

Minutemen In The Pros

In recent history the UMass men's soccer program has been a stepping stone for its alumni to continue their soccer careers in the professional soccer ranks. In Sam Koch's nine seasons at UMass, many of his athletes have gone on to play in professional leagues in North America and around the globe. Former UMass players are competing right here in New England, to places like Pittsburgh to as far as Germany. Here are a few of the UMass alums in the pros.

Todd Baron ('00)
*Palm Beach Pumas and Boston Bulldogs
USISL*

Adam Black ('00)
*Connecticut Wolves
Third pick overall in USISL*

Karsten Bremke ('96)
*Arminia Bielefeld
German Bundesliga*

Mike Butler ('98)
*Hershey Wildcats
A-League*

Joenal Castma ('98)
*Pittsburgh River Hounds
A-League*

Carmelo Garcia ('99)
*Delaware Wizards
USISL*

Colin Johnson ('96)
*Charlotte Eagles
USISL*

Bradford Miller ('96)
*Western Mass. Pioneers
USISL*