2005 WOMEN'S CHAMPIONSHIPS RECAP

11th Annual NAIA Women's Golf National Championships

May 17-20, 2005

Blackthorn Golf Club Par 72 Yardage 5889

Top-ranked Oklahoma City turned in a commanding final round display to win the 2005 NAIA Women's Golf National Championships at Blackthorn Golf Club. Individual medalist Emily Albrektson led the Stars as they put to rest disappointing runner-up finishes in 2003 and 2004. Carrying an 18 stroke lead into the final round, coach Derek Freeman's Stars turned in a dominating performance with a 296, shattering the single round tournament record of 306. Sharing in the record were Bonnie Howard who carded the low round of the day with a 72, Tamara Campbell with a 73, Albrektson with a 75 and Melissa Burkepile with a 76. Oklahoma City's four round score of 1226 also set a new record, besting the 1249 of 2004 defending champion British Columbia in 2004. Albrektson was never seriously challenged after taking the second round lead on Wednesday. The junior from Gothenburg, Sweden used an excellent mix of power and finesse to rise to the top of a field studded with 17 former All-Americans including the last two individual champions. Teammate Howard used her final round to move into second place. Burkepile made it a 1-2-3 Oklahoma City finish as she tied for third place with Karin Boo of Rocky Mountain and Morgan Lederhouse of British Columbia.
