McMillian's streak currently sits at 73 consecutive games.

McMillian is also the iron man of the Cowboys, leading UW in minutes played at 30.0 minutes per game.

There's No Place Like Home: Once again this season, the Wyoming Cowboys have posted an outstanding home record.

Wyoming has begun the 2000-01 season with a perfect 5-0 record at home.

Wyoming ended the 1999-2000 season with a 12-1 (.923) home record, 6-1 (.857) in Mountain West home games. That ranked as the second best home record in the Mountain West Conference. Only Utah, at 17-0, 7-0 in the MWC, had a better home winning percentage among MWC teams. UNLV also posted a 6-1 MWC home record to match Wyoming's conference mark.

How Good Are the Cowboys at Home the Past Few Years? How good are the Wyoming Cowboys at home? During the Steve McClain era, Wyoming has posted a 29-3 (.906) home record overall and a 12-2 (.857) home record in conference games.

In the history of the Arena-Auditorium, Wyoming holds a 201-63 (.761) home record since the Double A opened in the last game of the 1981-82 season. In conference home games, UW is 101-45 (.692).

Steve McClain One of the Top Coaches in Wyoming History Through His First Two Seasons:

University of Wyoming head basketball coach Steve McClain posted an impressive record through his first two seasons as the Cowboys' head coach.

Mountain West Conference media members named him the MWC Coach of the Year for the 1999-2000 season. McClain concluded his second season at UW having won 62.7 percent of his games with a record of 37-22. He currently holds a 47-26 (.644) record in his third year at Wyoming.

In the 95 seasons of Wyoming Basketball, 31 Cowboy squads have won 17 or more games. Only two coaches in the history of Wyoming Basketball have won more than 17 games in each of their first two seasons as head coach -- Willard Witte (1930-31 and 1931-32) and Steve McClain (1998-99 and 1999-2000).

Here is a breakdown of the most successful Wyoming Basketball Coaches through their first two seasons at UW.

Wyoming's Josh Davis Participates in USA Basketball Men's National

Team Trials: University of Wyoming sophomore Josh Davis participated in the USA Basketball National Team Trials, May 26-28, 2000, in Colorado Springs, Colo., at the Olympic Training Center. He was one of only 30 players in the nation, aged 20 or younger, who was invited to participate.

From the trials, the World Championship for Young Men Qualification Team was selected by USA Basketball's Collegiate Committee. The head coach of the team was Jim Boeheim from Syracuse University. The team competed in the COPABA World Championship for Young Men Qualification Tournament that included teams from North, South and Central America.

"This is a great opportunity," said Davis, upon being notified of his selection. "I'm honored to be invited to participate, and hopefully I can make the team and represent Wyoming and the U.S. in Brazil this summer. I'm looking forward to the challenge."

Davis was not selected to the final squad, but did have an opportunity to showcase his skills against the top young players in the nation.

"This was great experience for Josh," said UW head basketball coach Steve McClain. "Anytime you get invited to compete with the top players in the country, it is a great challenge to see where you stack up against those players. I think it was an excellent learning opportunity for Josh, as well. It provided him a chance to play at a very high level of competition, and gave him a chance to grow as a basketball player and develop his game. In addition to Josh's personal development, this was also great exposure for our program."

After the team trials were completed on May 28, those selected to the team reunited on July 15-22 for a week-long training camp. On July 23, the team departed for Sao Paulo, Brazil, where the tournament was held July 26-30.

The USA World Championship for Young Men Qualifying Team is one of several teams fielded by USA Basketball, including the 2000 USA Olympic Team and the 2000 USA Hoop Summit Team.

Davis was named a First Team All-Mountain West Conference honoree last season by conference coaches. The junior from Salem, Ore., led Wyoming in scoring (14.3 points per game) and rebounding (8.7 rebounds per game) for the 1999-2000 season.

The Mountain West Conference Heads Into Its Second

Season: A year ago, the University of Wyoming joined some old rivals to form the Mountain West Conference. Wyoming reunited with Air Force, Brigham Young, Colorado State, New Mexico, UNLV, San Diego State and Utah to form the new league.

The 2000-01 season promises to be an outstanding one for Mountain West Conference Basketball with a number of teams receiving votes in the national polls.

The 2000-01 MWC season will culminated with the 2001 Mountain West Conference Tournament to be held at the Thomas and Mack Center in Las Vegas, Nev., March 8-10, 2001.

