UMASS AT THE OLYMPIC GAMES

For the past quarter of a century, the University of Massachusetts has stood proud as one of the elite field hockey programs in, not only the nation, but the world. UMass has been represented at four of the last five Olympics, starting with Judy Strong playing for the United States in both 1980 and 1984. Megan Donnelly and Patty Shea continued the tradition by suiting up for Team USA in 1988. During the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta, Pam Hixon coached the United States and Hilary Rose played net for Great Britain. This year, at the Sydney Olympics, Rose is once again expected to tend goal for Great Britain.
