2005 WOMEN'S CHAMPIONSHIP RECAP

24th Annual Women's

May 16-20, 2005

Mobile Tennis Center - Mobile, Alabama

The lone senior on Auburn University Montgomery's (Ala.) tennis team clinched its second consecutive NAIA National Title here on Friday afternoon. Suheil Lizana clinched the match with a 6-2, 6-3 victory over Brenau University's (Ga.) Renata Mattos to give the Lady Senators their record sixth NAIA Women's Tennis National Championship. Macchi was awarded the Marvin P. Richmond Most Outstanding Player Award, while in an unprecedented move Scott Kidd of the Lady Senators won the NAIA National Coach of the Year Award. Kidd will be named the head coach officially on June 1st for the Auburn University Montgomery Lady Senators.

The match was the final match for Brenau's head coach, Bill Rogers, who is retiring following the national tournament. Rogers helped guide the Lady Tigers to two national titles and two national runner-up awards during his time at Brenau.