Balance -- Cowboys Have Had Nine Different Players Score in Double Figures This Season: Wyoming has had nine different individuals on its 11-man roster score in double figures this season. Marcus Bailey, Paris Corner, Josh Davis, Brett McFall, Chris McMillian, Ronell Mingo, Uche Nsonwu-Amadi, David Rottinghaus and Ugo Udezue have all scored in double figures in a game this season. At least three Cowboys have scored in double digits in 12 of 14 Wyoming games this season.

Balance has been a trademark of Steve McClain's program at Wyoming. In the 1999-2000 season, 12 different Cowboys on the 14-man roster scored in double figures during the season. Five of those players return this year: Marcus Bailey, Josh Davis, Brett McFall, Chris McMillian and Ugo Udezue. Davis was Wyoming's leading scorer a year ago, while McMillian, McFall and Bailey ranked fourth, fifth and sixth respectively. Ugo Udezue missed all but five games last year due to injury, but he was the Cowboys' leading scorer in the 1998-99 season.

Wyoming had at least three individuals score in double figures in 29 of 31 games during the 1999-2000 season.

Balance was a key to the Cowboys' successful season in 1998-99, as well. Of Wyoming's 12-man roster for the 1998-99 campaign, 10 different individuals had double-figure scoring games.

Here is a breakdown of Wyoming's double figure scorers game-by-game for the 2000-01 season.

Twenty-Point Pokes: Five current Cowboys have scored 20 or more points in a single game during their Wyoming careers. This season's leader is sophomore Marcus Bailey, who has scored 20 or more points on six occasions this season.

Current 20-Point Pokes	20-Point Games in 2000-01	Career 20-Point Games
Marcus Bailey	6	6
Josh Davis	1	10
Brett McFall	0	1
Chris McMillian	0	2
Ugo Udezue	0	15
Totals	7	34

Thirty-Point Pokes: Only one current Cowboy has scored 30 or more points in a single game during his career -- that Cowboy is junior Ugo Udezue. Udezue scored 30 or more points five times during his sophomore season of 1998-99. His career high is 38 versus Colorado on Dec. 9, 1998.

Udezue missed the 1999-2000 season due to knee surgery. He was granted a medical hardship by the NCAA, and is currently a redshirt junior.

Steve McClain, Head Basketball Coach
University of Wyoming

In his third season as head coach of the University of Wyoming, Steve McClain has fans around the state of Wyoming and media members across the country talking about the Wyoming Cowboys.

McClain earned Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year honors from MWC media members for the 1999-2000 season. During his first two seasons, his Cowboys defeated two Top 25 ranked opponents, and earned a berth in the 1999 National Invitation Tournament.

Heading into the 2000-01 season, ESPN Magazine's preseason issue listed McClain as a member of Dick Vitale's All-SportsCenter Team -- the five "Coaches Who Need Some PT on TV for more PR." Mountain West Conference media selected McClain's 2000-01 Cowboy squad to finish second in the Mountain West Conference Preseason poll, and both ESPN Magazine and The Sporting News Preseason College Basketball issues selected the Cowboys as an NCAA Tournament team.

His 37 wins in his first two seasons rank No. 2 in Wyoming school history for the most wins by a head basketball coach in his first two seasons at UW. He also has posted one of the best home records in school history with a 29-3 (.906) record in the Arena-Auditorium.

Add to those accomplishments the excitement that McClain's up-tempo style has brought to the Cowboys, and you have one of the most exciting teams in the country. A year ago, the Cowboys averaged 82.8 points per game to rank No. 5 in the nation in scoring average. In Coach McClain's first season at UW, the 1998-99 season, the Cowboys averaged 81.6 points per game to rank No. 10 among all NCAA Division I teams.

McClain's first season was highlighted by Wyoming's appearance in the 1999 National Invitation Tournament (NIT), where UW advanced to the NIT Second Round. McClain guided Wyoming to an 81-77 victory over USC in the First Round of the NIT in Laramie, marking the Cowboys' first postseason win since the 1990-91 season. Wyoming posted an 18-10 record, 7-7 in the Western Athletic Conference.

In the 1999-2000 season, McClain led a veteran team into the newly-formed Mountain West Conference. Wyoming earned a 19-12 record for the 1999-2000 campaign, and improved its conference record to 8-6. Along the way, UW defeated Utah and UNLV in Laramie, and swept the season series with New Mexico. The Mountain West Conference was one of the elite basketball conferences in the nation in its first year of existence with Wyoming, Air Force, Brigham Young, Colorado State, UNLV, New Mexico, San Diego State and Utah continuing their longtime rivalries.

Prior to accepting the head-coaching position at Wyoming, McClain served as an assistant coach at Texas Christian University for four seasons. While at TCU, McClain helped lead the Horned Frogs from obscurity to a Top 25 ranking and an NCAA Tournament appearance in 1998.

