MOUNTAIN WEST NOTES

MWC CELEBRATES 10TH ANNIVERSARY

The Mountain West Conference begins its 10th season of play in 2008-09. The league began in the fall of 1999 with eight institutions - Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming. The MWC welcomed TCU as its newest member in July 2005. In the first nine years of the league, Utah has won six MWC regular-season titles, followed by BYU and New Mexico with two apiece and Colorado State with one. The Utes won the inaugural women's basketball title in 1999-00 with an 11-3 league record.

In just the second year of the league, Utah achieved a school and conference milestone by advancing to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. BYU followed suit in 2001-02, advancing to the round of 16 for the first time in school history. The strength of the MWC continued as four teams were selected to the 2005-06 postseason. In that season, BYU, New Mexico, TCU and Utah each won their first-round games, making the MWC the only conference with multiple bids to go undefeated in the first round. That year, the Utes advanced to the Elite Eight for the first time in school and league history. Success continued the following year as Wyoming claimed the 2007 WNIT title in front of a record 15,462 fans at the Arena Auditorium in Laramie, Wyo.

In its nine-year history, the MWC has received a total of 41 postseason bids, including 24 NCAA berths. The Mountain West has sent multiple teams to the NCAA Tournament four consecutive years and eight overall, including 2002 and 2006 when a record four teams advanced.

THE MTN. ON DIRECTV

DIRECTV, the nation's leading satellite television service provider, now carries the MountainWest Sports Network - The Mtn. to fans across the country. The Mtn. is available on channel 616 on DIRECTV CHOICE and above packages for the states servicing MWC institutions (Colorado, New Mexico, Nevada, Utah, Wyoming) as well as the designated market areas of Dallas/Fort Worth and San Diego. Customers throughout the remainder of the country can access The Mtn. with a subscription to DIRECTV's Sportspack.

A LOOK AT THE 2008-09 SCHEDULE

Mountain West schools have the potential to face 19 teams that participated in the 2008 NCAA Tournament, including Elite Eight participant Connecticut.

Below is the breakdown of Mountain West games vs. 2008 NCAA Tournament participants:

Boise State, California, Connecticut, DePaul, Georgia, Gonzaga, Idaho State, Iowa State, James Madison, Louisville, Marquette, Maryland, Oklahoma State, Prairie View A&M, Robert Morris, Stanford, Texas A&M, Texas-Arlington, UC Riverside

Below is the breakdown of Mountain West games vs. teams from the top-six RPI conferences in 2007-08.

ACC: Maryland, Virginia

Big East: Connecticut (2), DePaul, Louisville, Marquette

Big 12: Colorado, Iowa State, Oklahoma State, Texas A&M (2), Texas Tech (2)

Pac-10: Oregon (3), Oregon State, Stanford, USC (2)

SEC: Mississippi State

MWC WELCOMES NEW HEAD COACHES HOLT AND OLIVIER

In 2008-09, the Mountain West will welcome Colorado State Head Coach Kristen Holt and UNLV Head Coach Kathy Olivier. Holt takes over the reins at CSU after serving as an assistant coach for the Rams last year. After a disappointing 0-16 conference record, Holt helped guide her team to two wins in the MWC Tournament, including an upset of nationally-ranked and #1 seed Utah.

Olivier returns to her alma mater after spending the past 15 years as the head coach at UCLA. At the helm of the Bruins, she guided the team to five appearances in the NCAA Tournament, including a trip to the Elite Eight in 1999. Olivier also coached UCLA to a Pac-10 regular season championship in 1999, and to the Pac-10 Tournament title in 2006. Her 1999 squad finished the season ranked No. 7 in the nation in the USA Today poll, which was the highest ranking in school history, and the team posted six top-four finishes in the Pac-10 over her last 11 years.

