A QUICK LOOK AT TEXAS TECH

The Texas Tech Red Raiders wrap up the regular season schedule on the road at Oklahoma State. The Red Raiders, currently ranked No. 30 by Collegiate Baseball, have not played since May 3. Tech has won 10 of the last 12 games and 18 of the final 21 at home. Since losing a season-high five straight from 3/11-14, the Red Raiders have won 19 of 26 games. During that span, Tech has lost back-to-back games just one time.

Texas Tech won the final two home games on May 2-3 against UT-San Antonio. The Red Raiders won the first game 8-6 on Tuesday night before winning 15-12 on Wednesday afternoon. Tech hit a season-high (second time) four home runs in the first game and Kevin Tracey notched his sixth and seventh saves of the season out of the bullpen.

The Red Raiders won two of three games against Oklahoma in Lubbock on April 28-30. Texas Tech lost the series opener on Friday night 7-4, but came back to win the final two games, 8-7 and 15-14. Both of the wins came in extra innings as Tech won in 12 innings on Saturday and 10 on Sunday. In Sunday's game, Texas Tech erased a 12-2 deficit and won on David O'Keeffe's single that scored David Garza in the bottom of the 12th.

The Red Raiders posted a 13-4 record in April after going 9-8 in February and 8-8 in March. The Tech pitching staff has been the key, lowering their ERA each month. In February, the staff's ERA was 7.01 (116 ER/149.0 IP) followed by a 5.99 (91 ER/136.2 IP) mark in March. In April's 17 games, the ERA was 4.94 (84 ER/153.0 IP). In addition to the lowered ERA, Tech pitchers walked 38 batters in April (2.2 per 9.0 IP).

Texas Tech will make their fourth straight appearance in the Phillips 66 Big 12 Baseball Tournament next week. The tournament starts on Wednesday, May 17 and the winner will receive the automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

WHAT'S THE SCENARIO?

With one weekend left in conference play, Texas Tech has a chance to move up two spots from their current fifth-place position. Oklahoma, Texas and Texas Tech could change positions by the end of the weekend. The Longhorns, at 19-10 in fourth place, have finished their portion of the Big 12 schedule and host Sam Houston State in Austin. Oklahoma travels to Ames, Iowa to face Iowa State in a three-game set.

For the Red Raiders to move up in the standings, Tech will have to sweep the three-game series in Stillwater. The best scenario for Texas Tech is a sweep at Oklahoma State and at least one loss by Oklahoma at Iowa State. If this happens, the Red Raiders will move into third place. If Oklahoma and Texas Tech sweep their series, the Sooners will be third, Red Raiders will finish in fourth place and Texas will drop to fifth.

AT THE PLATE

Through 52 games, the Red Raiders have outscored opponents 456-349 ... Tech is averaging 8.8 runs and 10.9 hits per game ... they have reached the double-figure mark in runs 21 times this season, but just six times in the last 23 games ... as a team, Texas Tech is hitting .311 with 119 doubles, 21 triples, 54 home runs and 402 RBI ... Tech hitters have walked 299 times (5.8 BB per game) while opponents have walked 163 times ... with runners in scoring position, they are hitting .331 (211-637) and are averaging 8.7 runners left on base per game (451 in 52 games) ... when runners are on base, the team is batting .335 (331-989) and when the bases are empty the average drops to .282 (237-840) ... with the bases loaded, Tech is 31-86 (.360) ... the Red Raiders are hitting .314 (122-389) against lefties and .310 (446-1,440) against right-handers ... Tech pinch hitters are 18-49 (.367) ... the lineup broke the single-season school record with their 35th sacrifice fly on 4/25 vs. Wayland Baptist ... the record had stood since 1988 ... the Red Raiders have 37 sacrifice flies in

A Quick Look at Oklahoma State

The Oklahoma State Cowbiys enter the weekend series at 34-19 overall and 12-12 in the Big 12. They are sixth in the conference and will be the sixth seed in next week's Big 12 Tournament. Last weekend, the Cowboys swept Iowa State and have won seven of their last eight games.

Head coach Tom Holliday is in his fourth season as the head coach at Oklahoma State with a record of 132-61. In three full seasons, Holliday has led the Cowboys to three 40-win seasons and last year's College World Series.