McClain, 38 (Aug. 15, 1962), was an original member of Billy Tubbs' staff at TCU. The year prior to the Tubbs' staff taking over in Fort Worth, TCU posted a record of 7-20. Two years later, the Horned Frogs posted a 22-13 record, advanced to the Championship Game of the 1997 Western Athletic Conference Tournament and played their way into the Second Round of the National Invitation Tournament. In 1998, TCU joined the elite programs in the country, posting a 27-6 record and leading the nation in scoring at 97.2 points per game. The Horned Frogs earned an NCAA Tournament bid in '98, and ended the season ranked No. 15 in the final Associated Press poll. TCU also became the first team in Western Athletic Conference history to go undefeated in league play, posting a 14-0 record in '98 on way to winning the WAC Pacific Division title.

Not only did McClain enjoy success as an assistant coach, but he brought to Wyoming an outstanding record as a head coach. In 1994 as the head coach at Hutchinson Community College, he won the National Junior College Championship in only his third season, and was named the National Junior College Coach of the Year.

On April 22, 1998, Steve McClain became the 19th head basketball coach in the history of the University of Wyoming.

At the junior-college level, McClain compiled a 91-16 (.850) record in three seasons, and his teams were known as high-scoring squads. His 1994 National Championship team averaged 90 points per game on way to a 35-4 (.897) record. In 1992-93, the Hutch Dragons compiled a 29-5 (.853) record, averaged 92.6 points and ended the season ranked No. 11 in the NJCAA. His first season as head coach, 1991-92, Hutchinson posted a 27-7 (.794) record.

Prior to becoming head coach at Hutchinson, McClain served as an assistant coach there for five seasons, helping guide the Dragons to the 1988 NJCAA National Championship. Before coaching at Hutchinson, he was also an assistant coach at: Independence Community College in Independence, Kan.; Sioux Empire Junior College in Iowa; and his alma mater Chadron State College in Chadron, Neb.

A native of Orient, Iowa, McClain is a 1984 graduate of Chadron State College. He is married to the former Kim Van Asselt of Hutchinson, Kan.

Return of the "Dome of Doom"

Back in the days of Fennis Dembo and Eric Leckner (1984-85 through 1987-88), Wyoming's Arena-Auditorium earned the nickname the "Dome of Doom." The Arena-Auditorium is one of the most beautiful basketball arenas in the country with a capacity of 15,000.

The last three seasons the Wyoming Cowboys have stirred up visions of the days when Wyoming opponents dreaded playing in the Double A.

Over the past three seasons, the Cowboys boast a home record of 29-3 (.906) overall in the Arena-Auditorium and a 12-2 (.857) record in conference home games.

For the 1999-2000 season, Wyoming posted a 12-1 (.923) record at home and a 6-1 (.857) record in conference home games.

The Arena-Auditorium opened on Feb. 20, 1982, when Wyoming defeated Air Force 59-29. Currently the Cowboys record in the Double A stands at 201-63 (.761). In conference games, Wyoming is 101-45 (.692) in conference regular-season home games.

Cowboys Bring 10-Game Home Winning Streak Into Utah Game:

The Wyoming Cowboys have built a 10-game home winning streak in the Arena-Auditorium, dating back to Jan. 29, 2000, when they defeated San Diego State 93-87.

Wyoming ended the 1999-2000 season with a five-game winning streak. Wyoming defeated San Diego State, UNLV, Air Force, BYU and Utah in its last five home games of the '99-2000 season.

The Cowboys have begun the 2000-01 season with five home victories to stretch their home winning streak to 10 games.

The last time Wyoming won 10 consecutive home games was from the end of the 1998-99 season through the beginning of the 1999-2000 season. That streak ran from a Feb. 25, 1999, home win over Air Force through a Jan. 13, 2000, home victory over New Mexico.

Defense A Strength for Pokes in 2000-01 Season:

Wyoming's defense has been extremely effective this season as the Pokes are holding opponents to only 39.4 percent shooting from the field. That ranks No. 3 in the Mountain West Conference. Only New Mexico and BYU rank ahead of the Cowboys in field-goal percentage defense, holding opponents to 39.1 and 39.3 percent shooting from the field, respectively.

The best defensive teams in Wyoming history were those of Basketball Hall of Fame Coach Everett Shelton. Shelton's 1950-51 team held opponents to only 28.0 percent shooting.

Here is a breakdown of the best Cowboy defensive teams since complete statistics were kept beginning with the 1950-51 season.