COACHES CORNER

MWC coaches have a combined record of 1,487-849 (.637) at their respective institutions. Utah Head Coach Elaine Elliott is the dean of the MWC coaches, entering her 26th season in 2008-09. Elliott has amassed 536 career wins, becoming just the 32nd Division I women's coach to reach the 500-win milestone in 2007. New Mexico's Don Flanagan begins his 14th year at the helm of the Lobos, leading them to eight NCAA appearances. San Diego State's Beth Burns is in her second stint with the Aztecs, guiding the team for the fourth straight year. TCU Head Coach Jeff Mittie enters his 10th season in Fort Worth, while Air Force's Ardie McInelly and BYU's Jeff Judkins begin their eighth year. Joe Legerski looks to continue success in his sixth season at Wyoming, while Colorado State's Kristen Holt and UNLV's Kathy Olivier make their MWC debuts.

UNM AND SDSU TO HOST NCAA TOURNAMENT

The NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee has selected New Mexico and San Diego State as host sites for the first and second rounds of the 2009 NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Championships. UNM served as a host site last year, drawing the Lobos and Wyoming. The Pit/Bob King Court was also the regional site of Utah's Elite Eight run in 2006. Since the facility opened in the fall of 1997, Cox Arena has served as the host site for three other NCAA championship events, including the 2001 and 2006 Men's Basketball First & Second Rounds and the 2001 Women's Volleyball Final Four.

MWC CHAMPIONSHIP RETURNS TO LAS VEGAS

The MWC Championship returns to the Thomas & Mack Center March 10-14, in Las Vegas, Nev., for the seventh time in the league's 10-year history. The MWC Tournament was held in Las Vegas from 2000-2003 before moving to Denver's Pepsi Center for three years (2004-06). Last year's tournament welcomed 16,096 to the championship game featuring New Mexico vs. San Diego State.

Since 1999, New Mexico leads all MWC teams with five Tournament titles. Utah has won two crowns, while Colorado State and BYU have each won one.

20+ WINS

The MWC has had at least three teams finish the season with 20+ wins in eight of the nine years of the league. Each of those teams has had the opportunity to advance to the postseason. Utah Head Coach Elaine Elliott leads the way, earning 18 20-win campaigns, while New Mexico has earned 20+ wins in eight of the nine seasons as a member of the MWC.

1,000 POINTS

Utah's Morgan Warburton returns as the only MWC player to have already eclipsed the 1,000+ point career mark. She scored a season-high 23 points vs. San Diego State on Jan. 16, 2008, to give her 1,005 in her career (1,275 total).

MOUNTAIN WEST NOTES

RETURNING ALL-MWC PERFORMERS

Only six (of 15) all-MWC selections return for the 2008-09 season, including Freshman of the Year Helena Sverrisdottir (TCU). Utah leads the way with two all-league players returning, while New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV and Wyoming each return one. In addition, three of the seven honorable mention selections are back. Below is a look at the returnees:

School	Player, Cl., Pos. (2007-08 all-MWC)
New Mexico	Amy Beggin, Jr., G (3rd Team)
San Diego State	Jené Morris, Jr., G (2nd Team)
	Allison Duffy, So., F (Honorable Mention)
	Paris Johnson, So., C (Honorable Mention)
TCU	Helena Sverrisdottir, So., F (Honorable Mention)
UNLV	Shamela Hampton, Sr., C (3rd Team)
Utah	Morgan Warburton, Sr., G (1st Team)
	Kalee Whipple, Jr., F (2nd Team)
Wyoming	Aubrey Vandiver, Jr., G (3rd Team)

RETURNING STARTERS

San Diego State returns all five starters from the 2007-08 season, while Wyoming graduated four seniors and only returns one. Below is a look at the returning starters and letterwinners for each team:

School	Starters	Letterwinners
	Returning	Returning
Air Force	3	9
BYU	2	11
Colorado State	3	7
New Mexico	3	10
San Diego State	5	8
TCU	2	5
UNLV	4	11
Utah	3	8
Wyoming	1	9

FOUR TEAMS QUALIFIED FOR POSTSEASON PLAY

Four MWC teams qualified for postseason play in 2008. New Mexico, the MWC Tournament champion, and regular-season champion Utah each advanced to the NCAA Women's Basketball Championship, while Wyoming also earned its first at-large bid. New Mexico is one of only 13 schools in the nation to play in the last seven consecutive NCAA tournaments. Although the MWC went 0-3 in the NCAA Tournament games, all three contests were decided by a combined 13 points.

TCU made its first appearance in the WNIT, advancing to the quarterfinal round. The Horned Frogs also played to the third round of the Preseason WNIT earlier in the season.

IN THE POLLS

In 2007-08, Utah was ranked in both the Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Top-25 polls for seven straight weeks. The Utes finished the season ranked No. 18 in the AP poll and receiving votes in the Coaches poll. Wyoming and TCU were also receiving votes in the final WBCA poll. Five MWC teams (BYU, New Mexico, TCU, Utah and Wyoming) were all ranked or receiving votes at some point during the 2007-08 season.

NATIONAL HONORS

Utah's Leilani Mitchell was named to the 2008 State Farm Coaches' All-America third team, while TCU's Adrienne Ross, Utah's Morgan Warburton and Wyoming's Hanna Zavec were each named to the honorable mention team. Mitchell was also named AP All-America Honorable Mention. Utah's Elaine Elliott was named the Russell Athletic/WBCA Region 7 Coach of the Year. The MWC has produced 23 honorable mention All-Americans the past six years.

NON-CONFERENCE MARKS

The MWC finished its 2007-08 non-conference season with a 67-55 (.549) record, including a 4-2 mark vs. the Big Ten. TCU, UNLV and Wyoming also earned wins over top-25 teams, including Oklahoma State, George Washington and Wisconsin.

AMONG THE NATION'S BEST

Last season, the MWC had three teams nationally ranked in the top 10 for scoring defense. New Mexico (6th), Wyoming (7th) and Utah (10th) all made the cut. Utah was also nationally ranked in the top 10 for its scoring margin (9th), field-goal percentage (7th), 3-point field-goal percentage (3rd) and field-goal percentage defense (9th). Wyoming ranked among the best in fewest turnovers per game (4th) and its assist/turnover ratio (6th), while San Diego State held the eighth spot for steals per game (12.6 spg).

Individually, returning Utah senior Morgan Warburton ranks 17th nationally for her free-throw percentage (.861) and 3-point field-goal percentage (.424). Returning New Mexico point guard Amy Beggin made the ranks for her assist/turnover ratio (13th) and free-throw percentage (35th).

NEW MEXICO CLINCHES MWC TOURNAMENT TITLE

New Mexico defeated San Diego State, 62-59, in the championship game of the 2008 MWC Tournament. The Lobos earned the crown for the fifth time in league history and received the Conference's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive year. New Mexico placed two players on the all-tournament team as Dionne Marsh and Brandi Kimble were honored. San Diego State's Allison Duffy and Jené Morris and Colorado State's Sara Hunter also earned all-tournament honors. Marsh was the Most Valuable Player of the Tournament, becoming the first player to earn back-to-back honors and the first to earn the award three times.

ATTENDANCE LEADERS

The MWC ranked sixth in 2007-08 for its regular season attendance. New Mexico once again led the Mountain West Conference in attendance, as the Lobos drew an average of 8,638 fans to each home contest. Wyoming was second in the Conference with 4,402 fans, including 6,115 vs. Utah. As a whole, the conference averaged 2,540 fans per game. Here is a look at the MWC home attendance in 2007-08:

MOUNTAIN WEST TELEVISION

On Aug. 26, 2004, College Sports Television (CSTV) and the Mountain West Conference announced a visionary partnership that revolutionized the college sports landscape. The landmark agreement was the first NCAA Division I football and men's basketball conference-wide deal for CSTV. The advent of the new television model gave CSTV exclusive rights to all Conference events, including cable and satellite television coverage, national over-the-air and satellite radio, video-on-demand and online broadcast rights. The CSTV/MWC partnership has guaranteed greater levels of television exposure for all MWC sports and resoundingly met the fundamental goals of more exposure, preferred start times and competition on select days of the week.

In the summer of 2006, the centerpiece of this historic relationship was realized with the launch of The Mtn. – MountainWest Sports Network - the first sports network dedicated to serving a single collegiate athletic conference 365 days a year. The Mtn. is jointly owned by CBS College Sports Network and Comcast and operated by Comcast SportsNet.

In February of 2008, CBS Sports announced a comprehensive reorganization of its college sports operations, incorporating the cable, broadcast and online activities of College Sports Television into its world-famous brand and became CBS College Sports Network.

The Mtn. showcases MWC athletics across multiple sports, including football, men's and women's basketball, and men's and women's Olympic sports. The Mtn. features more than just live games, incorporating an ever-growing roster of original programming, features, and studio shows to its lineup. Fans get a comprehensive array of news, features and analysis about their favorite MWC teams and players. More than 250 MWC events annually are broadcast live on The Mtn., CBS C and VERSUS.

DIRECTV, the nation's leading satellite television service provider now provides the MountainWest Sports Network - The Mtn. to fans across the country. The Mtn. is available nationally on channel 616 on DIRECTV CHOICE and above packages for the states servicing MWC institutions (Colorado, New Mexico, Nevada, Utah, Wyoming and the designated market areas of Dallas/Fort Worth and San Diego). Customers throughout the remainder of the country can access The Mtn. with a subscription to DIRECTV's Sportspack.

THE MTN. - THE PIONEERING DIFFERENCE

With the nation's inaugural TV network devoted to a single conference, MWC fans are the first with a "backstage pass" to their teams.

September 1, 2008 is more than an anniversary to Mountain West Conference fans. It represents a pioneering milestone in American sports.

Launched on September 1, 2006, The Mtn. – MountainWest Sports Network was the first network dedicated to a collegiate athletic conference. The Mtn. provides sports fans blanket coverage of MWC athletics across multiple sports. The network featured more MWC games on television than ever before during the 2007-08 academic year.

2008-09 will only get better. On February 22, 2008, The Mtn. and DIRECTV announced that the network would be available on the nation's leading satellite provider beginning this fall, making The Mtn. available nationwide. Again for 2008-09, The Mtn. will focus on fan-friendly start times and even triple-header Saturdays to provide all-day action to MWC fans. The Mtn. will broadcast 30 live regular-season football games this season, including six triple-header Saturdays. The network also will telecast over 100 men's and women's basketball contests this season in addition to its comprehensive array of news, features, original programming and analysis on MWC teams, coaches and players.

This season will also see the return of The Mtn.'s original program. The innovative Campus Cam, a mini-studio installed on each of the nine MWC campuses, provides quick access to coach and student-athlete interviews and breaking news coverage.

The Mtn. boasts an experiences team of talent including play-by-play announcers, analysts, sideline reporters and in-studio anchors that provides viewers with extensive pre-game, halftime, and post-game coverage along with weekly and seasonal analysis and wrap-ups. The Mtn. also takes fans off the field and behind the scenes with coverage of the latest stats, press conferences, coaching developments and more.

Further information is available at www.TheMtn.tv.

Bill Doleman and Marius Payton anchor the studio desk at The Mtn.

CBS College Sports Network (CBS C), the pulse of college sports, connects more fans to more college sports than any other company. The network's array of platforms include CBS College Sports Network, a digital television service available in high-definition that broadcasts regular season and championship events for 35 men's and women's college sports and is available to over 78 million homes through local cable operators and nationally via satellite on DIRECT TV Channel 613 and DISH Network Channel 152. CBS College Sports Network's online properties include an industry leading network of approximately 215 official college athletic Web sites, XXL and All Access, broadband services providing live audio and video of more than 10,000 events annually, MaxPreps, the nation's leading online high school sports network and UWIRE, a free membership organization for college student media. CBS College Sports Network also produces and manages NCAA.com, the online home for NCAA sports.

CBS College Sports Network provides comprehensive coverage of Mountain West Conference sports, featuring an array of programming that includes live games, original shows, documentaries and the network's new nightly studio show "College Sports Tonight."

During the 2008-09 season, CBS College Sports Network will broadcast six MWC women's basketball games. As CBS College Sports Network's national presence grows, the Mountain West Conference, its teams and student-athletes will continue to gain even more national exposure across its variety of platforms. Together, CBS College Sports Network and The Mtn. continue to showcase the passion and pageantry of the Mountain West Conference, while delivering unparalleled 24/7 coverage to fans across the nation. Further information is available at www.cbssports.com/cbscollegesports.