At the plate, the Cowboys are hitting .309 with 62 home runs, 26 triples and 112 doubles in 53 games. Outfielder Carlos Gautreaux leads the Big 12 in hitting with a .399 average. Junior Luke Scott has hit 10 home runs and 16 doubles while driving in a team-high 54 runs.

Left-hander Matt Smith leads a pitching staff that holds a 4.40 ERA. Smith is 7-6 with a 3.39 ERA while fellow lefty Josh Merrigan is 7-2 with a 3.03 ERA.

State. He has been sidelined throughout much of the season with a pulled hamstring. He first injured the hamstring on 2/15 at TCU. In two attempts to comeback, at Texas A&M and Iowa State, Durham reinjured the leg.

MOVING UP THE CHARTS

Texas Tech head coach Larry Hays became the ninth coach in NCAA Division I history to tally 1,200 career wins on Feb. 2 with a 14-3 victory over West Texas A&M. In his 30th season, Hays is one of only four active NCAA Division I skippers to reach the 1,200-victory plateau. Against Kansas State, Coach Hays moved into eighth place among all-time coaches in career victories ahead of Al Olgetree.

Coach Hays is Texas Tech's all-time winningest coach. He has led the Red Raiders to three conference championships and posted winning seasons in 12 of his 13 years. The Red Raiders have put together a streak of seven straight 40-plus win seasons and five NCAA Regional appearances under Hays. In 1998, he guided Tech to the Big 12 Tournament Championship with just seven pitchers.

He was named 1997 Big 12 Coach of the Year after the Red Raiders won the conference title with a 23-7 Big 12 mark. Texas Tech also claimed the No. 1 ranking in collegiate baseball for several weeks, the first time a Red Raider sport was ranked No. 1 in school history. In the summer of 1997, he was an assistant coach for the USA National Team. In 1995, Texas Tech set a school record with 51 wins and advanced to the Midwest I NCAA Region championship game.

In 29 full seasons at the collegiate level, Coach Hays has led teams to 12 league titles and guided his 1983 Lubbock Christian University team to the NAIA national championship.

GIVE ME THE BALL

Throughout the season, Texas Tech head coach Larry Hays has called upon right-hander Kevin Tracey in every situation a pitcher can face. Tracey is the only pitcher in Big 12 history to record at least seven complete games and seven saves in a single season. In six of the eight conference series, Tracey has appeared in at least two games. At Texas A&M and Nebraska, he pitched in two games on the same day. In two consecutive weekends against Iowa State and Texas, he saved the Saturday game

TEXAS TECH AT OKLAHOMA STATE

FIGUREN NAMED BIG 12 PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Texas Tech senior Chaz Eiguren was named Phillips 66 Big 12 Player of the Week by a select panel of media covering Big 12 baseball for games played Feb. 21-27. The designated hitter blasted five home runs and 16 RBI in Tech's four games that week. He was 13-21 (.619) at the plate and owned a 1.381 slugging percentage with 29 bases in 21 official trips. Eiguren tied an NCAA record last Tuesday with two home runs in the same inning. Against New Mexico, he hit a two-run homer and a grand slam in the Red Raiders' 10-run fifth inning. In his next at bat, the Broomfield, Colorado native sent a solo shot over the right-center field wall. For the game, he went 4-6 with three home runs and seven RBI.

In three games against Missouri, Eiguren hit .600 (9-15) with two home runs, a double and nine RBI. In Friday night's extra-inning loss, he tied the game with a three-run homer in the bottom of the ninth. His final home run of the week came in the first inning on Sunday when he hit a two-run homer to put Tech up 2-0. Eiguren tallied three hits in all three games as he went 3-6 on Friday with five RBI, 3-4 on Saturday and 3-5 with four RBI on Sunday. Eiguren is the first Texas Tech Big 12 Player of the Week since Jon Weber was honored for the week of Feb. 1 last year. Shane Wright and Kevin Tracey were named conference Pitchers of the Week on Feb. 22 and Mar. 8, respectively.

TEXAS TECH ON THE AIR

For the eighth consecutive season, the entire Texas Tech baseball schedule will be broadcasted live on the Red Raider Baseball Network. Voice of Texas Tech Baseball Sam Stephens will handle the play-by-play duties. Stephens has a 20-minute pre-game show and interviews players and coaches following each game. Games will be carried on Texas Tech's hometown station, KXTQ-950 AM as well as Texas Tech's official website www.texastech.com.

ROBERSON AND ACKERMAN TO SIT OUT REMAINDER OF SEASON

Right-handed starting pitchers Brandon Roberson and Chaz Ackerman have decided to sit out the remainder of the 2000 season.

Roberson, Texas Tech's opening day starter, injured his right elbow in his first start of the season on February 2 against West Texas A&M. He was slated to be Texas Tech's number one starter after being named first team All-Big 12 and setting the single-season school save record last season.

Ackerman, a junior-college transfer from Connor J.C., has been diagnosed with a microfracture in his right elbow. He injured the arm in his third start on 2/13 vs. USC.

Texas Tech will appeal to the Big 12 Conference for a medical redshirt on both player's behalf. According to the NCAA, a student-athlete may be granted an additional year of competition for reasons of "hardship." Hardship is defined as an incapacity resulting from an injury that has occurred under the following conditions: (1) The injury occurs prior to the completion of the first half of the playing season that concludes with the NCAA championship in that sport. (2) The injury occurs when the student-athlete has not participated in more than two contests or dates of competition or 20 percent of the institution's completed contests or dates of competition in his sport.

PRESEASON HONORS

RHP Brandon Roberson was named preseason third team All-American by Collegiate Baseball. The senior right-hander was Texas Tech's opening day starter. Roberson was named first team All-Big 12 last year after setting the single season school save record (10) in 1999.

The Dallas Morning News picked the Red Raiders third in a preseason Big 12 poll and named outfielder Marco Cunningham and designated hitter Chaz Eiguren to the all-conference team.

Outfielder Miles Durham was cited by Baseball America as one of the top 100 in the college class of 2000. Durham was ranked 58th by the magazine's writers and major league scouting directors. He was drafted in the seventh round of the 1997 draft by the Los Angeles Dodgers.

DAN LAW FIELD

THE STADIUM

Known as one of the top collegiate ballparks in the country, Dan Law Field has proven to be a definite home-field advantage for Red Raider baseball. Since Larry Hays took over the program in 1987, Texas Tech has won nearly 80 percent of its games at "The Law." In the 1990's, the Red Raiders posted a 281-64 record.

Texas Tech has put together numerous winning streaks with a school-record 30 straight wins from 4/29/95-4/27/96. They have not lost more than 10 home games in a season since 1992.

THE HECKLERS

www.techhecklers.com

The biggest advantage that Texas Tech baseball has at Dan Law Field is the fans and their involvement in the game. Tech baseball fans are known as some of the most knowledgeable and loyal fans in college baseball. A select group of fans, the Hecklers, was formed in 1995 when they were able to purchase season tickets in Section H, Rows 1 and 2.

The Hecklers are known throughout the Big 12 and the nation for their creativity when getting "in the kitchen" of Red Raider opponents. Heckler Chris Snead has written a book, Bleacher Bible, that contains various lines used to "rag" players, coaches and umpires. Also included in the book is the "Ten Commandments of Heckling."

The element that sets the Hecklers apart from other fans in the country is that they develop a relationship with the opponents throughout a series. When Southern California was in Lubbock, catcher Beau Craig's birthday happened to be on the Saturday of that series. The Hecklers greeted Craig on Sunday afternoon with cupcakes, banners, presents and a card signed by over 200 fans.

The Hecklers recently launched their own website, www.techhecklers.com. The website contains the History of the Hecklers, Ten Commandments of Heckling and the All-Heckler Team. There is a link to the site of "Hecklers North" which is a group of students famous for singing the "Gringo Song."

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT DAN LAW FIELD

Southern California Head Coach Mike Gillespie on USC's series at Dan Law Field: "It's a great experience for our players. We don't deal with this very often. We don't deal with this size of crowd or how electric it is."

USC catcher Beau Craig on Red Raider fans: "They don't get too personal, and they know what they're talking about. They know baseball. They pick up on little details. I think the fans here are excellent. I don't think they're jerks. They're great baseball fans. And we would die to have those fans at our park."

"I like this place here more. At Texas, they're not jerks, but they're not that great. They're not good at it. A lot of them don't know what they're talking about, and a lot of them are obnoxious. Here, they're not obnoxious; they're funny. They know what they're talking about."