Many Heroes Key Wyoming's Overtime Win Over CSU: There were a number of heroes for the Wyoming Cowboys in their 70-69 victory over Colorado State on Saturday, Jan. 13. Here are just a few of the key contributors to the win at CSU.

•Sophomore forward Marcus Bailey scored 20 points against CSU on Jan. 13 to record his sixth 20-point game in 14 games this season. Against CSU, Bailey scored three of Wyoming's seven points in overtime, including the winning jumper with 1:08 remaining.

•Junior Josh Davis scored 16 points against CSU including the final four points for the Cowboys in regulation before fouling out with 20 seconds remaining in the second half. He also grabbed six rebounds versus the Rams. Davis scored 13 of his 16 points in the second half and grabbed all six of his rebounds in the second stanza. He shot 66.7 percent from the field (6 of 9) against CSU, was perfect from three-point range (2 of 2), blocked one shot and had a steal.

•Wyoming's point-guard tandem of Chris McMillian and Brett McFall combined for 20 points, two rebounds, seven assists and two steals against Colorado State while playing outstanding defense against the Rams.

•Redshirt junior Ugo Udezue also played a key role in the overtime win at Colorado State last Saturday. Udezue hit two of two free throws in overtime, grabbed two rebounds in the extra period and drew a charge to end the game and seal Wyoming's 70-69 victory.

•Freshman Joe Ries tied a career high with three rebounds against CSU. The amazing thing is that he pulled down the three rebounds and scored a tip-in basket in only four minutes of play -- all in overtime.

Junior Josh Davis Closing in on Wyoming's Greatest Rebounders:

Wyoming junior forward Josh Davis has pulled down 569 career rebounds in his three-year career at Wyoming. He needs only 88 rebounds to break into Wyoming's career Top 10 in rebounding. At his current average of 9.9 rebounds per game, he should enter the Top 10 this season. He has 138 rebounds for the 2000-01 season through 14 games.

Here are Wyoming's career rebounding leaders.

Rank and Player	Years	Total Rebounds
1. Reginald Slater	1989-92	1,197
2. Fennis Dembo	1985-88	954
3. HL Coleman	1994-97	939
4. Leon Clark	1964-66	889
5. Bill Garnett	1979-82	840
6. Kenneth Ollie	1978-81	833
7. Carl Ashley	1968-70	818
8. Eric Leckner	1985-88	774
9. Ron Rivers	1952-54	752
10. Rod Penner	1971-73	657
Josh Davis	1999-	569

Chris McMillian Becomes Only the Fourth Cowboy to Hand Out 300 Career Assists:

Chris McMillian became only the fourth player in school history to hand out 300 career assists when he recorded three assists against Utah on Jan. 8, 2001. McMillian now has 305 career assists to rank No. 4 in Wyoming history. He joins Sean Dent (502 assists from 1984-88), Fennis Dembo (410 assists from 1985-88) and Mike Jackson (357 assists from 1980-83) as the four Cowboys with 300 career assists.

McMillian has 61 assists for the 2000-01 season. He is averaging 4.36 assists per game this season, and has a career assist average of 4.18.

70 Points Key to Wyoming Wins in 2000-01 Season:

The key number for the Wyoming Cowboys this season has been 70 points.

When Wyoming scores 70 or more points this season, it is 9-2.

When Wyoming holds opponents under 70 points this season, it is 8-0

The only two games Wyoming has scored 70 or more points and lost this season were a 71-74 loss at Cal State Northridge on Dec. 7 and a 71-83 loss at Utah on Jan. 8.

Scheduling Oddity -- Utah Last MWC Team to Play in Arena-Auditorium Last Season and First To Play in Double A This Season:

Wyoming's last two Mountain West Conference home games have oddly enough came against the same conference opponent -- the Utah Utes.

A year ago, UW concluded its conference home schedule with an 88-61 victory over Utah, Feb. 28, 2000, on ESPN's Big Monday.

Wyoming will play its first MWC home game of this season against Utah on Saturday, Jan. 20, 2001.

Deep, Deep, Deep: When the Wyoming Cowboys took the court for the 2000-01 season, Coach Steve McClain said that he felt he had a very deep team. His prediction has come true as 11 different players have taken the court for the Cowboys to date and nine have scored in double figures. Here are some other stats that indicate the depth of the Cowboy squad.

Cowboys Who Have Played	11
Double Figure Scorers	9
Players Who Have Scored	11
Players Averaging 20+ Minutes	5
Players Averaging 10+ Minutes	9

Cowboys to be Televised 14 Times During the 2000-01 Season:

The Wyoming Cowboys will be televised 14 times during the 2000-01 regular season.

Included in the 14 television games will be:
